

GIANTS WIN BY A GARRISON

With Two Out in Last of Ninth, Locals Send Two Runners Across.

MANAGER VAN HALTREN PROTESTS THE GAME

Oakland Captain Declares That McCreddie Had No Authority to Change Umpires While the Game Was On—McHale's Catch Feature.

Portland 4, Oakland 3.
Batteries—Essick and McLean; Graham and Hackett.
The Giants annexed another game yesterday. 'Twas the sad old story. The visitors are not in the local's class. Oakland has a good team. Van Haltren is wise to many things. There are others.
The faithful fans, who stayed to see the finish, though the score was 3 to 2 in favor of Oakland, in the last half of the ninth, and the first two batsmen for Portland had gone out in order, were well rewarded by seeing the locals sneak up from the rear and send two runs across, thus snatching a victory from what seemed sure defeat.
But baseball is baseball and as long as there is life there is hope, and on this hope the Giants found a way to win a hard fought but loosely played game.

Whether the game will go to Portland's credit is a question that will be settled by President Bert, as Manager Van Haltren has entered a vigorous protest. Here is the feature of the game in words, and the much-abused umpire is the subject of the story.
Oakland hit B. B. Essick of Cincinnati for a couple of runs in the third. Graham was pitching great ball. In the eighth Oscar got his wires crossed and assisted by several errors the Giants tied the score. In the first of the ninth Kruger slammed out a single. Hackett, the "Fat," knocked a triple, and Oom Paul scored. This made the score 2 to 2 in Oakland's favor.

When Hope Was Dead.
In their last chance Essick fled out to left. McHale dived to second. It really looked a cinch for the locals to lose. The fans were leaving their seats. It appeared all over, including the shouting. Bill Sweeney was up. Bill is a bad man from Dublin. His ancestors were bad men with the club. Be that as it may, Bill whipped out a double. It was an American beauty. Mike Mitchell appeared at the bat with but in hand. Graham looked worried. Mike's reputation as a hitter resulted in Graham giving him four balls, knowing that McCreddie was next up. Now, Mc-

Creddie was mist snore for Graham when it came to making a hit.
Oscar looked pleased, but his face soon changed when McCreddie called in Donahue, who was acting as umpire, to bat for him. Donahue is the boy of Tralee. Pat was happy. Van Haltren objected to McCreddie substituting Gum for umpire in Donahue's place and registered a protest with the official scorer, McCreddie of Gibraltar.

The local manager wouldn't relent, and Donahue went to bat. He caught a choice one on the eye and it went for the field. Sweeney started home from second. The throw was good but before the collision between Hackett and Sweeney, the stout catcher dropped the ball for a second and Umpire Gum declared Sweeney safe. This tied the score.

A mighty howl went up by the Commuters, who insisted that Sweeney was out, but Gum couldn't be talked or chewed out of the decision, and the game went on. Portland still needed a run to win and Jud Smith promptly singled and scored Mitchell. That was all.

The feature of the game was McHale's brilliant catch of Devereaux's drive in the ninth. The score:

NEARY AND HERRERA WILL BOX TONIGHT

Badger Athletic Club of Milwaukee Presents an Interesting Fight Program.

(Journal Special Service.)
Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 17.—An eight-round bout between Charley Neary, the Milwaukee lightweight, and Aurelio Herrera, the hard-hitting Mexican, is the magnet that is expected to draw the patrons of the Badger Athletic club to the club arena tonight. The bout has been under discussion for a long time and with the approach of the date the interest among the fight followers has lived to a noticeable degree. It will be Herrera's first appearance in the ring since his fiasco with Battling Nelson at Los Angeles.

The past records of the two fighters justify the expectation of a lively battle. They have met three times and each contest has been a draw. If Neary succeeds in getting the decision in tonight's go he will immediately endeavor to get on a match with Nelson.

Both Neary and Herrera have been working faithfully to get into condition, though the Mexican as a rule is notably lax in his training work. Both now appear to be in fine fettle, fit to fight the battle of their lives.
Several promising preliminaries have been arranged by the club. The complete card for the show is as follows: Aurelio Herrera vs. Charley Neary, 130 pounds; Steve Kinney vs. Harry Griffin, 132 pounds; Jack Nolan vs. Willie McNamara, 126 pounds; Young Sharkey vs. Young Greenwald, 106 pounds.

SPORTING GOSSIP.
Manager Van Haltren based his protest yesterday on rule 65, which reads as follows:
"The umpire can not be changed during a championship game by the consent of the contesting clubs unless the official in charge of the field be incapacitated from service by injury or illness."

Jimmy McHale's catch of Devereaux's hard drive in the ninth, his quick recovery and perfect throw to the plate, that kept Hackett from scoring, was the prettiest play of the game.

Oscar Graham was sore over losing the game. His work was good throughout but his support was ragged.
Van Haltren said that if Halley had played where he was told he would have had Jud Smith's drive in easy fashion.

A baseball lawyer submits these "facts in the trouble over the change of the umpire": The league was to blame for not having an umpire on the field; if Donahue had been on the bench he could have called to bat; if Portland had forfeited the right to use him at a critical moment it would have been due to the league's carelessness; not even a baseball team should be forced to suffer through the sins of another; if the league's judgment on this game it will have to convict itself of the offense of not having an umpire ready to act; by sending Donahue to bat Portland did not gain any advantage in umpires; the team should not lose a game because it accommodated the league.

The Coast league needs officials who can arrange matters so that Portland can have a regular umpire once in a while. Heaven knows that the umpires sent here are bad enough, but then the Giants, sea-bee, bring that comes along, even an umpire.

QUAKE MOVED MOUNTAINS ALONG EEL RIVER

Stockmen Find Bed of Stream Shifted—Hole Found in Mountain.

(Journal Special Service.)
Willows, Cal., Aug. 17.—Hunters and cattlemen discovered this summer many changes in the mountains along the Eel river and in the stream itself. These are supposed to be due to the earthquake of April 18. Some stockmen have just found a huge opening in the side of St. John mountain, one of the loftiest peaks of the coast range, lying near the boundary line between Glenn and Lake counties.
The crevasse varies from 16 to 18 feet wide and its depth is immeasurable, as huge stones thrown into it can be heard striking the sides for eight or ten seconds and no sound of the boulders hitting the bottom can be heard. It is a constant menace to the large cattle interests having their center in this immediate neighborhood.

A NEW DEPARTURE.
The Cost of Interments Has Been Greatly Reduced by The Holman Undertaking Company.

Heretofore it has been the custom of funeral directors to make charges for all incidentals connected with a funeral. The Edward Holman Undertaking Company, the leading funeral directors of Portland, beginning July 1, 1906, will depart from this old custom. When the casket is furnished by us its cost will include all charges, such as conveying the remains to our chapel, outside box, embalming, hearse to cemetery and all services which may be required of us except clothing, cemetery and carriage, thus effecting a saving of $25 to $75 on such funerals.
