

STENSLAND MAY BE HERE E. B. Colwell

Much Wanted Absconding Chicago Bank President Believed to Be In or Near Portland—Detectives Watching

Paul O. Stensland, the absconding president of the Milwaukee Avenue State bank of Chicago, for whom every police officer in the United States is searching, is believed to be in Portland or vicinity and the local police are putting forth every effort to place the bank wrecker behind the bars. All outgoing steamers, sailing vessels and trains are under surveillance and it is thought that the avenues of escape have been closed to Stensland. Every detective has been furnished a description of the hunted man and his capture may be imminent.

Acting upon information received, the nature of which for obvious reasons is not disclosed, Captain of Detectives Bruin detailed Detective J. A. Mears to visit Astoria, Seaside and Vancouver, Washington, in an endeavor to secure a trace of the fugitive. Mears left this city five days ago and returned this morning. At the time of his departure, in order to all suspicion as to the nature of his mission, the report was issued that he had gone on his annual vacation. Although unwilling to state definitely as to whether or not he had met with success, Mears conveys the impression that Stensland has been seen unguarded.

Captain Bruin Talks

Captain Bruin was not so reluctant to discuss the case. Upon interrogation he admitted that Mears had been detailed to search for Stensland.

"I am convinced," said the inspector, "that Stensland headed for this city after his disappearance from Chicago. Acting upon information received I sent Mears to visit Astoria and Vancouver. It would be an easy matter for the bank president to secure passage on some of the vessels sailing from this port to the west. He is undoubtedly traveling in disguise and it will require close scrutiny to identify him from his published picture.

"We are closely watching every vessel and train and if he attempts to escape by rail or water he will surely be captured."

Big Reward Offered

A reward of $12,500 has been offered for the apprehension of Stensland. He is known to be in possession of a large sum of money, which he will have no hesitancy in spending in order to get out of the country. The description as furnished by the Chicago authorities is as follows: Paul Stensland, 37 years of age, 5 feet 9 or 10 inches in height, weight 200 pounds, light sandy hair, quite gray and wavy, had a full beard but is now smooth shaven, prominent blue eyes, square chin and full jaws, Norwegian and speaks with a slight accent, very nervous temperament, usually affable, well dressed, wore straw hat and light clothes when last seen. The warrant was issued upon complaint of C. C. Jones, charging him with president of the Milwaukee Avenue State bank.

NINE BUILDINGS BURN AT KLAMATH FALLS

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Klamath Falls, Or., Aug. 17.—At 9:45 a. m. the explosion of a gasoline generator in the Klamath Falls steam laundry set fire to the building and caused adjacent buildings. The laundry owned by B. D. Campbell and W. O. Smith, the Klamath Falls Marble works, owned by Grizzle Bros., together with their dwelling, also the dwelling owned by Mrs. Flater were entirely consumed. Two other cottages, a blacksmith shop and a stable were somewhat damaged. Repeated explosions of gasoline and of ammunition kept in the building added to the danger to those who fought the fire. Two men were knocked down and run over by a hosecart and considerably injured. The loss entailed will probably reach $10,000.

ROOT CHEERED BY ARGENTINE CROWDS

(Journal Special Service.) Buenos Ayres, Aug. 17.—Secretary Root, at a reception given in his honor by the American community, addressed a gathering of Americans, Englishmen and other leaders of commercial and social life. Arguing upon the prosperity of Argentina he pointed out that there is no reason for jealousy of the United States by Argentina. He advocated more steamship lines between the two countries.

This morning he visited the ranch of Estancia Divot, taking breakfast with Divot and returning about 4 o'clock in the afternoon. He was cheered by the crowds in the streets.

The foreign minister will formally visit the cruiser Charlestown this afternoon. Secretary Root will go next to Montevideo.

Salem Talks Paving.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Salem, Or., Aug. 17.—A mass meeting of property owners interested in paving State street, was held at the city hall last night at the call of Mayor Waters and a committee of three was appointed to obtain further expressions of the desire of the property owners. The streets of the city are fearfully dusty in the summer and muddy in winter and the proposed improvement of State street is a part of a crusade that has been inaugurated for the betterment of the city's thoroughfares.

Knabe Pianos

A highly attuned musical taste demands a piano of exceptional tonal beauty. Merely because a piano is a piano will not suffice.

With musical education has come musical discrimination—the discrimination that makes the buying of the best a matter of duty.

When you mention the word BEST, as regarding pianos, the word KNABE simply suggests itself.

Superior tone quality—lasting durability—coupled with beauty and charm of architecture and finish—are all yours if you have a Knabe piano.

FRANCE TO SEPARATE CHURCH AND STATE

Paris, Aug. 17.—The council of ministers at a meeting with President Fallieres today decided to stand firm for the divorce of church and state, notwithstanding the pope's position, announced in the encyclical last week. The minister of public worship announced that the government will assure the execution of the separation law passed by parliament. This law goes into effect December 11.
