Carl Shelton, the Mount Tabor orphan boy in the educational contest, had never gone to school a day until he was 11 years old. He then entered the Mount Tabor school and went through it in four years. He is anxious to continue his education and that is the reason he is in this competition.

Carl makes his home with W. E. Foster, whose residence telephone is East 277. He will be glad to hear from people who will take an interest in him and advance their subscriptions in his behalf. He will answer calls and wait upon such prospects.

Carl started out at ninth position in the contest. He was crowded down to number 11 and then worked his way back up to ninth and eighth. He is with the point of the cash prizes and is working hard to get up to the top. But those above him have so many influential friends that he finds it difficult to go above them.

Good From Silverton.

Lloyd Riches, the well-known subscription hustler at Silverton, began his contest career about August 3, after the majority of the contestants had been gathering votes for four weeks. His first report was 3,800 votes, and this put him as number 19 in the score list. By dint of hard work and of a well-of an acquaintance in Portland and that is the reason he has been getting on slowly in the contest work. Something may develop in a few days which will send him up the score line.

McMinnville College Notes.

The following news notes about McMinnville college will interest those who are trying to make up their minds what scholarships to select from the attractive list in The Journal's prizes:

Prof. Emanuel Northrup has completed 15 years of work with McMinnville college, thus manifesting his faith in the institution and its future. He is a graduate of Colgate university and of the Morgan Park Theological seminary. Now he is Chickasawinity seminary teacher, a good administrator, having served as dean for many years past, and is much beloved by the alumni and the entire student body of the college. The town of McMinnville has indicated its confidence in him by twice electing him mayor. He is also vice-president of the Oregon Fire Relief association, whose headquarters are at McMinnville.

Students of prospective college students may avail themselves of the opportunity offered by McMinnville college of studying under Mrs. Mattie Hardwick Jones, a reader of exceptional talent and experience. As a teacher of elocution and physical culture, she has proven herself among the first of the land. She possesses those qualities of mind and heart which make her the impressive, entertaining and effective interpreter of that which is truest and best in literary art.

"Tis the glance, the expression, the well-spoken word.

By whose magic the depths of the spirit are stirred."

McMinnville college has been very fortunate in securing the services of Prof. F. G. Boughton for its department of philosophy and modern languages. He is a graduate of Denison university and of the Rochester seminary, and has held two prominent pastorates in Cambridge and Warren, Ohio. He is a leader of exceptional ability, tact and winsomeness whose presence in McMinnville will be a marked drawing card.
