

The greater part of the interest of society nowadays is projected into the future, and most of the talk and plans are for the coming weddings. The month of October, it is said, will be of greater interest to the exclusive set than any one month for years past. Miss Rebecca Catlin's marriage to Waltar Goss will take place early in the month, it is rumored, and the two other engagements recently an nounced will be consummated toward the end of the month—Miss. Ruth Smith's and Miss Emma Failings. There will likely be some brilliant entertaining for the three bride-elects, but everyone is now waiting for the return to town of their many friends.

MUSICAL NOTES.

A letter received from Mrs. P. H. Carroll was written from Danos-Plats, Switzerland, August 1. where she is visiting Madame Langenhan, and is delightfully entertained. After a month in the Alps they expect to return to the madame's Munich home for September. It is an ideal musician's home, Mrs. Carroll writes, with three concert grand planos, and the resort of many stars of the musical world. While in Paris, Mrs. Carroll met De Pachmann, the great Chopin player, who was here in concert last year, and he played for her three hours, to her unbounded delight. In Paris she also met Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dierke, who went abroad early in the summer. Mrs. Dierke, whose career in the world of music will we watched with interest by all Portland, whose faith is pinned on her, will go to Berlin to study for six months with Godowsky, though Mr. Dierke will return home in September.

An event of interest was the musicale given by Mrs. Bert Irwin at the Hotel Breakers last week. Mrs. William Kerr "My Bairnie."
These Tears," and her little daughter Jeannette followed with some pretty child songs. Miss Geraldine Coursen eang pleasingly and C. Rogers of Seattle played the Lucia sextet and some other numbers. Miss Annis Ditchburn sang "Contentment" and "The Lass With the Delicate Air," and Miss Helen Lytle sang "I Love You Truly" and "My Bairnie."

Mrs. Luiu Dahl-Miller sang a lovely contraits sole at the First Presbyterian church last Sunday evening. In the morning Miss Grace Campbell won all morning Miss Grace Campbell won all her hearers by her sympathetic rendition of "O Lord, Be Merciful" (Bartlett). Harold V. Milligan presided at the organ and is to be congratulated on the excellence of the music he is providing as organist and choir director during the vacation of Edgar E. Coursen and his choir.

Mrs. Carl Williams (Helen Goss) of The eDalles, with her beby daughter, is visiting her mother in Irvington. Mrs. Williams was prominent in musical circles of Portland as a member of the Treble Clef club for three years, and as first soprane of the St. Helen's Hall
