

NEW HAVEN WELCOMES

(Continued from Page One.)

Some one interpret his words as partiality. You will not find progress...

Progress of Democracy. There is not a nation on the earth in which you will not find progress...

The duma in Russia was dissolved, but it was dissolved with the words...

Bryan was roundly cheered when he concluded. Former Governor Garvan...

BRYAN FEELS FINE

No Trace of Hoarseness—Leaves for Trip Through Connecticut.

New York, Aug. 31.—Mr. Bryan was up early this morning and no trace of hoarseness remained in his voice...

TO FOLLOW NEW LINES

(Continued from Page One.)

He proposed to express them. It is said that Congressman John Sharp Williams was offended by W. J. Bryan in London when Williams protested against government ownership...

Comments of the Press. Commenting on Bryan's speech the New York World, (independent) today says:

important recommendations. His speech proved that he was indeed right when he claimed to be more radical than he was in 1896...

The Sun (Republican) today says: "The change of the past decade should warn the professional candidate that the surface of things, though smooth and bright enough, hides many a pitfall..."

JAPANESE DIES

(Continued from Page One.)

was in a little safe in his room on the top floor. Before his companions could divine his purpose, the man rushed back into the burning building to save his precious store of money...

RAILROADS PREPARE

(Continued from Page One.)

sideable part of the Northwestern stock holdings of the Vanderbilt family are believed to have recently come into possession of the Standard Oil party, which is well represented on the Union Pacific directorate.

Depends on the Outcome. On the outcome of the contest for Milwaukee control will depend the continuation of building of the road from Evans, South Dakota, to Portland and Seattle.

Comments of the Press. Commenting on Bryan's speech the New York World, (independent) today says:

The BEAVER

THE HAT FOR OREGON MEN

Stiff and Soft Hats in the new fall styles are now here, $3.00.

Our Hat Man will be pleased to show you.

166-168 THIRD STREET MOHAWK BUILDING

Oregon Steam Navigation company. He has attained the advanced age of 83 years. Many years ago he occupied the building at 271 Pine street as his residence...

Among those burned out are Qing Tin Co., S. Koka, 46 Fourth street; Mrs. S. Okasaki, 48 1/2 Fourth street; S. Kawasaki, 48 Fourth street; George Sing Co., Fourth street; Mary Sasakaki, 48 1/2 Fourth street; Louis Yee, 272 Pine street; Jean and Sind, sailors, 274 1/2 Pine street; G. Latechuhgah, K. Hava, Charley Motran, Yung Din, Chin Un, Yee Salim, and Back Lee, Dung Sing, Ju Go Day, Mrs. Gum Gee.

RAILROADS PREPARE

(Continued from Page One.)

sideable part of the Northwestern stock holdings of the Vanderbilt family are believed to have recently come into possession of the Standard Oil party, which is well represented on the Union Pacific directorate.

Depends on the Outcome. On the outcome of the contest for Milwaukee control will depend the continuation of building of the road from Evans, South Dakota, to Portland and Seattle.

The splendid appearance of the New Clothing in our New Store is remarked on every hand, but that all the excellencies of the garments may be best understood, we would have buyers

Examine the substantial linings and observe how carefully they are sewed with Silk

Our Bedford $3 Hat has a place in the heart of every wearer

S. Bromberger & Co. 343 Washington Street, Two Doors West of Seventh

REMOVAL NOTICE We have moved from our former location, 108 Sixth Street, to 327 Washington, between Sixth and Seventh, where we will be pleased to serve our customers and the public with the most up-to-date line of Family Wines and Liquors.

Full Measure House PHONE MAIN 2394 327 WASHINGTON ST., BET. 6th AND 7th

Advertisement for Saturday Specials, Nickel Plate Specials, Lightning Bread Knife, and Powerco. Includes a large image of a bread knife and a list of products.

NO ROBBERY (Continued from Page One.) intended to place a mortgage on the properties when the buildings were completed and then pay off the notes.

What Attorney King Says. "That man never lost a 19-cent piece," said Attorney King, and as his attorney I am in a position to know that the money is in a safe place.

Advertisement for American Restaurant, COR. THIRD AND COVE STS. OPEN DAY AND NIGHT. Lists menu items like Corn Beef Hash and Poached Egg.

creditors. Lately he was trying to go into bankruptcy in Portland through Attorney H. C. King, 416 Fenton building, but as he is declared bankrupt in Pittsburg, his application was refused in Portland.

Wife Figures in Story. Frits negotiated for the purchase of the Steel Bridge Exchange saloon in this city, but the deal fell through.

Two detectives have had Frits under surveillance for over two months, but refrained from making an arrest, in order to have an opportunity to get back the money.

of the detective assigned on the case yesterday, and it is believed that upon being detailed he immediately hastened to pour the tale into the ear of credulous reporters, in direct violation of the rules of the department.

Advertisement for A.P. Steinbach & Co. featuring a large image of a shirt and text: 'New Shirts $1.30', 'Pajamas $1.85', 'Neckwear'.

Advertisement for Erickson's Cafe and Music Hall, listing various acts and performances like Biff & Bang, The Margessons, Thelma Wheeler, etc.

Advertisement for Merchants Investment & Trust Co., 247 Washington Street. CAPITAL $100,000.00. Lists officers like J. Frank Watson, E. L. Duram, etc.

Advertisement for Avery & Co. featuring a large image of a shirt and text: 'Don't Chase Rainbows', 'Avery & Co.', 'Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup'.