

WILLIE WESTINGHOUSE GETS HOME--AND INTO TROUBLE

Dear Tommy—I arrived home all right. Found Jim whitewashing all the fences on the place.

As he had about half a mile of them to do, I made him a brush like this diagram.

By using this he got along about twice as fast.

Papa and the Minister thought it was a great scheme until the brush got closed.

Then Jim started to monkey with it and pulled out the cork.

Of course, the spring, forced out the whitewash in streams, and everybody got soaked. Yours, Willie.

THE 'ALMOST' FAMILY--THEY ARE INVITED TO A PICNIC

