Marconi Establishes Communication Between Cape Breton and Ireland.

Gosraal Special Service.) Sydney, N. E. Sept. 6.— We have all-ready established Trans-Atlantic com-munication between the station at Giace Bay, and that at Christian Island, Ireland." Said Signor Marconi, who has been visiting Cape Breton yesterday. "The latter station is not completed as yet, and we have not received any messages from it." he continued. "My visit here is for the purpose of looking over this station and inspecting the installation of some powerful ma-chinery, both for sending and receiving Trons-Atlantic messages. I expect to have the station open for business in a short time, but would not care to name the date." A machine shop is being fitted up at the station here, where all parts of the Marconi apparatus will be manufac-tured.

tured. Signor Marconi at present is engaged Signor Marconi at present is engaged in the invention and perfection of a de-vice by the means of which the location of any ship can be accurately deter-mined in the thickest weather. This apparatus will be first experi-mented on during the coming winter. He left today for New York and sails for England next Tuesday.

ne, and last night struck me on the arm, and last night struck me on the arm, and I bought the pistol at Second and Morrison streets yesterday with the cold-blooded, matter-of-fact way in which she discussed the crime. Conrad-says that the woman is men-tally unbalanced and that she is grow-ing worse. She was an inmate of St. Vincent's hospital and the North Pa-cific sanatorium on different cocasions, and the treatments given her in these institutions seemed to have a beneficial effect. According to her husband, she became addicted to the use of oplates to relieve her pain, and when under the in-fluence of the drug becomes murderous. Wound Not Serious.

fluence of the drug becomes murderous. Wound Not Serious. Conrad's wound was examined by Dr. Wheeler at police headquarters and the builtet was found to have lodged in the muscles of the right arm. The weapon used by Mrs. Conrad was of 22-calibre and the bone in the arm was not shat-tered. It has been learned that several days ago Conrad accompanied his wife to a hardware store where she purchased a revolver, but the clerk, after making the sale, believing that the woman in-tended harm with the pistol, refunded the purchase price and took the weapon from her.
