Because Foster Bradley did not appear in the circuit court on the day set for his trial on the charge of stealing 1,100 pounds of lead from the Portland Gas company his bail of $500 was ordered forfeited by Judge Gantenbein this morning at the request of Deputy District Attorney H. B. Adams. Bradley's trial was set for last Monday and when he did not appear a bench warrant for his arrest was issued. On request of Attorney H. C. King, who represented F. F. Hall, Bradley's bondsman, additional time was allowed to produce Bradley in court before the bail was declared forfeited. As Bradley had not appeared this morning the bail was ordered forfeited to the county. Since the lead Bradley was accused of stealing was worth only about $55, it is believed no further effort to apprehend him will be made after the bail money is paid.

The United States circuit court of appeal convened in the federal building this morning with Judges Gilbert, Ross and Morrow on the bench to hear the appeal in the case of A. A. Hendrick and Charles M. Baillie against Estor Lagoon and Thomas L. Greenough. The suit is one involving the principle of eminent domain in which the plaintiff seeks to gain rights of way across lands belonging to the defendants. The plaintiffs in the case are the owners of mining property and are seeking to establish mines and roadways across intervening land owned by the defendants. The case is appealed from the Idaho district and the plaintiffs are represented by Senator W. H. Hayburn and W. H. Batting. The counsel for the defense is Walter A. Jones, ex-Senator George Turner and F. J. P. Gray.

C. H. Sholes, A. W. Person and J. E. Boys, the official shorthand reporters of the circuit court, have fitted up a vacant room at the courthouse for an office. The reporters will now have their headquarters at the courthouse, and the inconvenience of calling them from their office at the Chamber of Commerce building will be avoided in the future.

DR. BROUGHER ON THE EMBEZZLER

Woman May Not Be Wholly to Blame, Declares Pastor of the White Temple.

PEOPLE INCLINED TO CENSURE HER TOO MUCH

Weak Men Always Ready to Place All Responsibility at the Feet of the Woman in the Case, Since the Days of Adam and Eve.

Last night at the popular evening service at the White Temple, Dr. J. Whitcomb Brougher spoke on "The Embezzler—Why?—Is the Woman to Blame?" He spoke in part as follows: "Our city has been stirred the past week by the story of a young man from a good home embezzling several thousand dollars from the Portland Gas company and spending it in riotous living. In giving a reason for his stealing he replied: 'It was a case of wine, women and automobiles; I was spending the money on them.' The story of this young man's downfall is a most vivid illustration of my sermon, preached two Sunday nights ago, on the subject 'To Hell in an Automobile.'

"A great deal has been said about 'a woman in the case.' The newspapers have had a great deal to say about her, and after some investigation I should judge that the papers knew what they were talking about. As a general thing, however, the woman gets more blame than the man.

"Adam blamed Eve, and down through the ages the sons of Adam have inclined to blame 'the daughters of Eve' for their misdeeds. This characteristic portrays with tremendous emphasis the cowardly, sneaking nature of sin.

Says Society Is Unjust. "If the woman is the stronger personality of the two, then she is more to blame than the man. If he is the stronger, then he is more to blame. If they are equal, then they must bear equally the responsibility. Society, however, has been absolutely unjust in this regard. Woman has always been blamed the most and that by her own sex, too. 'He was a favored young man. He had a good home, a good position and could have enjoyed the best of society. There was not a particle of excuse for this young fellow becoming a rascal, but he did not appreciate the real value of life and money. To him life was simply the gratification of sensual desires; money to him was only a medium for having a gay time. The ancient and modern prodigal both spend their money in riotous living.' The young man who lives simply, as he says, 'to have a good time' will waste his money and end his life in ruin.

Insanity of Sin. "The insanity of sin is never shown more strikingly than in this case. He who knows the ultimate ruin and disgrace the sinner nevertheless rushes on to his doom. Unwilling to learn from the experience of others, the prodigal in the Bible and the prodigal of Portland set upon their own judgment against the judgment of home and friends and go willfully into sin. It must have been evident to the young embezzler that he would be found out soon. Such a career is soon ended, but mad with his infatuation for sin and determined to gratify his unholy desires, he played the fool. "When the prodigal of the Bible realized that he had played the fool, he repented and went back to his father's home. His father saw him coming. By some strange intuition he recognizes him afar off. The fatted calf is killed and they make merry, because the son that was gone as dead is alive again. The son that was lost is found. This is a picture of God's love and mercy. No man or woman can fall so low that God cannot forgive them and save them to a better life."

HAWAII TRADE FOR PORTLAND

W. A. Mears Says No Reason Exists Why Local Wholesalers Should Not Get Share.

No reason exists why Portland wholesalers and manufacturers should not get a good share of the Hawaiian Islands trade. If they do not, the failure will be attributable to a neglecting of the opportunity. This is the conclusion drawn from observations made by W. A. Mears, who has just returned from a trip to Honolulu as a representative of the Portland chamber of commerce.

He says there is plenty of trade to go after, and that the Hawaiian merchants desire a competitive market, their business having heretofore gone almost wholly to San Francisco. The one thing that is necessary for Portland to do is to go after the trade, keep after it, and handle it right. Portland houses will have to send traveling men, keep the Hawaiian advised as to market prices and conditions, and sailing of vessels.

"Since the Matson steamship line began making Portland a port of call it is up to the local business men to furnish traffic sufficient to keep the boats busy. This can be done only by going after the Hawaiian trade in an aggressive and determined manner. The large jobbing houses of Hawaii should be induced to place a purchasing agent in Portland, or appoint a man already here to look after their interests. They have located an agent at Seattle, who is working in the interests of the American-Hawaiian steamship line. Portland is a primary market for many more articles of merchandise than the sound, and this city, if properly represented, cannot fail to hold its own in the commerce with the Hawaiian Islands.

SOMETIMES IT DOES!

A Hearty Meal Should Never Annoy or Distress.

A hearty meal should give a sense of gratification and comfort. It should never annoy or distress. If you have indigestion and discomfort after eating, it shows that your digestive organs are weakened and they cannot properly care for the food which has been swallowed. If you cannot eat and digest with pleasure and comfort each day, you need to use MI-O-NA stomach tablets, and you should go to Woodard, Clarke & Co. for a box at once.

MI-O-NA is as unlike the ordinary peptic digestive tablet as the electric light is more valuable than a tallow dip. MI-O-NA cures indigestion or stomach trouble, by strengthening and regulating the whole digestive system, thus enabling the organs to take care of the food you eat without any distress or discomfort.

Use MI-O-NA for a few days and the nervousness, sleeplessness, general debility and weakness, backache, loss of appetite, headache and other ills that are caused by indigestion will be banished and you will feel well all over.

MI-O-NA makes positive and lasting cures and is sold under an absolute guarantee that the money will be refunded unless the remedy cures. Ask Woodard, Clarke & Co. to show you the guarantee they give with every 50¢ box of MI-O-NA.
