CHURCH TO CELEBRATE HALF CENTURY OF EXISTENCE

Name of Condit Has Never Been Separated From Its Welfare.

The Presbyterian church at Pleasant Grove is to celebrate its fiftieth anniversary September 22 with fitting ceremonial. As one of the oldest churches of the state, it is of great interest to Presbyterians and several ministers and laymen from various parts of the state will go to the little country town to be present at the exercises.

At 10 o'clock in the morning there will be a Sunday school rally with an address by Rev. L. G. Knotts of Albany. At 11 o'clock Rev. W. S. Holt, D. D., superintendent of Presbyterian missions in Portland, will give the sermon at the anniversary service. A basket luncheon in the grove will be followed at 1 o'clock by reminiscences, letters from pastors and a short address by the present pastor, Dr. E. J. Thompson of Albany, and communion service will be conducted by Rev. William M. Robinson of Salem.

Dr. Thompson is one of the older ministers of the Oregon Presbytery and has held pastorates at Albany, Corvallis and Independence. Last year he resigned from active work but is supplying the Pleasant Grove pulpit till a new minister is called. He is well acquainted with the work of the denomination in the state and on the coast and will have some interesting stories of the pioneer

WINTER'S WORK BEGUN AT PORTLAND LIBRARY

Employees Return From Vacations and Examinations Are Held.

The vacations are all over at the public library and the winter's work has begun in earnest. Yesterday examinations were given to applicants for apprenticeship and Miss Mary Johnson, Miss Elizabeth Campbell and Miss Grace Galle passed and will soon be added to the force. Miss Derrickson, head of the circulating department, returned yesterday from her vacation east. Miss Rockwood of the reference department and Miss Millard of the children's department have returned from a tour of several weeks visiting libraries and studying advanced library methods in the east. Miss Ruth Whitney of San Diego, a recent graduate of the Pratt Institute Library school, has joined the staff and will be first assistant in the

MORNING FOR FREAK CASES IN THE MUNICIPAL COURT

It was a morning of "freak" cases in the municipal court and the proceedings were considerably enlivened by nature of the testimony of several defendants.

R. Twing, a German, was arrested at an early hour this morning by Patrolman Burri at Second and Burnside streets on a charge of drunkenness. During the testimony of the policeman as to his inebriated condition, Twing caused some excitement by declaring that the patrolman was a liar. Jailer Wendorf took the stand to corroborate Patrolman Burri as to Twing's condition and then the irate German had his inning.

"I never had into a saloon been for putty nearly nine years, and never von drink of de wile stuff. Gester hab ich to Portland cum fur de furst time in twenty-five years. I was loking fur sum relatives and met Mr. Corral, a real estate man, who was an oldi friend of mine. We were togeder for ofer two hours and den I started out for mine hotel. Die pollee arrested me und I was not drunk. No, mein herr, I never drink fur nine years."

In response to a question from City Attorney Fitzgerald as to what he was doing out so late Twing replied, "It is cataloging department.

The reports at the last monthly board meeting for August showed progress in all lines of work and Miss Isom, head librarian, feels strongly encouraged with the work. With the opening of the schools the numbers in the statistical

TURN VEREIN GYM OPENS FOR SEASON

Announcements of the opening of the Turn Verein gymnasium for the season are out. The "gym" was thrown open on Monday and is already well patronized. The Portland Social Turn Verein for many years has advocated a thorough physical education for boys and girls as well as for men and women. The "gym" is located at Fourth and Yamhill streets.

Richard Sykes of Santa Barbara, California, is at the Portland. Mr. Sykes recently purchased the Oregon Central military road, a tract of land containing 500,000 acres. Mr. Sykes owns the land in common with the Hunter Land company.
