Captain D. F. Toster of the life-saving service has returned from a month's inspection of the stations on the Oregon coast. Among the stations visited were Point Adams, Unquiqua river, Coos bay, Yaquina bay and Coquille river. He will leave Monday to complete his inspection, traveling as far north as Gray's harbor.

Captain Toster received instructions from the department of Washington to call for bids for repairing and supplying the stations in this jurisdiction. There are nine of these stations and the cost for each station will be about $4,000, making the total expenditure $36,000.

The murder of S. Moriyama, a Japanese, who was stabbed to death in a Japanese restaurant at 48 North Third street, on last Sunday night, bids fair to go unpunished. A coroner's jury yesterday was unable to fix the blame and rendered a verdict simply to the effect that the deceased came to his death as a result of knife wounds inflicted by three little Japanese waitresses who were the only witnesses examined, and not one of them could throw any light upon the crime. The police have so far made no arrests in the case.

There will be an open meeting of the Consumers' league tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock in the parlors of Judge George H. Williams, 41 North Second street. All interested are cordially invited to attend. Miss Helen Barnes, international secretary for the Y. W. C. A., will address the meeting on some phases of factory work. Miss Barnes has made a study of factory life and its effects on the lives especially of young women and will have some interesting thoughts to present.

The first wheat of the season's crop came down the Columbia river to the state portage road Tuesday. The consignment consisted of 1,000 bushels. It left the bank below Arlington, by boat, Tuesday morning, and yesterday was waiting at the Big Eddy terminal for a down river boat. The shipment will reach Portland Thursday, although some things over two days in transit. This is regarded as a prompt dispatch for freight moving by water routes where transfers are necessary.

A basket of 30 peaches weighing 35 pounds is on exhibition at the Portland Commercial club. The peaches were raised at The Dalles, and are a gift to the club from A. Bennett of that city. Portland business men who visited Celilo a few days ago in company with Congressman J. E. Randall, and were entertained with a banquet at The Dalles, were served with the same kind of peaches and the club has received favorable comments for their size and coloring.

The regular printed annual report of the officers and directors of the Fortland Open Air sanatorium will be ready soon for distribution among those interested. This was announced at a meeting held yesterday afternoon in the private office of President A. L. Mills of the First National bank. The reports not being ready, the meeting was of brief duration, but will convene again in a few days.

A not very important case was filed in the circuit court this morning dismissing the charge against John Deane of stealing a cook stove on August 18.

Considerable difficulty was encountered by the attendants at St. Vincent's hospital last night in managing Tony Sanin, a patient admitted yesterday.

TWO OPERA SINGERS WHO ARE WINNING PRAISE IN PORTLAND

Miss Mabel Day and Carl Hayden Singing Their Way Into Hearts of Local Playgoers.

In the Stewart opera company there are at least two people who have won their way into the hearts of Portland playgoers. They are Carl Hayden, the tenor, and Miss Mabel Day, the prima donna.

Hayden has been here before. On his first appearance Sunday night he was given an ovation and several bouquets of flowers. The ovations and flowers she could sing. Also, she can act. Combining these two qualities she gives a performance that is much to do with the success of the Stewart opera company. Her solos are particularly rich, while her work with the chorus is just as worthy of mention. Her voice pops away up in the fleet somewhere and retains its purity while doing so.

"A person's voice," says Miss Day, "reflects a person's feelings at the time. That is why I always try to avoid anything disagreeable. There is little friction in our company. That is why everyone sings so happily. One cannot sing if an angry mood is on. It is like laughing after partaking of a sodden dinner."

William G. Stewart has a good baritone voice, only he doesn't let it out as much as he might. And the chorus, which backs up these principals, is a good one and knows how to sing. But it is the work of Hayden and Miss Day that contributes to the worth of the aggregation, as they have shown in "The Two Roses" and in "Dorothy."

John Curt had an eye to business when he contracted these people. If he always peddles out artists of this caliber the public will peddle out the money.

IT'S SLABWOOD TO VAUGHN IS AGAIN SLOMED UNDER

Streets Are No Longer to Be Pressed Into Service as Drying Pans.

Water through hose for sprinkling yards or sidewalks, or washing porches or windows, must be paid for in advance and used only between the hours of 9 and 3 a. m. and 8 and 9 p. m. It must not be used for sprinkling streets. If used contrary to these rules, or wastefully, it will be shut off.

FUEL TRUST GETS NO SPECIAL PRIVILEGES

Mayor Makes Veto Good Though Nine Councilmen Cast Votes Favoring Obstruction of Streets for Forty-Two Days.

Because five councilmen voted to sustain the mayor's veto of the ordinance which he declares grants special privileges to the slabwood trust, the measure was lost in the council yesterday. The veto was taken at once as follows: Yes—Amann, Belding, Bennett, Duning, Gray, Masters, Menefee, Preston, Willis, No—Kellaher, Rushlight, Sharkey, Vaughn, Wallace. Absent—Shepherd.

Southern Pacific Attorney Gives Assurance of Partial Abatement of Nuisance and Council Pigeon-Holes Resolution of People's Champion.

Promised by W. D. Fenton that the Southern Pacific would take its freight and heavy passenger trains off Fourth street because of the expense of hauling them up the tremendous grade, a majority of the council yesterday afternoon voted the Vaughn ordinance repealing the "perpetual" franchise of the Harriman lines into a deep niche on the top shelf, after two hours of reverberating oratory by the friends and foes of the Southern Pacific.

WOULD PRESENT PAINTING TO TEDDY

Talk of raising a fund in Portland to purchase the La Barre Goodwin's 12,000 painting of the door of the Roosevelt cabin is being revived. A number of Portland art connoisseurs and capitalists are enthusiastic over the idea, and it is said that the program, if carried out, as suggested, would be one of the best advertisements for Oregon that could be secured.
