

The Market Basket

In a few days it will be all off with the peach crop as far as shipping operations are concerned. It behooves you, therefore, to move very rapidly if you don't expect to get out of your winter's supplies. Some very choice ones are now being received both from this state and from California. Prices as low as they will get.

There's going to be a considerable shortage in the supply of honey this season, according to latest reports from Southern California. From present indications the output by the bees will be about a half of the normal supply, and this is sure to affect the price.

There still remain in the market a few crates of strawberries. These are in very good shape and sell quite well at 25¢ per one-pound box. The fruit is from North Carolina.

Blackberries are practically out of market, only an occasional crate being shown. Prices about the same.

It's getting close to Thanksgiving and the time is ripe for a review of the turkey and cranberry markets. Local cranberries made their appearance for the season in the markets this week. While the stocks are not bulky, they are showing much better quality than any former arrivals. Present supplies are from San Lake, near Tillamook. The crop is the heaviest ever raised in this state and prices are not likely to move as high as a year ago.

Turkeys will be high again this season. Supplies will be considerably better than a year ago, but there will be a heavier demand, and this will take more than the former surplus to fill. California and Washington are both dependent almost altogether upon Oregon for their turkey supplies and this causes the high prices here.

There continues a very great scarcity in the supplies of chickens in the wholesale markets, and this is the reason why all sorts of poultry is high at retail. Eggs are again higher by account of the scarcity of local ranch stock. Prices began to move upward early in the week and are continuing that movement.

Creamery butter is 5¢ a roll higher than a week ago and present prices are that the price will show further advances in the near future. This is due to the shortage in cream supplies.

There will in all probability be a sharp advance in the price of cheese within the next week or so. Another shortage.

The tactics of the sugar market are very interesting and the price is high at this time. During the past week the price has advanced about 50¢ a sack at retail, and there are evidences that the market will go up several more points before taking a breath. Trouble in Cuba and the fact that the two Pacific coast refiners have lost millions of dollars by their warring form the basis for the advance.

Even flour is going to advance in price in the near future. This year the price of new grade went down very suddenly at the opening of the season. That was a week ago. Already there are signs that the bottom prices have already been reached. A larger oriental demand will form the basis for an advance in this market.

There's still plenty of fruit in the markets, but prices are going upward. Nothing seems to decline these days, and the fruit market is no exception to this rule. Peas, which were going begging a week or so ago at 50¢ a box at retail, are now selling at 75¢ and 11¢ a box at wholesale, with a corresponding advance at retail. Tomatoes are worth double what they were a week ago, and even prunes are not so cheap as then.

A few retail prices for you: Barberries, 10¢ per box; huckleberries, 17½¢ per box; strawberries, 25¢ box.

Fruits—Bananas, 25¢ dozen; lemons, 25¢ dozen; limes, 25¢ dozen; apples, 75¢ 12½ box; plums, 10¢ 12½ basket; pears, apples, 55¢ 40¢ each; gooseberries, two pounds for 25¢; grapes, 35¢ 50¢ basket; casabas, 40¢ each; peaches, 11¢ 11.25 box; cantaloupes, 50¢ 10¢.

Vegetables—Sageplant, 12½¢ pound; peppers, bell, 15¢ pound; peas, telephone, 8¢ pound; string beans, three pounds for 25¢; cucumbers, 25¢ dozen; summer squash, 50¢ pound; new California onions, 30¢ pound; rhubarb, 5¢ pound; potatoes, 2¢ pound; green onions, 25¢ dozen bunches; new carrots, three bunches for 5¢; head lettuce, 5¢ head; radishes, 5¢ bunch; cauliflower, 12½¢ head; tomatoes, 50¢ 75¢ box; green corn, 25¢ dozen; mushrooms, 50¢ pound; celery, three heads, 25¢; sweet potatoes, four pounds for 25¢.

Fresh Fish—Halibut, 10¢ pound; salmon, 12½¢; starbuck, 12½¢; striped bass, 20¢ 25¢; soles, 12½¢ 15¢; black cod, 12½¢; perch, 10¢; flounders, 10¢; shad, 12½¢; sea trout, 20¢; crabs, 10¢ each; salmon chubs, 25¢ dozen; shad roe, 25¢ pound.

Butter and Eggs—Best creamery, 45¢ 50¢ per two-pound roll; cooking, 40¢ roll; fresh ranch eggs, 30¢ 35¢ dozen.

Poultry—Chickens, 20¢ pound; ducks, 12¢ 15¢ each; squabs, 75¢ pair; spring chickens, 25¢ pound.

the captain claimed that he could not get men with licenses at that time. He paid the second fine about a week ago, and now has had a third fine assessed him for promoting the second male to the rank of first officer when he has not the proper papers to hold the position. The fine was $100 each time.

A NEW DEPARTURE

The Cost of Interments Has Been Greatly Reduced by the Holman Undertaking Company.

Heretofore it has been the custom of funeral directors to make charges for all incidentals connected with a funeral. The Edward Holman Undertaking Company, the leading funeral directors of Portland, beginning July 1, 1936, will depart from this old custom. When the casket is furnished by its cost will include all charges, such as conveying the remains to our chapel, outside box, embalming, hearse to cemetery and all services which may be required of us except clothing, cemetery and carriage, thus effecting a saving of $24 to $74 on each funeral.
