

SEGAL IS BRANDED AS DEVIL'S DEPUTY

PHILADELPHIA.
No one to blame but myself—Segal got all the money—was fooled in lending it to him thinking he was a business good.

(Heart News Service.) Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 21.—"The devil's deputy" is the name applied to Adolph Segal, who secured over $5,000,000 through hypnotic influence from the late President, Hipple, of the wrecked Real Estate Trust company by directors of the wrecked bank.

No scheme was too wild for Hipple and Segal when their need was ready cash. Overdrafts of hundreds of thousands of dollars from Segal's wildest conceits were honored at Hipple's order, and with the cash at the bank practically exhausted, the depositors' money was drawn upon, and Segal's notes, endorsed by Hipple, were carried and reported to the bank examiners as cash.

Good securities upon which loans had been made to responsible parties were filched from the vault and substituted again and again for loans to Segal, and the worthless stocks and bonds in his own enterprises tendered by Segal for his enormous loans substituted for the gilt-edged securities for other loans, until the affairs of the bank are in such hopeless confusion that it will take weeks to straighten them.

By such wild and criminal methods more than $5,000,000 of the bank's funds and depositors' money was dissipated, and a number of officers of the bank were cognizant of this state of affairs and must have known that a great financial crash was inevitable, and declined to make any move, even when the under officers of the bank protesting against the way affairs were being conducted.

Even murder or a suicide pact is hinted at by the revelations of the insane lengths to which the illicit partnership between Hipple and Adolph Segal was carried in the juggling of the depositors' millions in the trust company for the wildest of money-getting schemes, as it was learned today that Hipple had made an attempt three weeks ago to have Segal's life insured for $100,000. Had he been successful in one company he might have taken out a number of policies, and then by some dark method caused these policies to mature as a part-reparation for the wrong he had done those who had entrusted their savings to his care.

FONETIC SPELLING CAUSES GRIEF

Controllers of Treasury and Currency Say Their Jobs Are Spelled Comptroller.

CLAIM TAKES ACT OF CONGRESS TO CHANGE

Bureau of Education, Treasury Department and Navy Department Protested Against Copy Furnished by Public Printer.

(Journal Special Service.) Washington, Sept. 21.—Controller of the Currency Ridgeley and Controller of the Treasury Tracewell called on Public Printer Stillings for a fresh stock of stationery. When it reached them they found their titles being one of the 800 words simplified by Andrew Carnegie and approved by President Roosevelt.

The officials made vehement protest, asserting that the revised statutes fixed the spelling as "comptroller," and that it could not be changed except by an act of congress. Acting Secretary of the Treasury Keese this afternoon decided that Ridgeley and Tracewell were in the right. He issued instructions that the stationery be issued with the word spelled "comptroller." He based his decision on the revised statutes.

Public Printer Stillings declared today that he has no discretion in the matter; that he had received his orders from the president and that all objections must be made to him.

Up to this time the bureau of education, the treasury department and the navy department have protested against any changes being made in "copy" furnished to the public printer.

PREACHER JILTS FIANCEE ON WEDDING DAY

Sensation Caused in Church Circles in Redlands Over Pastor's Actions.

(Journal Special Service.) Los Angeles, Sept. 21.—Six months ago and less than a year after the death of his wife, the engagement of Rev. Dr. Wilbert P. Ferguson, one of the most prominent Methodist divines of the southwest, and Mrs. Maude V. Lackey, a well-known church worker, was announced. The wedding was set for yesterday, and the bride had made every preparation, when Dr. Ferguson suddenly appeared at her home and announced that he had changed his mind and could not marry her.

Mrs. Lackey, who is a daughter of Dr. Francis E. Corbin, is prostrated, as are the members of her family, but they say nothing against Dr. Ferguson, preferring to let the matter drop.

When the engagement was announced there was a stir in Methodist circles because Dr. Ferguson was to marry a divorced woman, and trouble followed in his charge at Redlands. He was asked to resign, it is said, but he has been transferred to a charge at Lincoln, Nebraska. He blames the church members, it is said, and frankly told Mrs. Lackey so, for his change of heart and plans.

London, Sept. 21.—The Duchess of Fife, eldest daughter of the king, who recently underwent an operation as an outcome of severe complications following a chill, is reported well on the road to recovery. # NERVOUS DEBILITY

DEPLORABLE CONDITION CURED BY DR. WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS.

Nervous debility is the common name for what the doctors term neurasthenia. It is characterized by mental depression, fits of the "blues," or melancholy, loss of energy and spirits. The patient's eyes become dull, the pink taden from the cheeks, the memory becomes defective so that it is difficult to recall dates and names at will. Some of these symptoms only may be present or all of them. The remedy lies in toning up the nervous system and there is no remedy better adapted for this purpose than Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Mrs. Jane J. Davies of No. 214 Warren street, Scranton, Pennsylvania, says: "Some years ago I became greatly reduced in health and strength and my nervous system became so debilitated that I felt wretched. I could not rest or sleep well at night and woke up as weary and languid in the morning as I was when I went to bed. My head ached in the morning and often there was a pain in my right side which was worse when I sat down. My nerves were on edge all the time, every little noise bothered me and I was generally miserable.

"Then I decided to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, as my husband had taken them with good results, and they did wonders for me. Now I have no more pain in my side, no more headaches, I sleep well and feel strong and able to do my work."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are the best nerve tonic because they convey nourishment to the nerves in the only way that is in accord with the plan of nature—through the blood. These pills cured Mrs. Davies and they can do just as much for every weak, pale ailing man or woman who is slipping into a hopeless decline. They strike straight at the root of all common diseases caused by poor and impoverished blood such as anemia, indigestion, biliousness, headaches, backaches, rheumatism, neuralgia, nervousness and even more serious nervous disorders.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or will be sent postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box, six boxes for $2.50, by Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

She lives her own quiet life either in London or within the Brainerd hills, where she goes about doing her errands like any other wife and is always quite out of the social whirl so engrossing to the rest of the royal family. Two little girls, of whom she is the proud mother, and the duke, whom she married for love, admire this model of a princess, and may always be seen by her side.
