The hats were lost en route jumping freights and riding blind bagging while the money was spent tipping brakemen and buying ice cream. His meals he secured by devious methods en route.

Watrous worked his way up the coast from Los Angeles to Portland, Oregon, where he worked five days driving a milk route, a change from logging in the Siskiyou county. He hiked from Portland to Seattle and made side trips to sait Lake, sutte, Billings and Sheridan, then came overland, dropping off at various points, St. Paul, Minneapolis, Chicago, andianapolis, Cleveland and Buffalo, tre had a good time and spent four months on the trip.

HARVARD'S NEW MEDICAL COLLEGE IS DEDICATED

Cambridge, Mass., Sept. 25.—The first half of a two-days' program of exercises in connection with the dedication of the new medical school of Harvard University was carried out today. The exercises were brief and were carried out in the grand court of the magnificent new buildings which adorn the Back Bay Fens. President Eliot of the university performed the act of dedication. More formal and interesting exercises will be held in Sanders' theatre tomorrow. More than 1,000 graduates of the Harvard Medical school, including prominent physicians from all parts of the country, have gathered to take part in the celebration.

WESTWARD HO ISLAND IS OFFERED FOR SALE

London Sept. 25.—Lundy Island, with which the reading public has been made familiar by Charles Kingsley's popular novel entitled "Westward Ho," was put up for sale at public auction in London today. The Island is situated in the Bristol channel, is about three miles long and has an average width of about half a mile. For the last 70 years it has been in the possession of the Heaven family, which acquired it in 1834 for $45,000. Its value is placed at many times that figure at the present time.

MUST TELL YOUR HEIGHT IN ORDER TO CAST VOTE

Boston, Mass., Sept. 25.—The man who undertoook to vote on somebody else's name at the primaries in this city today had to run more of a "gauntiet" than heretofore, for, in addition to having the name called out by the precinct officer when he asked for a ballot, the precinct officer also announced the height of the man whose name had been called. Then the police officer on duty at the polling booth looked over his descriptive list of voters to see if the man who had called for a ballot answered the description against that name on the descriptive list. This was only putting into effect the new state law governing elections. At each poll-
