James Blair of 698 Third street was arrested yesterday by Detectives Mears and Jones on a warrant charging him with larceny from the person. He is accused of having stolen a watch from W. Willey while drinking in a Third street saloon. The timepiece was found in Blair's possession when searched at the city prison. Willey claims that he was endeavoring to dispose of the watch to Blair when the latter grabbed the property. The complaining witness after finding that his property had been recovered by the police announced his intention of dropping the case. The authorities refused to countenance such a proceeding, and the matter will be tried in the municipal court tomorrow morning.
Charging that Syver H. Fenne, aged 54 years, had contracted the habit of excessive drinking, has drawn money frequently for the purpose of going on drunken sprees, to the great scandal of himself and family, and will waste his estate, expose himself to want and tax his family and the county for his support, a petition declaring that he is a spendthrift and asking that a guardian be appointed for him was filed in the county court this morning by his son, Nels S. Fenne, of 805 First street. Fenne's property consists of real estate, notes, mortgages and cash to the amount of $12,795. His son asked the county court to petition the county judge to appoint a guardian for him, which was done. County Judge Webster, as a member of the county court, signing a petition addressed to himself as judge.

The suit of L. S. Cleveland to foreclose a mortgage of $300 on the property owned by Frank and Emma Lorets in Albina is being heard before Judge Gustafson in the circuit court today. The mortgage was made to O. M. Smith and transferred to Mrs. Cleveland. It is alleged by Lorets and his wife that they offered the money in payment of the mortgage, but could find no one to receive it. It is stated also that since the commencement of the suit the mortgage was garnished by Caroline Baum, who secured a judgment for $300 against Smith in a suit in the circuit court. It is alleged that Mrs. Baum says the transfer of the mortgage from Smith to Mrs. Cleveland was fraudulent. J. H. Hall appears as attorney for Mrs. Cleveland. Lorets is represented by Attorney John Dstchburg.

The skilled tailoring counts. Our tailors know their work and just how to do it. We have over a thousand different styles to select from, and make any piece of goods in the store to your order for $25. No more; no less. This is something no other firm in the city will do. Unique Tailoring Co., 309 Stark street, near Sixth.

Water through hose for sprinkling yards or sidewalks, or washing porches or windows, must be paid for in advance and used only between the hours of 8 and 8 p. m. and 8 p. m. It must not be used for sprinkling streets. If used contrary to these rules, or wastefully, it will be shut off.

The chair will be taken by James Laidlaw, British consul and president of the institute committee. Miss Leslie Welder will be the pianist of the evening and Mrs. Ernest Laidlaw, Miss Margaret Gibson and James Cornack will sing. There will also be a vocal duet by Miss Beala and Miss Bingham.

Earl Seely and Glenn Putnam, two 16-year-old boys, who ran away from their homes in San Jose, California, were taken into custody last night by the police upon advices from the sheriff of Santa Clara county. The boys left the Prune City last Tuesday and after spending a few days in San Francisco went to Drain, Oregon, to work on the railroad under construction. They arrived in this city last night without funds and soon after fell in the clutches of a vigilant patrolman. They will be held pending a communication from their parents.

Why Worry Over Valuables
And important papers? No need of it. Secure a box in our Safe Deposit Vault and rest assured they are secure. The vault is absolutely fire and burglar proof, having heavy reinforced concrete walls, steel lined and electric wired with the latest device to show the slightest tampering, and as an extra precaution the bank is patrolled night and day by a watchman. Boxes $4.00 and up, per year.
