

MOB AFTER NEGRO KILLS OFFICER

Policeman Slain and Alderman Wounded in Attack on Jail at Mobile.

SHERIFF SKILLFULLY OUTWITS LYNCHERS

Governor Orders Out Militia, Fearing Attacks on the Blacks, Similar to Those at Atlanta—Recent Assaults on White Women Arouse Citizens.

Mobile, Ala., Oct. 2.—The mob which attempted to capture and lynch Dick Robinson, a young negro, for assaulting Ruth Sostaman, a 12-year-old white girl, shot and killed Roy Hoyle, a special policeman, and Alderman Sidney Lyons, chairman of the city council, was shot in the hand. The attack on the girl was made yesterday morning, and a few hours later Robinson was captured and identified by his victim. Fearing that a mob would attack the jail, Sheriff Lytle had Robinson taken into the country.

As was expected, the mob attacked the jail, and was met by the sheriff, who informed them that Robinson was inside, and invited a committee of the mob to search the building. About 40 men walked through the corridor, where Hoyle and Alderman Lyons were standing. While the jail was being searched by part of the mob the others became excited and tried to batter down the door. While this was going on someone fired a shot, and in a second the air was filled with bullets. One of these struck Hoyle and he died about two hours later. Another hit Alderman Lyons in the hand, and despite his wound he appeared on the steps of the jail, and in a speech pacified the greater part of the mob.

There were, however, unruly spirits in the mob, and under the leadership of one man part of them started toward the negro section of the city, shouting, "We will give the blacks what they got at Atlanta." The negroes ran to cover. In the meantime the police had been poured into that section of the city and dispersed the mob. Great fears are entertained that there will be an outbreak, and Governor Jelks has ordered three companies of the militia to be brought here. Some of the soldiers arrived today, and it is expected by night the city will be under military rule. The feeling against the negroes, on account of recent attacks on white women and girls, is growing bitter, and trouble is feared for almost any time.

After it became known that Robinson was held in hiding by the officers outside of the city, a mob of about 300 got on a train, determined to go to a little place about eight miles from the city and lynch the negro, but when they arrived there the officers and their prisoner had disappeared. At 3 o'clock this morning the mob returned to the city, disappointed, but declaring that they will yet punish the negroes.

CONDEMNATION SUITS BEGUN AT CHEHALIS

Chehalis, Oct. 2.—The Portland & Seattle Railway company has begun half a dozen condemnation suits for right of way up the Stearns creek valley, some of the land which it is sought to condemn for the new Hill line being the same property over which the new Union Pacific survey passes. The Oregon & Washington company has several condemnation cases in process of preparation in the same neighborhood.

EJECTED FROM HOTEL FOR VISITING HIS MOTHER

Young Man Brings Suit for Twenty-Five Thousand Damages Against Landlord

(Journal Special Service.) New York, Oct. 2.—Justice Newburger and a jury in the supreme court were called upon to decide whether a hotel proprietor has the legal right to eject a man from the room of a woman, the guest of a hotel, upon whom he is calling, on the strength of a rule of the hotel forbidding a woman guest from receiving men visitors except in one of the public parlors. The question is raised by Frank Arms in his suit against the Navarre hotel for $25,000 damages, which was set down for trial today. Arms called at the Navarre to visit his mother, Mrs. F. M. Arms. He went to her room, but was called on by the house detective, who requested him to go down to the office and see the clerk. He declined to see the clerk, and was arrested and taken down to the clerk's desk to his great humiliation and annoyance.

AMADOR IS ARRESTED UPON COMPLAINT OF WOMAN

Mrs. Gresham, Author of Corea Letters, Principal in Capital Scandal.

(Journal Special Service.) New York, Oct. 2.—Raoul Amador, son of the president of Panama, and himself a consul general in this city for that republic, was arrested on the complaint of Mrs. Bertha K. Gresham in proceedings for the support of a child. Amador was arraigned and gave $300 bail. Amador would say nothing about the case, except to deny the truth of the complaint. The woman was defeated only a week ago in the supreme court, when she brought a breach of promise suit against Amador. Mrs. Gresham was Bertha Kennard, daughter of William Kennard of Washington, once page to Henry Clay. She first married Rear Admiral Frisbie, who died, leaving her $20,000. She next married Lieutenant William Gresham of the navy, and is his widow. Amador is married and has two children. It is asserted that Mrs. Gresham wrote the famous Corea letters, the anonymous epistles, which informed Mrs. Irah Jordan of Mason, Georgia, that her fiancé, Don Luis F. Corea, minister at Washington for Nicaragua, was a negro. The fact that the letters were written became public and the consequent notoriety led to the breaking of the engagement of Mrs. Jordan to Corea.

LADY NICOTINE BARRED FROM BAVARIAN COACHES

(Journal Special Service.) Vienna, Oct. 2.—A new rule has just come into force on the Bavarian railway system. On the "ladies only" compartments notices appear to the effect that smoking is strictly prohibited. It has become necessary, says an announcement issued by the minister of railways, as complaints have become increasingly frequent of ladies smoking cigarettes in the compartments set apart for their use. Ladies objecting to this were in consequence compelled to seek refuge in non-smoking compartments, where they had perforce to put up with the presence of the other sex.

Account national convention Knights of Pythias, to be held at New Orleans in October, the O. R. & N. Co. will on October 7 and 8 sell round-trip tickets from Portland at rate of $4.50.

STOP, WOMAN!

AND CONSIDER THE ALL-IMPORTANT FACT

That in addressing Mrs. Pinkham you are consulting your private life to a woman—a woman whose experience with women's diseases covers a great many years. Mrs. Pinkham is the daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, and for many years under her direction, and since her decease she has been advising sick women free of charge. Many women suffer in silence and drift along from bad to worse, knowing full well that they ought to have immediate assistance, but a natural modesty impels them to shrink from exposing themselves to the questions and probable examinations of even their family physician. It is unnecessary. Without money or price you can consult a woman whose knowledge from actual experience is great.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation. Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. All letters are received, opened, read and answered by women only. A woman can freely talk of her private illness to a woman; thus has been established the eternal confidence between Mrs. Pinkham and the women of America which has never been broken. On the vast volume of experience which she has drawn from it is more than possible that she has gained the very knowledge that will help your case. She asks nothing in return except your good-will, and her advice has relieved thousands. Surely any woman, rich or poor, is very foolish if she does not take advantage of this generous offer of assistance. If you are ill, don't hesitate to get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once, and write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for special advice. When a medicine has been successful in restoring to health so many women, you cannot well say, without trying it, "I do not believe it will help me."

SHEPHERD DECIDES TO RESIGN

Will Quit Council Because He Doesn't Care to Serve Two Masters.

EXPLAINS HIS REASON FOR PROPOSED ACTION

Believes His Acts Would Be Misconstrued If He Remained Public Servant and Dealt With Railroad Measures in the Council Chamber.

George S. Shepherd, president of the city council, is going to resign his position at the head of that body, not immediately, but soon. He will take this step, which he says he has contemplated for some time, not at the behest of any of his constituents or because he thinks he is not serving the people well, but because he does not desire to longer remain in a position where his acts might be misconstrued or where he might be the subject of adverse public criticism. Shepherd will bid his friends of the council adieu in short time, that is, as soon as he has seen through to passage or defeat the public building ordinance and some other measures in which he is interested. He is also undertaking a tacit promise, he says, to remain in office until such time as the members of the council now absent shall return to the city and be ready to elect his successor. Mr. Shepherd was in a talkative mood this morning when he was asked whether or not he intended to resign, and he discussed the question, "Can a man serve two masters at the same time?" freely. "My attitude," said the president of the council, "has been in effect all the time that of an opponent to the Southern Pacific and all the other railroads, unless it was the Northern Pacific, for I refused to vote on all Harriman propositions while I did vote on the question of the Hill franchise and did what I could to help that system to gain entrance into the city. "I, by not voting, defeated that east side franchise ordinance," continued Mr. Shepherd, taking another tack on his subject and reaching for a copy of the city charter. "Here you will see by section 97 of the charter that it takes a two thirds vote to pass an ordinance and in the event of its being vetoed by the mayor it requires a three fourths vote. Now I have refrained from voting on all Harriman questions and my silence counts as a negative vote, therefore, after the mayor had vetoed the franchise ordinance and it failed to go over his head by one vote I defeated its final passage. Didn't I?" and Mr. Shepherd looked the question as well as asked it. Mr. Shepherd went further that the only people who want him to resign are the Harriman people, though of course they have not asked him to step down, but have left it to his own choice. "I work for the Oregon & Washington railroad," said Mr. Shepherd, "and have done all my railroad business in Washington looking up titles to Washington land. Mr. Fenton did not know that I worked for the Harriman interests until about two weeks ago. Now then they would just as leave I would resign from the council because practically I vote against every Harriman proposition that comes up. But they have left it to me and I am going to resign because I do not think it is fair to work for them and vote against them on everything, and also I do not wish to remain in a position where I can be unjustly criticized, for my record has been good and I have done nothing that I am ashamed of." And in this manner Mr. Shepherd serves notice that his efforts in the public behalf as president of the council are soon to draw to a close.
