Confidence

Confidence is simply another name for CREDIT.

Lacking the confidence one man has in another, business would be paralyzed.

We have confidence in Portland and in the people of Portland, born of intimate association with them for TWENTY YEARS.

Many successful business men of Portland owe a goodly portion of their prosperity to the assistance they have received from the "OLDEST TRUST COMPANY IN OREGON" during the FIFTH OF A CENTURY of its existence.

If you have never done business with us, come in and get acquainted.

WEATHER REPORT.

An immense high pressure area overlies the north Pacific states and no rain of consequence has fallen on the Pacific slope during the last 24 hours. It is much cooler in the Willamette valley, eastern Oregon, southern Idaho, Nevada, Utah, Colorado, Wyoming, Montana and the western portion of the Dakotas. Heavy frosts occurred this morning in extreme eastern Oregon and in the Boise basin, and light frosts are reported in the northeastern Washington and southeastern Idaho; frosts were also reported generally in Utah and Nevada. The storm yesterday over western North Dakota has diminished greatly in intensity and moved to Minnesota. The low pressure area over Arizona has deepened and a trough of low pressure extends from this disturbance northeastward and connects with the one over Minnesota. The shallow disturbance yesterday over western North Dakota has diminished greatly in intensity and moved to Minnesota. The low pressure area over Arizona has deepened and a trough of low pressure extends from this disturbance northeastward and connects with the one over Minnesota. The shallow disturbance yesterday over Tennessee has practically disappeared and the barometer continues high over New England. Light rains have fallen at scattered places in the Canadian northwest, South Dakota, Nebraska and in the middle and south Atlantic states; they were heaviest in Virginia.

The indications are for fair weather in this district tonight and Friday, with heavy frosts tonight east of the Cascade mountains and light frosts tonight in northwestern Oregon and northwestern Washington. It will be warmer Friday.
