Parachute Falls to Open and Youth Falls Several Hundred Feet to Earth.

Edgar Yates, Badly Hurt by Jump After Following Profession for Five Years—Well Known Grangeville, Idaho, Boy.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Grangeville, Idaho, Oct. 5.—Because a parachute failed to open while he was making a descent from a balloon at the fair here, yesterday afternoon Edgar Yates, several hundred feet through the air to the board walk below and now lies unconscious.

His escape from instant death seems miraculous. He struck squarely on both feet, rebounded about two feet in the air and fell over unconscious. Physicians state that no bones are broken but he is suffering from hemorrhages of the lungs. It is believed that when he struck his body doubled and his knees struck his breast. Two thousand people witnessed the accident. Yates has been making ascensions for the past five years.

HOMER DAVENPORT VISITED SULTAN OF TURKEY

Sketched Monarch From Memory and Shipped the Pictures in Bale of Hay.

(Journal Special Service.) Boston, Mass., Oct. 5.—Homer Davenport, the cartoonist, formerly of Silverton, Oregon, has just arrived here from Arabia on the White Star liner Canopic, via the Mediterranean. He brought 17 stallions and 10 mares of blooded Arabian stock for breeding purposes.

Davenport had a personal interview with the sultan of Turkey. He was forbidden to make any pictures of the sultan, but Davenport memorized the sultan's features and made sketches. Afterward Turkish spies discovered in some way that the cartoonist had made sketches and searched his baggage, but they were disappointed for the artist had hidden the drawings in a bale of hay.

DETROIT WOMAN FOUND TO HAVE SEVEN HUSBANDS

(Journal Special Service.) Detroit, Mich., Oct. 5.—Seven husbands, all living and undivorced, have legal claims upon Mrs. Hannah Chaffee, it is alleged in a confession of her daughter, Mrs. Emily Sherman of Pontiac.

Mrs. Chaffee is 76 years old and was married recently to Francis M. Chaffee. She transferred to her daughter some residence property owned by her and her husband declaring the transfer without a consideration, started suit in the court to have the deed set aside. The consequent investigation turned up two or three previous marriages of the woman, none of which cases the records showed divorces or the deaths of the husbands. The court has ordered an investigation.
