

WILL ISSUE WARRANTS FOR ARREST OF SNYDER MURDER SUSPECTS

Officials to Act in Case Following Investigation of Coroner Bagley.

GEORGE PERRY IS NOW SUSPECTED OF CRIME

Evidence Points to Him as Being Implicated in Forest Grove Robbery and in Murder of Snyder—Third Man Being Sought.

General Special Service. Hillsboro, Or., Oct. 5.—In view of the verdict of the reconvened coroner's jury that Carey M. Snyder met his death at the hands of unknown persons, officials of this county are preparing to issue John Doe warrants for the arrest of those on whom suspicion rests most heavily. The warrants will be issued as soon as Acting Coroner Bagley's report is filed with the county court.

Pending the issuance of the complaints officers are now trying to ascertain the whereabouts of George Perry, a cousin of the dead man. Perry's name and actions in connection with the robbery of the Forest Grove bank were brought to light frequently during the inquest yesterday, as was also the fact that a man named Brashear, or Rogers, a brother of Mrs. Snyder.

Perry formerly lived at Independence, Missouri, a short distance from Kansas City. It was there that Mrs. Snyder lived before her marriage to Snyder. Soon after the robbery of the bank and the mysterious disappearance of Snyder, Perry left this state and returned to Missouri. A few weeks after the crime he walked into the office of the chief of police of Kansas City and asked if he was wanted.

He had read in the press dispatches of the bank robbery and had also read that he was wanted in that connection. He told the chief that he was ready to submit to arrest in case he was actually wanted in Oregon. The police chief had received no instructions with reference to his arrest and so informed him. Perry accordingly departed and nothing has been heard of him since.

In the light of more recent developments, however, officers of Washington county are very desirous to securing another interview with Mr. Perry. While the warrants soon to be issued will be against John Doe, it is generally stated by officials of Washington county that the particular John Doe who is to be most eagerly sought is no other than George Perry, cousin of Snyder, who enjoyed the hospitality of the spendthrift young man, lived at his home and shared his confidences.

Officers are unable to explain the mystery connection with the alleged "third man" who is said to have participated in the bank robbery and subsequent disappearance of Snyder. Many believe that Mrs. Snyder's brother, who went by the name of Brashear, and also of Rogers, may have been the third member of the gang, while others insist that if there was a third man, his services in connection with the crime were rendered in Portland and that he resided in that city.

Theory of the Crime. As a result of the light that was thrown upon the crime by the coroner's investigation it is now generally believed that Snyder was struck on the head while in the carriage en route from Portland to his home; that while still unconscious from the blow, he was carried into the dense fir thicket and his body thrown upon the ground. As he lay there one of the party stood directly above him and fired a bullet through his head. The theory is borne out by the position in which the skull was found and the points of ingress and egress of the bullet in the skull. Dr. Bally exhibited the gruesome reminder of the crime at the inquest yesterday. He showed that when the door and showed the jury how a man could have stood directly over the prostrate and unconscious form, pointed a revolver at his temple and fired. The bullet would have ploughed just such a wound as the gaping holes in the skull indicated.

At Some of the Crimes. In view of the surgeon's testimony and the theory he advanced a more careful scrutiny of the place where Snyder's remains were found will be made. Today a party, under the direction of Acting Coroner Bagley, went out to the inquest on the ground where the skull was found in the hope of locating the bullet. One of the coroner's jury visited the place yesterday and found a few of the dead man's possessions which were overlooked at the first investigation.

The inquest yesterday developed the important fact—previously published in The Journal—that Snyder was killed by the blow of a heavy blunt instrument on the head. His skull was fractured in two places and three surgeons testified that the fractures could not have been caused by a bullet wound.

A half dozen witnesses were called. Among them were Detective Vaughn, Robert Hewitt, and J. C. Lacey, of Portland. Vaughn worked on the case in connection with the coroner at the time of Snyder's disappearance and gave interesting testimony concerning Snyder's customs and dealings with pawn brokers. He showed that Snyder left articles at pawn shops he used the names of C. E. Moore and Charles E. Moore. Among the possessions of the dead man when the body was found on Monday were three pawn tickets to C. E. Moore.

It was under that name he rented a double-seated surrey at a Washington-street livery barn in Portland on the fatal night of his disappearance. Mr. Hewitt, manager of the barn, told of the transaction. Snyder told him, he said, that he would return by 10 o'clock that night, but never returned.

Mr. Lacey said of his acquaintance with Mrs. Snyder, who for a time was threatened with mental collapse immediately after the bank robbery and disappearance of her husband. G. W. Kelly, a farmer living near the Snyder ranch, related his habit of listening to the conversations of his neighbors over the telephone and in that way learning things which convinced him that Snyder and Perry were implicated in the bank robbery. It will require a week perhaps for Coroner Bagley to complete his investigation and make a final report to the county court. Then the real search for the murderers will begin.

BARLOW SCHOOLS ARE OPENED FOR SEASON

(Special Service to the Journal.) Barlow, Oct. 5.—School opened here Monday with a good attendance. Miss Randal of Oregon City is principal and Miss Habersham of Portland is primary teacher. They have been repairing the schoolhouse and enlarging the rooms much to the advantage of the pupils of former terms, as the district is enlarging greatly.

SHERIFF STEVENS IS CENSURED

Religious Organizations Accuse Him of Failing to Enforce Sunday Closing Law.

SAYS PEOPLE MUST FURNISH WARRANTS

Answers to Petition Sent Him by Telling Committee That Limit of His Duty is to Arrest After Someone Else Makes Complaint.

"It is a well-known fact that the drinking saloons of Portland, numbering over 480, are kept open on every Lord's day in violation of the laws of Oregon. We earnestly request you to take immediate steps to secure the closing of all places on the Lord's day, commonly called 'Sunday' within the county of Multnomah, that are kept open on that day in violation of the law," says a petition that has been presented to Sheriff Stevens by the officers of the Northwest Sabbath association, General Ministerial association and the Oregon Anti-Saloon league.

In the petition the attention of the sheriff is called to sections 1974 and 1985 of the Oregon statutes, which prohibit the opening of saloons on Sunday, and prescribe punishment for such offenses. The petitioners assure the sheriff that they will encourage all citizens to stand with him in the faithful enforcement of the law. The petition is signed for the Northwest Sabbath association by Robert R. Steele, president; James B. Ewing, vice-president; E. Nelson Allen, recording secretary; E. T. Dubois, corresponding secretary; C. L. Linsley, treasurer; J. H. Leiper, field secretary.

Members of the civic reform committee of the General Ministerial association who signed the petition are: Dr. J. Whitcomb Brounger, E. Nelson Allen, Dr. Clarence True Wilson, H. W. Stace. Signatures for the Anti-Saloon league are by Dr. Clarence True Wilson, president of the State league; Paul Rader, superintendent; K. Kelly, trustee; E. Nelson Allen, chairman headquarters committee; William H. Hoppa, committeeman; Dr. J. Whitcomb Brounger, committeeman; Dr. F. Burgette Short, trustee; E. S. Muckley, secretary.

The following communication regarding the petition and the action taken by Sheriff Stevens was received from J. H. Leiper, field secretary of the Northwest Sabbath association: "This petition was presented to Sheriff Stevens by the writer on Wednesday, October 3. The sheriff avers his readiness to execute the law on the presentation of warrants by the proper officials for the arrest of violators. But that he thinks in the limit of his duty. He seems to think that after the people have bestowed on him the honors and emoluments of the office of sheriff they must turn away and hunt up the violators of the law for him.

The duties of a county sheriff in Oregon are plainly written in the law itself. I quote from Ballinger's and Colton's code of Oregon statutes: 'Section 1917. The sheriff is the chief executive officer and conservator of peace of the county in the execution of his office it is his duty: 1. To arrest and commit to prison all persons who break the peace or attempt to break it; and all persons guilty of public offenses.' 'Other articles of this section define his duties in relation to the orders of the courts and warrants given him by other officers of the law for the arrest of offenders. The article also expressly makes it his duty to arrest and imprison offenders against the law that are discovered to be such by solicitation of private citizens, or intervention of other officers. The claim that the sheriff of a county in Oregon may allow law-breakers to continue their violations till a warrant is placed in his hands is utterly untenable.

Chance of His Life. "Sheriff Stevens has the opportunity of his life to make a record of which he and his law-abiding friends would always be proud. Will he permit the opportunity to pass unused? It will come but once in the faithful discharge of his sworn duty he will be sustained and lauded by all good citizens, and his own conscience as well. The American people are about done regarding with quiet endurance the non-enforcement of righteous laws by paid officials. There is 'the sound of a going in the tops of the mulberry trees,' and the rank and file of the nation is bestirring itself. Civic affairs are entrusted to officials as honored servants of the people, not as irresponsible autocrats. Moreover, the 'people' are not the law-defying elements that seek to perpetuate their controlling influence in politics. But the people are manipulators of the useful industries and the supporters of civic morals and righteousness."

The Short Skirt.

The new walking skirts will be short and many a girl who would not rejoice at the welcome news. Nothing looks so shabby as a dragged long skirt, and as it is impossible to hold a skirt up high enough to escape the ground all around, they always look shabby and soiled. Some women seem to think that a skirt that barely escapes the ground is a short skirt. They could not make a greater mistake. For a short skirt means one that clears the ground by at least two inches. Do not put your allowance on a trailing reception gown that you expect to wear about half a dozen times a year. Buy a short skirt for the street. You are judged by the appearance you make every day and not by the gown worn on festive occasions. A short skirt must hang properly or it is hideous. It must be rich, but plain looking and the trimming be very simple. Dark blue is first choice for a short skirt and the darker shades of gray are also good. This winter plaids in a dozen times a year. Buy a short skirt more suitable for a walking skirt. Do not have a short skirt cut circular or you will be sure to regret it. Plaids are very good and as these may be arranged in a dozen different ways, one is sure of finding a becoming mode.

Some Beautiful Evening Gowns.

The evening gowns are especially charming this year. They are in colors, styles and trimmings. Modified princess and empire modes are in the lead and the more exclusive the modiste the more changes she will make in these modes, in order to give individuality to her gowns. An afternoon gown of great beauty was made of cream colored broadcloth, trimmed with pink ribbon and a pink and white floral pattern. The front had the effect of a princess, while in the back the effect was empire. Such a gown would be becoming to a woman with a good figure. In fact, more becoming than the princess or empire alone would be. Most of the evening gowns have a dash of some contrasting color and on some of the very elaborate frocks two or three different colors in as many different materials are used. Fur, soft delicate colored kid, embroideries of richest coloring, and jeweled buttons and ornaments are used on the modern party gown. A peach blossom chiffon broadcloth was trimmed in irregular bands and odd-shaped pieces of white kid; the pieces of kid were hand-painted in a peach blossom design and edged with black pinstriped velvet and studded with tiny black velvet buttons. Of course the hat designed for this costume was huge and black and had a black plume.

Beidermar Embroidery.

Something entirely new in Portland is Beidermar embroidery and it is so different and so easily done that it will be popular. The embroidery comes from Germany and is worked principally in reds and greens in quaint conventionalized baskets of flowers and wreath designs. The linen used is of an extra heavy quality and is attractive in the gray as the white. The work is old-fashioned and stiff-looking, in fact quaint is the only word that will give a true impression of its nature. Cushion tops, scarfs and bags come stamped and ready to work. Some of the stamped patterns are colored, but the best designs are simply stamped in black and white ready to be worked in the colors desired, only remembering that red and green should predominate if you want the real Beidermar work.

French Salad Dressing.

This is not difficult and makes the best dressing for everyday use, as mayonnaise is both more troublesome and more expensive. Put a tablespoonful of vinegar into a cup and add a little salt and pepper, then add three tablespoonfuls of the best olive oil and stir well until they mingle; have the salad ready and put the dressing on just before sending to the table.

Sunning the Hair.

Sunning the hair is an old Greek idea for the promotion of its beauty, and in order to sun it without sunning the complexion as well, the Greek maiden wore a large brimmed hat with the crown cut out, and through this the hair was drawn up so the sun could strike it, but not the face. Thus protected, she would sit upon the roof, letting both sun and breezes have full play upon her hair.

Guesting.

"Guesting" is an entirely new word in the vocabulary. The "guesser" is she who goes to stay over Sunday, or for the week-end. "Week-enders" is not a pretty word, and so the new title was coined, and now when you see persons with overnight bags going up and down the length and breadth of the land, on Saturday evening, you may see them down under the new nomenclature of "guesters."

THE DISCOVERER

Of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, the Great Woman's Remedy for Woman's Ills.

Yours for Health Lydia E. Pinkham

No other female medicine in the world has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement. No other medicine has such a record of cures of female troubles or such hosts of grateful friends as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It will entirely cure the worst forms of Female Complaints, Inflammation and Ulceration, Falling and Displacement, and consequent Spinal Weakness, and is peculiarly adapted to the Change of Life. It has cured more cases of Backache and Local Weakness than any other remedy the world has ever known. It is almost infallible in such cases. It dissolves and expels tumors in an early stage of development. Irregular, Suppressed or Painful Periods, Weakness of the Stomach, Indigestion, Bloating, Nervous Prostration, Headache, General Debility quickly yield to it. Deranged organs, causing pain, weight and backache, instantly relieved and permanently cured by its use. Under all circumstances it invigorates the female system. It quickly removes that bearing-down feeling, extreme lassitude, "don't care" and "want-to-be-left-alone" feeling, excitability, irritability, nervousness, dizziness, faintness, sleeplessness, flatulency, melancholy or the "blues" and headaches. These are sure indications of Female Weakness, or some derangement of the organs, which this medicine surely cures. Chronic Kidney Complaints and Backache, of either sex, the Vegetable Compound cures. Those women who refuse to accept anything else are rewarded a hundred thousand times for they get what they want—a cure. Sold by Druggists everywhere. Refuse all substitutes.

SCHWAB ENGINEERING GREAT BULL WHEAT CAMPAIGN

Thirty Million Bushels Accumulated by Wall Street Speculative Syndicate.

(Journal Special Service.) Chicago, Oct. 5.—Charles M. Schwab, the steel magnate, and some of his close associates are said to be back of a tremendous bull wheat campaign. There was talk on the floor today that the combined holdings of this bull crowd exceeded 30,000,000 bushels. This is the explanation given today for the immense purchases this week by L. A. Valentine, former buyer for the Armour. It is said he was acting as agent for the eastern crowd.

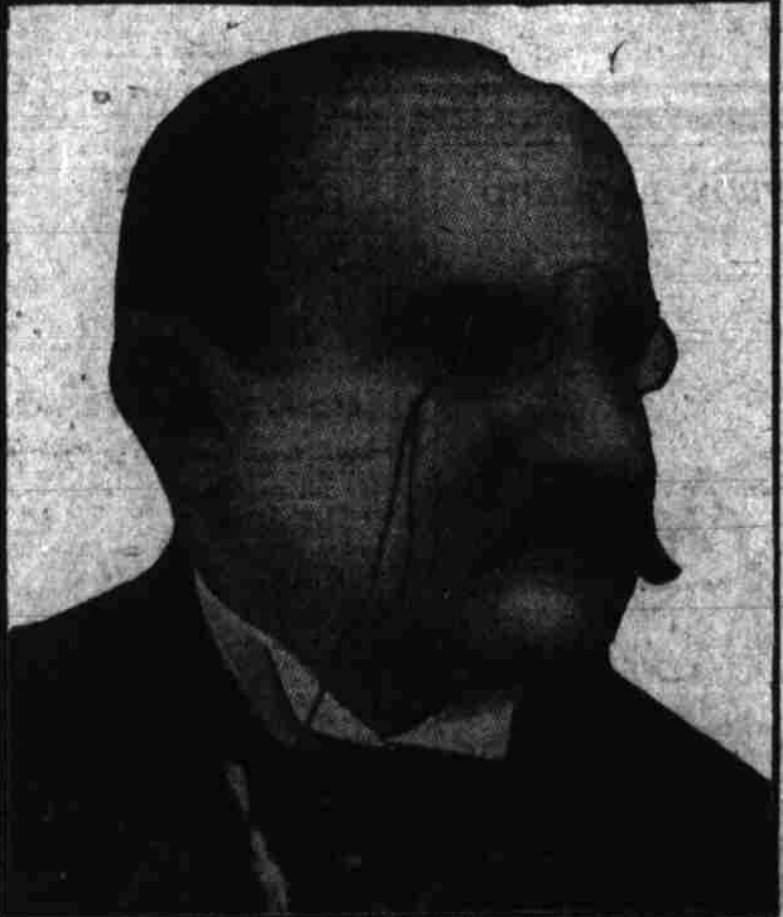

Much of the wheat held by the clique has been sold by the Watson crowd of Minneapolis, who have been persistently bearing the market all season in the belief that the large crops harvested would force prices down. Extreme caution characterizes the trade here. Everybody is watching Valentine and trying to get a clear line on the tremendous coup they are certain is being planned. Prices ruled steady and trading was limited today. In truth the trade is frightened because it is working in the dark.

BAY STATE REPUBLICANS RENOMINATE GUIDO

(General Special Service.) Boston, Mass., Oct. 5.—Governor Guild and Lieutenant-Governor Draper received renominations today at the hands of the Republican state convention assembled in Tremont Temple. Despite the efforts of Eugene N. Foss and his followers to have their reciprocity idea adopted, the platform as reported by the resolutions committee is essentially of the stand-pat variety.

STRONG AND LUSTY AT 76

The Honorable Moritz Ellinger, who has been prominent in literature and politics in New York City for the past fifty years, pays tribute to Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, the great family medicine and renewer of youth.

Mr. Ellinger was born October 17th, 1830, at Firth, Bavaria. He now holds the responsible position of interpreter in the Surrogate's Court of New York City, and was Coroner of City of New York for 6 years.

"After over fifty years of active life, engaged in the various official positions, in the civil, literary, sociological, fraternal and political organizations with which I have been associated in my career, I have positions I have occupied, during all of which time I always found myself mentally bright and physically active. I noticed to my deep regret that with advancing years I was becoming weaker and unable to perform many of the duties which required even a moderate degree of physical exertion. "I had frequently noticed the announcements of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, which appear in the columns of the press, and naturally viewed them, as many casual readers do, as a well-advertised nostrum or different from many other similar patent medicines offered to the public and paid no attention to them. "Some time ago, at the suggestion of a valued friend, who bore his representations of the hygienic value of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey upon his own personal experience, although skeptical to the extreme, I concluded to test it, and it effected the pleasure to tell you that I have been greatly benefited by its use. I find that not only is it an excellent tonic and stimulant, but it also invigorates the system and tends to promote longevity, and feeling rejuvenated, I can truly say with thanksgiving: " "Though I look old, yet I am strong and lusty; for in my youth I never did apply but late substituted in my blood, and my life with unwholesome food was the means of weakness and debility; therefore my age is a lusty winter, cold, but lively." Moritz Ellinger, 100 West 141st St., June 20, 1904.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

It is an absolutely pure, gentle and invigorating stimulant and tonic. It builds up the nerve tissues, tones up the heart, gives power to the brain, strength and elasticity to the muscles and richness to the blood. It brings into action all the vital forces, it makes digestion perfect and enables you to get from the food you eat the nourishment it contains. It is invaluable for overworked men, delicate women and sickly children, as it is a food already digested. It strengthens the system, is a promoter of good health and longevity, makes the old young and keeps the young strong. Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey contains no fusel oil, and is the only whiskey that is recognized as a medicine. This is a guarantee. Sold by all druggists and grocers, or direct, in sealed bottles only, never in bulk. Price 61. Enlist on the grounds. See that the "Old Glenlivet" trade-mark is on the label. Beware of red-dyed bottles and spurious malt whiskey substitutes offered for sale by unscrupulous dealers. They are positively harmful and will not cure. Medical booklets and doctor's advice free.
