A NEW DEPARTURE

The Cost of Informents Has Been Great-ly Reduced by the Holman Under-taking Gompany.

Heretofore it has been the custom of funeral directors to make charges for all incidentals connected with a funeral. The Edward Holman Undertaking company, the leading funeral directors of Portland, beginning July 1, 1905, will depart from this old custom. When the casket is furnished by us its cost will include all charges, such as conveying the remains to our chapel, outside box, ambalming, hearse to cemetery and all services which may be required of us accept clothing, cemetery and carriages, ahus effecting a saving of $25 to $75 on sach funeral.

La Roche, Seattle's pioneer phoby F. La Roche, Seattle's pioneer photographer, who is now retiring from business. There are over 2,500 of these plates, which were procured by Mr. La Roche during 58 trips to the Alaskan country. Many of them are of the Muir glacier, the face of which was broken by an earthquake in 1896, and can sever be duplicated. The Pacific Coast Steamship company will use the La Roche photographs in giving a wide publicity to southeastern Alaska. They will be taken to the company's head-quarters at San Francisco, where they will be at the disposal of magazines, authors or lecturers. TRADE
