

BONI WOULD PAWN CHILDREN FOR DEBTS

The Countess Castellane, Nea Gould, and Her Children.

(Special Service.)
Paris, Oct. 12.—Another ditch has been dug in the Castellane divorce proceedings, according to well authenticated reports. Count Boni demands that all his debts be paid before he will consent to Countess Anna having the children. While it is not known how much the count's debts amount to, it is believed they total a fabulous sum. It is known that money lenders have been financing him at enormous rates of interest, and it is generally believed that to satisfy all his creditors would take the greater part of the fortune of the countess.

The final hearing in the case is set for October 17, but if his creditors are not satisfied by that date he will fight for delay.

The count is not unwilling to take every advantage of the desire of the countess and the Gould family to make sacrifices to avoid a divorce. In the event of the pre-nuptial settlement, the French law regards the marriage partnership as making husband and wife equally responsible for the household expenses and debts. The attachment proceedings, however, do not belong to this class. They are almost entirely for money borrowed from usurers at ruinous rates, and consequently could be easily resisted.

The count has another lever in the disposition of the children, who, under the law, are French citizens and subject to military service. He could enter a plea before the French court that if the children were given into the custody of the mother they might be taken beyond the jurisdiction of France. Such action would doubtless result in the imposition by the court of restrictions embarrassing to the countess in the future.

TURN YOUR FACE INTO DOLLARS

Many a Man Has Failed Because His Face Was a Picture of Calamity.

It takes sunshine to produce a rose, a perfect rose, and so man, to be successful, must have sunshine inside. The life which has it not, which has no health and no happiness, is sour, curdy, peevish, and a failure. The world already has too many "sour faces" that breathe ill-will and strife. The world wants joy, comfort, sunshine, and will cling to the man who has it, who radiates gladness and triumph wherever he is and under all circumstances.

Some people have a genius for seeking out the disagreeable, the crooked, the bad and the ugly. These are the destroyers; they travel through the world, and the cheerful part of the world will have nothing to do with them.

And why is it that so many people are sour? It is because they do not know if they do, their lives will be ruined. So people cannot help it, for pessimism usually comes from bodily disorders, and this cannot always be prevented. The stomach, for instance, is the most common cause of discontent, sour face, recklessness, disgust and lack of ambition. A bad stomach—there is the secret of many a failure.

Anyone can have a good stomach, a strong stomach, a stomach that can take care of anything and everything that is put into it, no matter whether it is a very bad stomach now or not. Then why not have it?

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets do this very thing. One ingredient of these little tablets digests 5,000 grains of food, and no matter how bad is your dyspepsia or indigestion, these tablets will digest everything in your stomach, thoroughly and completely, and better and quicker than a healthy stomach can do the same thing. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will cure quickly, loss of appetite, brain irritation, burning sensations, nausea, heartburn, eructations, loss of vim and spirit, bad memory, and dyspepsia and indigestion in their very worst form.

No other little tablets in the world can do so much. You should carry Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets around with you whenever you go and take them after meals. Then only will you realize what it is to enjoy a meal and what perfect digestion means. Your whole body and your mind will feel the effects of your wine will increase, you will be more satisfied with what the world does, you will think happier and be happier and your face will be one of supreme contentment. That will bring you success and then more success. Your face will bring you dollars. Try it. It will cost you just 50c for a package of these wonderful Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at any drug store or at the

OREGON HAS FIRST Saleswomen's Peril HAVE DISEASES, DUE TO STANDING

United Presbyterian Congregation of Albany Was First Organized in America.

HALF CENTURY MARK IS PASSED BY PRESBYTERY

Mrs. Margaret Monteith, Weltha S. Miller and Miss Eliza Tate of Portland Are the Three Living Charter Members.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Albany, Oct. 11.—The United Presbyterian church of Albany yesterday was 53 years old, having passed the half century mark and today is one of the most prosperous of the denomination of that church and possibly the best equipped of any church in the valley as far as church equipment is concerned. The congregation is out of debt and has for a house of worship one of the finest structures in the state of Oregon.

The history of this church and its early organization shows that this is the oldest and first congregation organized in the United States, there having been a local union of the associate and associate reformed adherents in this section before the great reformation. In 1853 Rev. Thomas S. Kendall, Dr. W. B. Mealey, John McCoy, Josiah Osborn and others of the associate church, together with John Courtney and others of the associate reformed church came across the plains and settled in Oregon, settling in Linn county in 1848.

Missionary Comes.
These early pioneers settled near Oakville, and were succeeded by others of the same faith. The general spread of the west of the associated reformed church, realizing that a great field was opening in the west, determined to send a missionary to these remote parts. Rev. William Blair received the appointment, settling in Oregon, across the river from Oregon City in what was then a portion of Linn county. The episcopal church at a meeting held in Allegheny, Pennsylvania, in 1849, also decided to establish a mission in Oregon. In 1850, Rev. James Miller of Argyle, New York, received the appointment to the work in the west. Rev. S. G. Irvine was later sent to this section to take up the work of the church. Rev. Miller located in Albany in June, 1851. Rev. Irvine was with him, and settled in Linn county in the same year.

Six years had now elapsed since these early settlers and pioneers in religious work had settled in Linn county and during this time two congregations had been organized and many conversions to the membership of these churches took place. The elders were made up of both the old churches, the associate and associate reformed. On account of the population being very scattered, the subject of a union of the two branches was brought up and laid before the two churches in the east by missionaries. Rev. James Miller of the associate church stated to the church that:

"We cannot remain separated; it is economically a waste of time if you demand it. The reply of the church was: 'If you cannot, you cannot, and we authorize you to do as the Lord gives you light.'"

The associate presbytery was organized in 1851 by Rev. James P. Miller and Rev. S. G. Irvine, missionaries of the associate synod of North America to Oregon. At the meeting the subject of a union was officially mentioned. A convention was called to meet at Mealey's school house on Christmas, 1851, and both churches were to send delegates. The delegates of the associate church being Rev. Kendall, Rev. Irvine, John McCoy and James Hamilton. The associate reformed delegates were Rev. Blair, Josiah Osborn and John A. Dunlap.

Rev. Kendall was chairman. A resolution was passed in favor of a union. At the next meeting, held February 10, 1852, resolutions were adopted ratifying the union and basis of union agreed upon. On October 30, 1852, both presbyteries met and after ratifying the basis of union the two presbyteries were officially organized into the United Presbyterian church of Oregon, this being the first United Presbyterian presbytery organized in America.

Organized by Rev. Miller.
The Albany congregation was organized by Rev. James P. Miller on October 10, 1853. This was the first congregation organized in the United States under the distinctive name of United Presbyterian. Rev. James P. Miller, the organizer of the Albany church, was a great man and one greatly beloved by the membership of his church, his family being prominent in the affairs of the state. A son belonged to the regular army and held a commission. A daughter married an officer in the army and he was the father-in-law of Hon. Joseph G. Wilson, a former congressman from this state, also of United States Senator James K. Keller. Rev. Miller was an author of note, being the writer of several books of recognized worth on theological subjects. The congregation and presbytery sustained a most severe loss in the death of Rev. Miller, who lost his life in a steamboat explosion near Cananah, just above the falls at Oregon City. He was one of the principal supporters of the union and the chief author of the basis of union.

Three Charter Members Living.
In 1853 the union of the two great churches was consummated in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, and after this union the Oregon presbytery, which was an independent branch, was asked to join and become a part of the United Presbyterian church of North America. This was accepted and the union was made complete.

Among the membership of the Albany congregation are three living members who were a part of the union and actually charter members of the church, they being Mrs. Margaret Monteith, Weltha S. Miller and Miss Eliza Tate of Portland.

Rev. James Miller, after his death, was followed in the pastorate by Dr. J. M. Gover, 31 E. Main st., Ottawa, Kan., writes: "Every fall it has been my wife's trouble to catch a severe cold, and therefore to cough all winter long. Last fall I got her a bottle of Horehound Syrup, she used it and has been able to sleep soundly all night long. Whenever the cough troubles her two or three doses stops the cough, and she is able to be up and well. 50c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by Woodard, Clarke & Co."

THE COUNTRY MUST ALSO LEARN TO DIFFERENTIATE BETWEEN BLACK PEOPLE. It is a mistake to place all in the same class when referring to labor, morality or general conduct. There is a vicious class that disgraces us; there is also a worthy class which should always receive commendation. Further, we must frankly face the fact that the great body of our people are to dwell in the south, and any policy that does not seek to harmonize the two races and cement them is unwise and dangerous.

THE COUNTRY MUST ALSO LEARN TO DIFFERENTIATE BETWEEN BLACK PEOPLE. It is a mistake to place all in the same class when referring to labor, morality or general conduct. There is a vicious class that disgraces us; there is also a worthy class which should always receive commendation. Further, we must frankly face the fact that the great body of our people are to dwell in the south, and any policy that does not seek to harmonize the two races and cement them is unwise and dangerous.

THE COUNTRY MUST ALSO LEARN TO DIFFERENTIATE BETWEEN BLACK PEOPLE. It is a mistake to place all in the same class when referring to labor, morality or general conduct. There is a vicious class that disgraces us; there is also a worthy class which should always receive commendation. Further, we must frankly face the fact that the great body of our people are to dwell in the south, and any policy that does not seek to harmonize the two races and cement them is unwise and dangerous.

THE COUNTRY MUST ALSO LEARN TO DIFFERENTIATE BETWEEN BLACK PEOPLE. It is a mistake to place all in the same class when referring to labor, morality or general conduct. There is a vicious class that disgraces us; there is also a worthy class which should always receive commendation. Further, we must frankly face the fact that the great body of our people are to dwell in the south, and any policy that does not seek to harmonize the two races and cement them is unwise and dangerous.

OREGON HAS FIRST Saleswomen's Peril HAVE DISEASES, DUE TO STANDING

United Presbyterian Congregation of Albany Was First Organized in America.

HALF CENTURY MARK IS PASSED BY PRESBYTERY

Mrs. Margaret Monteith, Weltha S. Miller and Miss Eliza Tate of Portland Are the Three Living Charter Members.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Albany, Oct. 11.—The United Presbyterian church of Albany yesterday was 53 years old, having passed the half century mark and today is one of the most prosperous of the denomination of that church and possibly the best equipped of any church in the valley as far as church equipment is concerned. The congregation is out of debt and has for a house of worship one of the finest structures in the state of Oregon.

The history of this church and its early organization shows that this is the oldest and first congregation organized in the United States, there having been a local union of the associate and associate reformed adherents in this section before the great reformation. In 1853 Rev. Thomas S. Kendall, Dr. W. B. Mealey, John McCoy, Josiah Osborn and others of the associate church, together with John Courtney and others of the associate reformed church came across the plains and settled in Oregon, settling in Linn county in 1848.

Missionary Comes.
These early pioneers settled near Oakville, and were succeeded by others of the same faith. The general spread of the west of the associated reformed church, realizing that a great field was opening in the west, determined to send a missionary to these remote parts. Rev. William Blair received the appointment, settling in Oregon, across the river from Oregon City in what was then a portion of Linn county. The episcopal church at a meeting held in Allegheny, Pennsylvania, in 1849, also decided to establish a mission in Oregon. In 1850, Rev. James Miller of Argyle, New York, received the appointment to the work in the west. Rev. S. G. Irvine was later sent to this section to take up the work of the church. Rev. Miller located in Albany in June, 1851. Rev. Irvine was with him, and settled in Linn county in the same year.

Six years had now elapsed since these early settlers and pioneers in religious work had settled in Linn county and during this time two congregations had been organized and many conversions to the membership of these churches took place. The elders were made up of both the old churches, the associate and associate reformed. On account of the population being very scattered, the subject of a union of the two branches was brought up and laid before the two churches in the east by missionaries. Rev. James Miller of the associate church stated to the church that:

"We cannot remain separated; it is economically a waste of time if you demand it. The reply of the church was: 'If you cannot, you cannot, and we authorize you to do as the Lord gives you light.'"

The associate presbytery was organized in 1851 by Rev. James P. Miller and Rev. S. G. Irvine, missionaries of the associate synod of North America to Oregon. At the meeting the subject of a union was officially mentioned. A convention was called to meet at Mealey's school house on Christmas, 1851, and both churches were to send delegates. The delegates of the associate church being Rev. Kendall, Rev. Irvine, John McCoy and James Hamilton. The associate reformed delegates were Rev. Blair, Josiah Osborn and John A. Dunlap.

Rev. Kendall was chairman. A resolution was passed in favor of a union. At the next meeting, held February 10, 1852, resolutions were adopted ratifying the union and basis of union agreed upon. On October 30, 1852, both presbyteries met and after ratifying the basis of union the two presbyteries were officially organized into the United Presbyterian church of Oregon, this being the first United Presbyterian presbytery organized in America.

Organized by Rev. Miller.
The Albany congregation was organized by Rev. James P. Miller on October 10, 1853. This was the first congregation organized in the United States under the distinctive name of United Presbyterian. Rev. James P. Miller, the organizer of the Albany church, was a great man and one greatly beloved by the membership of his church, his family being prominent in the affairs of the state. A son belonged to the regular army and held a commission. A daughter married an officer in the army and he was the father-in-law of Hon. Joseph G. Wilson, a former congressman from this state, also of United States Senator James K. Keller. Rev. Miller was an author of note, being the writer of several books of recognized worth on theological subjects. The congregation and presbytery sustained a most severe loss in the death of Rev. Miller, who lost his life in a steamboat explosion near Cananah, just above the falls at Oregon City. He was one of the principal supporters of the union and the chief author of the basis of union.

Three Charter Members Living.
In 1853 the union of the two great churches was consummated in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, and after this union the Oregon presbytery, which was an independent branch, was asked to join and become a part of the United Presbyterian church of North America. This was accepted and the union was made complete.

Among the membership of the Albany congregation are three living members who were a part of the union and actually charter members of the church, they being Mrs. Margaret Monteith, Weltha S. Miller and Miss Eliza Tate of Portland.

Rev. James Miller, after his death, was followed in the pastorate by Dr. J. M. Gover, 31 E. Main st., Ottawa, Kan., writes: "Every fall it has been my wife's trouble to catch a severe cold, and therefore to cough all winter long. Last fall I got her a bottle of Horehound Syrup, she used it and has been able to sleep soundly all night long. Whenever the cough troubles her two or three doses stops the cough, and she is able to be up and well. 50c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by Woodard, Clarke & Co."

THE COUNTRY MUST ALSO LEARN TO DIFFERENTIATE BETWEEN BLACK PEOPLE. It is a mistake to place all in the same class when referring to labor, morality or general conduct. There is a vicious class that disgraces us; there is also a worthy class which should always receive commendation. Further, we must frankly face the fact that the great body of our people are to dwell in the south, and any policy that does not seek to harmonize the two races and cement them is unwise and dangerous.

THE COUNTRY MUST ALSO LEARN TO DIFFERENTIATE BETWEEN BLACK PEOPLE. It is a mistake to place all in the same class when referring to labor, morality or general conduct. There is a vicious class that disgraces us; there is also a worthy class which should always receive commendation. Further, we must frankly face the fact that the great body of our people are to dwell in the south, and any policy that does not seek to harmonize the two races and cement them is unwise and dangerous.

THE COUNTRY MUST ALSO LEARN TO DIFFERENTIATE BETWEEN BLACK PEOPLE. It is a mistake to place all in the same class when referring to labor, morality or general conduct. There is a vicious class that disgraces us; there is also a worthy class which should always receive commendation. Further, we must frankly face the fact that the great body of our people are to dwell in the south, and any policy that does not seek to harmonize the two races and cement them is unwise and dangerous.

THE COUNTRY MUST ALSO LEARN TO DIFFERENTIATE BETWEEN BLACK PEOPLE. It is a mistake to place all in the same class when referring to labor, morality or general conduct. There is a vicious class that disgraces us; there is also a worthy class which should always receive commendation. Further, we must frankly face the fact that the great body of our people are to dwell in the south, and any policy that does not seek to harmonize the two races and cement them is unwise and dangerous.

It is because most women suffer from some derangement of their delicate organism, the discomfort of which is less trying when they are in motion than when standing.

In some states laws compel employers to provide resting places for their female employees.

But no amount of law can regulate the hard tasks of these women. They must get the strength which this work demands or run the risk of serious diseases and the surgeon's knife.

Read the experience of Miss Margaret Merkley, 275 3d Street, Milwaukee, Wis.

Dear Mrs. Pinkham—
"Gradual loss of strength, nervousness, bearing-down pains and extreme irritation compelled me to seek medical advice. The doctor said I had diseased organs and ulceration, and advised an operation if I wanted to get well. I objected to this and decided to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. I soon found that all the good things said about this great medicine were true. The ulceration soon healed, headache, dizziness and nervousness disappeared, and in a short time I was strong, vigorous and perfectly well. I wish every working girl who suffers would try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a vegetable tonic which invigorates and strengthens the entire female organism, and will produce the same beneficial results in the cases of other sick women as with Miss Merkley.

S. G. Irvine, the pastor of the Oakville church. His was a long and faithful pastorate of over 40 years.

AT THE THEATRES.

Jane Corcoran at Hellig Tonight.
The brilliant young actress, Jane Corcoran, supported by James M. Brophy and a most capable company of players, will begin an engagement at the Hellig theatre on Wednesday night, October 10, and will continue until Sunday morning, October 14, at the box office of the theatre.

Next Week at the Baker.
"Lady Hunsworth's Experiment" will be the bill at the Baker next week, beginning Sunday matinee. The scenic features of the production will be up to the Baker standard, and the cast has been well selected by Director Stimpfle. "Lady Hunsworth's Experiment" promises to be one of the hits of the present season at this popular stock theatre.

"The Gay Lord Quex."
In "The Gay Lord Quex," which is the bill this week at the Baker theatre, the popular stock company has given the public its best production so far this year. William Dille is back this week and is being warmly greeted by his admirers. Richard Thurston and Lillie Lawrence are making great hits in their respective roles. The play is elegantly staged. Matinee tomorrow and last time tomorrow night. "The Gay Lord Quex" is a play of wit, and its lines are beautiful and tell a great story.

"Uncle Josh" Matinee Tomorrow.
Good old "Uncle Josh Perkins" will amuse and delight the children of tomorrow's popular matinee at the Empire. This great rural play is just what the young folks most desire. It is full of clean fun and an interesting story ample to understand. "Uncle Josh Perkins" will be at the Empire but three more times, tonight, tomorrow matinee and night.

"Pete Peterson" Next Week.
"Pete Peterson," a new and clever story of the "honest swindle boy," just landed, will open the Empire Sunday matinee. This story is Walter's latest offering, and is considered the best of all the Swedish dialect dramas of recent years. Pete Peterson is the hired man at a country hotel and his many adventures furnish material for a most original and interesting play. All next week at the Empire.

Gogorza Sale Tomorrow Morning.
The Hellig box office will be a busy place tomorrow morning, for at 10 o'clock the seats for the Gogorza musical recital will be put on sale. When one thinks of the interest a woman singer always creates, quite as much among the sexes as among her own, it is very interesting to note the sold a man's voice always has upon members of his own sex. The recital on Monday at the Hellig will not be left to the women to appreciate, for it has created a great deal of enthusiasm among the men and they will be largely in evidence. The recital is under the direction of Lois Steers-Wynn-Coman.

At the Grand.
"Mlle. Manhattan," the condensed musical comedy at the Grand, is but one of a number of more than ordinarily good vaudeville specialties which this house is doing up this week. Gus Leonard, with his fake magic and his funny music, is a hit, and so are the Diamond Comedy Four and O'Brien and West, singers and dancers.

"That Girl From Texas."
There is nothing so pleasing an audience as a play which tells a heart story and at the same time has a vein of comedy. This is the sort of play which the Allen stock company is giving this week at the Star. It is "That Girl From Texas." Miss Vera Felton is essaying the title role. There will be matinee Saturday and Sunday. Next week, "The Two Orphans."

At the Lyric.
"Lives there a man with soul so dead who never to himself has said, 'This is my own, my native land?'" Such is the central idea in the military drama at the Lyric this week, "The Deserter." It is a play which appeals to the patriotic sentiments of the audience, and it is giving one of the Lyric's most successful productions.

SEEK APPREHENSION OF DEFAULTING CUBAN
(Journal Special Service.)
New York, Oct. 12.—Cablegrams have been sent to all ports in the world asking authorities to keep watch for Manuel Silveira, the Havana banker, who is accused of having absconded with more than $1,000,000, thereby causing the assignment in this city of the banking and commission house of Jaum M. Ceballos & Co.

Silveira is not on board the steamer Carmelina, upon which he left Havana October 2, but on another steamer, which he boarded at sea two days after leaving the Cuban capital.

As the financial agent of Ceballos & Co., Silveira's firm handled money in bulk and often had on hand an excess holding of more than $1,000,000. Ceballos & Co. were the business agents for many New York firms and individuals interested in Cuban projects, and in this business handled large sums of money for their customers.

HUGHES SAYS HEARST IS MENACE TO NATION
New York, Oct. 12.—C. E. Hughes, Republican candidate for governor, in his speech at Geneva last night said among other things:

"Nothing is more reprehensible to the United States than an appeal to passion."

"Not since the civil war has there been such an issue as now; never before, that I know of, has there been an attempt, through newspapers established in different communities in the United States, to focus the whole attention of the country upon alleged wrongs and create discontent, envy and hatred, and arouse the worst passions of the multitude. That is the menace to this country, and there is the menace we propose to deal with on election day."

THE COUNTRY MUST ALSO LEARN TO DIFFERENTIATE BETWEEN BLACK PEOPLE. It is a mistake to place all in the same class when referring to labor, morality or general conduct. There is a vicious class that disgraces us; there is also a worthy class which should always receive commendation. Further, we must frankly face the fact that the great body of our people are to dwell in the south, and any policy that does not seek to harmonize the two races and cement them is unwise and dangerous.

It is because most women suffer from some derangement of their delicate organism, the discomfort of which is less trying when they are in motion than when standing.

In some states laws compel employers to provide resting places for their female employees.

But no amount of law can regulate the hard tasks of these women. They must get the strength which this work demands or run the risk of serious diseases and the surgeon's knife.

Read the experience of Miss Margaret Merkley, 275 3d Street, Milwaukee, Wis.

Dear Mrs. Pinkham—
"Gradual loss of strength, nervousness, bearing-down pains and extreme irritation compelled me to seek medical advice. The doctor said I had diseased organs and ulceration, and advised an operation if I wanted to get well. I objected to this and decided to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. I soon found that all the good things said about this great medicine were true. The ulceration soon healed, headache, dizziness and nervousness disappeared, and in a short time I was strong, vigorous and perfectly well. I wish every working girl who suffers would try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a vegetable tonic which invigorates and strengthens the entire female organism, and will produce the same beneficial results in the cases of other sick women as with Miss Merkley.

S. G. Irvine, the pastor of the Oakville church. His was a long and faithful pastorate of over 40 years.

AT THE THEATRES.

Jane Corcoran at Hellig Tonight.
The brilliant young actress, Jane Corcoran, supported by James M. Brophy and a most capable company of players, will begin an engagement at the Hellig theatre on Wednesday night, October 10, and will continue until Sunday morning, October 14, at the box office of the theatre.

Next Week at the Baker.
"Lady Hunsworth's Experiment" will be the bill at the Baker next week, beginning Sunday matinee. The scenic features of the production will be up to the Baker standard, and the cast has been well selected by Director Stimpfle. "Lady Hunsworth's Experiment" promises to be one of the hits of the present season at this popular stock theatre.

"The Gay Lord Quex."
In "The Gay Lord Quex," which is the bill this week at the Baker theatre, the popular stock company has given the public its best production so far this year. William Dille is back this week and is being warmly greeted by his admirers. Richard Thurston and Lillie Lawrence are making great hits in their respective roles. The play is elegantly staged. Matinee tomorrow and last time tomorrow night. "The Gay Lord Quex" is a play of wit, and its lines are beautiful and tell a great story.

"Uncle Josh" Matinee Tomorrow.
Good old "Uncle Josh Perkins" will amuse and delight the children of tomorrow's popular matinee at the Empire. This great rural play is just what the young folks most desire. It is full of clean fun and an interesting story ample to understand. "Uncle Josh Perkins" will be at the Empire but three more times, tonight, tomorrow matinee and night.

"Pete Peterson" Next Week.
"Pete Peterson," a new and clever story of the "honest swindle boy," just landed, will open the Empire Sunday matinee. This story is Walter's latest offering, and is considered the best of all the Swedish dialect dramas of recent years. Pete Peterson is the hired man at a country hotel and his many adventures furnish material for a most original and interesting play. All next week at the Empire.

Gogorza Sale Tomorrow Morning.
The Hellig box office will be a busy place tomorrow morning, for at 10 o'clock the seats for the Gogorza musical recital will be put on sale. When one thinks of the interest a woman singer always creates, quite as much among the sexes as among her own, it is very interesting to note the sold a man's voice always has upon members of his own sex. The recital on Monday at the Hellig will not be left to the women to appreciate, for it has created a great deal of enthusiasm among the men and they will be largely in evidence. The recital is under the direction of Lois Steers-Wynn-Coman.

At the Grand.
"Mlle. Manhattan," the condensed musical comedy at the Grand, is but one of a number of more than ordinarily good vaudeville specialties which this house is doing up this week. Gus Leonard, with his fake magic and his funny music, is a hit, and so are the Diamond Comedy Four and O'Brien and West, singers and dancers.

"That Girl From Texas."
There is nothing so pleasing an audience as a play which tells a heart story and at the same time has a vein of comedy. This is the sort of play which the Allen stock company is giving this week at the Star. It is "That Girl From Texas." Miss Vera Felton is essaying the title role. There will be matinee Saturday and Sunday. Next week, "The Two Orphans."

At the Lyric.
"Lives there a man with soul so dead who never to himself has said, 'This is my own, my native land?'" Such is the central idea in the military drama at the Lyric this week, "The Deserter." It is a play which appeals to the patriotic sentiments of the audience, and it is giving one of the Lyric's most successful productions.

SEEK APPREHENSION OF DEFAULTING CUBAN
(Journal Special Service.)
New York, Oct. 12.—Cablegrams have been sent to all ports in the world asking authorities to keep watch for Manuel Silveira, the Havana banker, who is accused of having absconded with more than $1,000,000, thereby causing the assignment in this city of the banking and commission house of Jaum M. Ceballos & Co.

Silveira is not on board the steamer Carmelina, upon which he left Havana October 2, but on another steamer, which he boarded at sea two days after leaving the Cuban capital.

As the financial agent of Ceballos & Co., Silveira's firm handled money in bulk and often had on hand an excess holding of more than $1,000,000. Ceballos & Co. were the business agents for many New York firms and individuals interested in Cuban projects, and in this business handled large sums of money for their customers.

HUGHES SAYS HEARST IS MENACE TO NATION
New York, Oct. 12.—C. E. Hughes, Republican candidate for governor, in his speech at Geneva last night said among other things:

"Nothing is more reprehensible to the United States than an appeal to passion."

"Not since the civil war has there been such an issue as now; never before, that I know of, has there been an attempt, through newspapers established in different communities in the United States, to focus the whole attention of the country upon alleged wrongs and create discontent, envy and hatred, and arouse the worst passions of the multitude. That is the menace to this country, and there is the menace we propose to deal with on election day."

THE COUNTRY MUST ALSO LEARN TO DIFFERENTIATE BETWEEN BLACK PEOPLE. It is a mistake to place all in the same class when referring to labor, morality or general conduct. There is a vicious class that disgraces us; there is also a worthy class which should always receive commendation. Further, we must frankly face the fact that the great body of our people are to dwell in the south, and any policy that does not seek to harmonize the two races and cement them is unwise and dangerous.

BOYS

We have 10,000 bright, new Pennies which we want to give away to as many bright BOYS and GIRLS—one for each Coupon like this you may bring to our store—See them in our window, you never saw so many pennies before

Boys' School Suits

At modest prices

$3.95 to $10

IN our bright, new juvenile department mothers will find the largest assortment of BOYS' and CHILDREN'S Clothing in Portland—you will also find the most comfortable shopping place—fine light—airy show rooms—comfortable chairs for resting—plenty courteous salesmen and the best values.

MISSSES' TAILOR-MADE COATS $11.85 to $25.00

BEN SELLING LEADING CLOTHIER

ALL BRANDS OF TOBACCOS ABSOLUTELY AT WHOLESALE PRICES

We Make No Pretense of Profits on Tobaccos

You Never Would Pay More if You Once Examined

Our Cravenettes

At $10

They are perfect rain-proof coats, in every respect the equal of the $12.50 and $15 kinds sold at other stores

Our $10 Overcoats

Are of the same quality—the $12.50 and $15 coats of competing merchants

Our $10 Suits

Are also the $12.50 and $15 garments—measured from values elsewhere. It is the same all over the store

Prices the Lowest on the Pacific Coast