Mr. and Mrs. David J. Horsemann.

The fortieth anniversary of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. David J. Horsemann was celebrated at their home in St. Johns, Friday evening.

Mr. Horsemann was born in Billerica, Mass., in 1844. He served throughout the Civil war and was with Sherman on his famous "march to the sea."

D'URBANO'S BAND CLOSES ITS SEASON AT THE OAKS TODAY

D'Urbano's band of 35 pieces closes its second season at the Oaks today. The success attained by the band, and its great popularity with the Portland people are indicated by the crowds that have gone to the Oaks daily during the season.

It is believed that D'Urbano will return with his band in the spring to play at the Oaks next season.

AUDUBON SOCIETY MEMBERS WITH WINGS ON THEIR HATS

As a part of its campaign against the ruthless destruction of birds the Oregon State Audubon society last evening laid plans for bringing the aims of the organization before the school children and teachers and the farmers as well.

being protected and it didn't matter much whether the natives of some other place which were so unfortunate as to be given valuable plumage by an all-wise providence.

The only jarring note in the meeting was the fact that by actual count just 40 per cent of the women in attendance wore birds' wings on their hats.

It is planned to bring the work of the society before the State Teachers' association which meets in November.
