

shaded roses in numerous tints, was admired, and her blue gown, with just a touch of rose, was exceedingly French in effect. Mrs. Walter V. Smith was perhaps the most stunning figure there, in an elegant gown of green pan velvet, falling in soft folds. The garnitures of green, original and fascinating, with touches of white lace about the yoke and quantities of it in soft effect about the sleeves, gave the princess gown a chic effect. Her hat of the same shade of green was ornamented with ermine tails and a gorgeous plume of green in various shades, and the whole costume was set off with emeralds. Hers was said to be one of the handsomest costumes seen in Portland this year.

Portland has plunged into the excitement of society with a vengeance the past week, and everyone has been kept busy from the time of the benefit performance at the Baker Monday night to the Hill Military Academy hop last night. There has been lots of excitement and matrons and maids have donned their best day after day, and gone about the enjoyment of it with keen relish. There were weddings and weddings of more or less brilliancy—mostly more beginning with the Goss-Catlin wedding Tuesday. Then there have been so many out-of-town guests to be entertained and more brides-to-be. And there was the engagement of Miss Nannie Wood which interested everyone, and it is said that this announcement is only the forerunner of a number of more that will be of equal interest.

Mrs. Charles Frederic Humphrey, who was Mrs. Fred Miram Strong's guest last week, was abundantly entertained during her stay. Monday afternoon Mrs. Sanderson Reed of Willamette Heights gave an informal tea for her the Daughters of the Confederacy to apply to the benefit of the Penascola sufferers. A number of the prominent matrons had boxes and loges and entertained parties. The James Laidlaws had as guests Mrs. Raleigh Scott, Miss Susie Scott and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Laidlaw. Mrs. A. A. Morrison chaperoned the party of young girls who occupied Mrs. Houghton's box. Mrs. Houghton's illness prevented her presence. The girls were Misses Effie and Claire Houghton, Miss Leslie Knapp, Miss Margaret Morrison and Miss Hazel Crocker. Mrs. J. B. Montgomery's party consisted of her daughter, Miss May Montgomery, Miss Hazel Dolph, Miss Evelyn Wilson and Miss Dorothy Effinger. The Hill Wilsons entertained the Howard Mathers, Mrs. E. H. Brooke, Miss Hoyt and Miss Flinders. Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Teal had a party in another loge.

The recital given by Miss Anna Selkirk Norton last evening at the Nortonia was a fashionable affair. Many of the most prominent guests of the hotel interested themselves in the success of the concert of Mrs. Norton, who has apartments at the Nortonia, and was present in fashionable evening at which Mrs. Strong served the tea and Mrs. L. H. Maxwell poured. Mrs. Frank Kerr entertained at dinner in the evening with a theatre party at the Baker afterward.

Mrs. Joseph N. Teal entertained at luncheon Saturday a week ago in honor of Mrs. William Jones of Tacoma, who is visiting Mrs. Morton Insley. Among the guests were Mrs. F. E. O'Reilly, Miss Mabelle Brants of Walla Walla, who is visiting Mrs. Walter Cook of Irvington. The guests at the luncheon were: Mrs. Jones, Miss Brants, Mrs. Cora Bertha Moore and Miss Bertha Moore, all schoolmates of Mrs. Jones.

Tuesday Mrs. Max Hirsch entertained with a luncheon at the Nortonia and in the evening Mrs. Samuel Rothchild gave a dinner. Wednesday the Misses Belle and Ceith Robertson were hostesses at a luncheon for her. The decorations were red carnations with an individual bouquet at each place. In the evening Mrs. Ed Prescott entertained at dinner.

Thursday Mrs. Ralph Walker gave a beautiful pink luncheon at her home "Kinkerside." Her guests besides Mrs. Humphrey and Mrs. Strong were: Mrs. Lulle Hall, Mrs. Samuel B. Archer, Mrs. Joe Barrett, Miss Semie Groat and Emily Holbrook. The dining-room was decorated in pink, with pink roses on the table. The candles were pink with pink shades and a touch of pink tulle gave an airy effect. Corsage bouquets of pink roses were the favors and the watercolor placards were in pink. The nine-course luncheon was daintily presided over by the hostess, who wore a charming imported frock of white pastels shades trimmed with valencienne and baby Irish point. Mrs. Humphrey wore white silk trimmed with lace. It was Mrs. Humphrey's brother-in-law, Captain Humphrey, who entertained Mrs. Walker, then Miss Richard, and her father at West Point when she was visiting east.

Mrs. Humphrey left Friday evening for San Francisco, whence she sails immediately to join her husband in Honolulu.

Dr. and Mrs. E. DeWitt Connell gave a dinner dance Wednesday at their pretty King's Heights home in honor of their guest, Douglas Crane. Covers were laid for 12 at dinner, and the table was beautiful with masses of pink carnations and feather fern. The hostess was charming in a blue gown of Dresden silk with pink roses. Miss Ditchburn, whose portrait was done last week, wore the gown in which she was painted—a cream lace over pink chiffon. Mrs. Lombard was handsome in white duchesse lace, and Mrs. Withee in a white stamie cut princess. Among the dinner guests were Mr. and Mrs. Gay Lombard, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore S. Withee, Miss Anna Ditchburn, Dr. Lawbaugh and Mr. Richards. Other guests joined the party after dinner, among whom were Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Knight, Mr. and Mrs. George K. Wentworth, Mrs. Anna Selkirk Norton, Mrs. Albert C. Sheldon, Alfred Aya and others. Mrs. Nelson and Miss Ditchburn sang.

"The Gay Lord Quex" at the Baker last Monday night was made a society event of some importance because the box receipts were to be turned over to dress. The program was excellent, and Mrs. Norton appeared at her best. Most of the distinguished list of patronesses were present.

The patronesses were: Mrs. H. D. Green, Mrs. C. E. S. Wood, Mrs. A. E. Rocky, Mrs. R. H. Hoge, Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd, Mrs. David Chambers Lewis, Mrs. J. B. Montgomery, Mrs. J. K. Clark, Mrs. A. S. Norton, Mrs. DeWitt Connell, Mrs. Frank Kerr, Mrs. Walter Cook, Mrs. P. H. Carroll, Mrs. Gay Lombard and Mrs. Max Hirsch.

Mrs. William E. Prudhomme entertained 15 tiny tots and their mothers at her beautiful home, 794 Irving street, on Saturday afternoon, in honor of the second birthday anniversary of her little daughter, Frances Bernadette. Miss Frances' guests were: Miss Alleen Cooke, Vera and Elsie Prudhomme, and Marie Burke, Masters Jack Klotterman, Graham Taylor Bennett, Norbert Kavanaugh, John Hellyer, Worthington Archer, Jack Hering, Jordan Burke, Wilben Prudhomme, Bert Bernard and Lew Tyrrell. The decorations were autumn leaves, ferns, roses and potted plants. Mrs. Prudhomme was assisted by her mother, Mrs. Norden, and sisters, Misses

J. W. Davenport, Wingo, Ky. writes, June 14, 1893: "I want to tell you I have been cured of my lung trouble. I was under the treatment of two doctors, and they told me one of my lungs was entirely gone, and the other badly affected. I also had a lump on my side. I don't think that I could have lived over two months longer. I was induced by a friend to try Ballard's Snow Liniment. The first application gave me great relief; the second cured my cough and sore throat. It is a wonderful medicine and I recommend it to suffering humanity. Sold by Woodard, Clarke & Co."

Mrs. Charles Frederic Humphrey Jr. of Honolulu.

Frances Norden and Lorenz Prudhomme and Mrs. E. L. Dodson, recently from New York.

The announcement of Miss Nannie Wood's engagement to David Honeyman was of paramount interest last week and good wishes have poured in upon the popular girl, who is one of the most beautiful and charming of her set. Mrs. Wood made the announcement to a few of her friends Wednesday morning and the news spread rapidly. In the afternoon Mrs. Wesley Ladd made it the occasion of special compliments to Miss Wood, who was one of the few unmarried guests there. A bouquet of Bride Wreath flowers was sent to the bride-to-be and she was made the center of much attention. It is understood that the wedding will take place in the early spring.

The first large bridge party of the season was given Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd. There were 11 tables for the game and the afternoon hours were put in pleasantly in the company of the young girls. The table was given a dainty gold hatpin. The hostess entertained only her married friends that afternoon, though a few of the young girls were invited as substitutes for the afternoon. Interest centered in the announcement of the engagement of Miss Nannie Wood to David Taylor Honeyman, which Mr. and Mrs. C. E. S. Wood had made public last week. A beautiful bouquet of white chrysanthemums was placed at her chair during the afternoon game.

Mrs. W. W. Cotton entertained at the golf links last Tuesday with bridge for Mrs. Sidney Z. Mitchell of New York, who is a guest at the Hobart-Curtin. Mrs. Mitchell is making a stay here of about two months, and will leave about the end of October. Mrs. Cotton's guests at the bridge and tea were: Misses Mrs. Mitchell, Mrs. Grosscup of Tacoma, Mrs. Louis R. Tarpley, Mrs. A. J. Gleay, Mrs. Charles E. Curry, Mrs. J. C. Robinson, Mrs. Thomas O'Day, Mrs. F. Batchelor, Mrs. J. P. Dixon, Mrs. S. R. Johnston, Mrs. I. H. Parker, Mrs. George Russell, Mrs. J. N. Russell, Mrs. Joseph N. Teal and Miss C. Allen. Mrs. Parker, Mrs. Tarpley and Mrs. O'Day were the prizes.

The Portia club was entertained Tuesday by its president, Mrs. H. E. Adams. Her beautiful home, at 603 East Alder street, was artistically decorated with masses of autumn foliage. The afternoon was spent in the discussion of plans for the new year. The past season was so successful that it was finally decided that each hostess was, as in the past, to furnish the program for the year.

The refreshments, which closed the afternoon, were more elaborate than in the rule of the club, it being the first formal meeting. Mrs. John F. Logan is the hostess Tuesday, October 23, at her home, 328 East Sixth street.

Miss Anne Ditchburn who is a great favorite with her set for her cleverness and charming personality, was the subject of a beautiful portrait done by Mr. Crane since his arrival here. Miss Ditchburn is a pleasing and vivacious type of brunette, of graceful carriage and pretty manners. Her talents in music and dramatic work are unusually marked, and she has made many appearances in public. She wore a dainty creamy lace over delicate pink in having her portrait done, and the effect is beautiful.

Mrs. Walter Cook's luncheon Thursday for her guest, Miss Mabelle Brants of Walla Walla, was a charming affair. Love and autumn leaves adorned the room, and the luncheon was red as well. A large basket of red carnations was the centerpiece, and small baskets of the same flower graced each place. The other guests were: Mrs. Ruth Stone of Walla Walla, Mrs. Joseph N. Teal, Miss Genevieve Thompson, Mrs. E. F. Northrup, Mrs. Ralph Hoyt and Mrs. Everett Ames.

Mrs. Joseph N. Teal entertained at luncheon Saturday a week ago in honor of Mrs. William Jones of Tacoma, who is visiting Mrs. Morton Insley. Among the guests were Mrs. F. E. O'Reilly, Miss Mabelle Brants of Walla Walla, who is visiting Mrs. Walter Cook of Irvington. The guests at the luncheon were: Mrs. Jones, Miss Brants, Mrs. Cora Bertha Moore and Miss Bertha Moore, all schoolmates of Mrs. Jones.

The patronesses for Miss Dorothea Nash's recital at the Unitarian chapel Wednesday evening give some importance to a social event. They are Madame Von Bolton, Mrs. A. E. Rocky, Mrs. Nicholson, Miss Henrietta Felling, Mrs. L. L. McArthur, Mrs. Powell, Mrs. R. L. Sargent and Mrs. E. H. O'Reilly. Miss Nash will be assisted by Mrs. Imogen Harding Brodie, and the accompanist will be W. Gifford Nash.

Mrs. Joseph D. Grant and his bride left for Honolulu, having arrived from San Francisco to visit Mrs. Thomas Kerr for several weeks while Mr. Grant is in the east. Mrs. Grant is Mrs. Kerr's sister and was formerly Miss Edith Macaulay. She will be much entertained throughout her stay as she was a social favorite before leaving Portland. Miss Flinders gave an informal card party for her Friday.

Mrs. William Jones of Tacoma left Thursday after a visit with Mrs. Morton Insley. She was much entertained during her stay. Her sister, Miss Ruth Stone of Walla Walla, who came down for Miss Leslie Knapp's debut reception week before last, spent last week as the guest of Dr. and Mrs. William Wood. Miss Stone returned home last night.

Dr. Philip Johnston and his bride are expected soon from New York to make their home here. The new Mrs. Johnston was Mrs. Theodore Scarborough of New York, a daughter of ex-Governor Hoxley of Ohio. Dr. Johnston spent a month here in the summer, the guest of W. C. Alvord, his cousin.

Mrs. Robert Lewis has spent part of the week in the Good Samaritan hospital where she underwent an operation. She is improving rapidly and will be able to be moved in two weeks. Messrs. Lewis and Flowers are frequent happening with the popular young matron during her illness.

Mrs. Warren Houghton, who has been slightly ill several weeks, is much improved and will probably be out again next week. Her absence during the

Mr. and Mrs. William Whelan have returned from their wedding trip in California and are at home at 213 North Twenty-first street.

Howard Holland entertained a theatre party of six at "Checkers" opening night. Mr. Holland left Tuesday on an extended trip east.

Miss Margaret Montgomery is spending some time with her sister, Mrs. Walter Burrell at one of her numerous ranches.

Mrs. John Egan Young returned Saturday a week ago from Boston, where she has been visiting since early spring.

Bishop Scadding and Mrs. Scadding are guests of Mrs. C. H. Lewis for the first few days of their stay here.

Mrs. C. J. Reed and Miss Louise Muelick are visiting together in New York.

Seventeenth street North, in honor of her mother, Mrs. J. W. Groat of Oregon City. The afternoon was spent in music and games. Souvenir postal cards were in evidence throughout all the games, and were used profusely as decorations. The prize winners were Mrs. A. J. Montgomery, Mrs. E. L. Story and Miss Maggie Kelly. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess. The place cards were souvenir postals. Those present were: Mrs. A. J. Montgomery, Mrs. Minnie Ralph, Mrs. George Weiss, Mrs. Fred Miller, Mrs. John Laub, Mrs. George Munro and Mrs. J. (Continued on Page Nineteen.)
