

WOMEN'S CLUBS AND WORK

Edited by Mrs. Sarah A. Evans

A Little Rose With a Great Sermon.

Gathering up the sunbeams, and making life beautiful from the little things that descend upon us every day...

Illinois Study Club Holds Special Meeting.

For the purpose of getting the club properly started on its winter work, the president, Mrs. Worrall, came up from southern Oregon...

Whom the Gods Destroy They First Make Crazy.

An anti-woman suffrage meeting has just been held in England. The London Chronicle says there were eight people present...

A Pendleton Club Issues Handsome Book.

One of the most chaste and delicately beautiful yearbooks to arrive this season comes from the Current Literature Club...

"Are We a Laggard Nation?" Asks Mrs. Catt.

Writing from Copenhagen, Denmark, Mrs. Chapman Catt, president of the International Woman Suffrage association...

Tuesday Afternoon Club Holds Its Second Meeting.

The meeting last Tuesday ushered in the first real business of the club, and the members realized that from now on it would be a very busy life...

The Woodburn Club Resumes Its Activities.

After a three-months' vacation, the Woodburn club took up its work last week with renewed life and vigor...

of the year to the study of English novelists, beginning with the old favorite George Eliot...

The club will send its full delegation to the state convention, and it is believed that a large number of the members will attend who are not delegates...

SOCIETY

(Continued from Page Eighteen.)

W. Grant, Mrs. M. McGeehan, Mrs. Carl Schubel, Mrs. Ed L. Storey, Mrs. J. L. Swarford and Miss Maggie Kelly of Oregon City.

Mr. and Mrs. George Thompson of 222 Union avenue, North gave a birthday party the evening of October 7, in honor of W. O. White of Woodlawn.

A theatre party was given at the performance of "The Maid and the Mumpkin" Thursday evening by a number of the friends of the grove occupied by Genevieve Gibson.

The members of the Rebekah lodge at Corvallis were "home" to 49 invited guests at their ball one evening last week.

The Alhambra club gave its opening party of the season Thursday evening at the Auditorium hall, and a very pleasant evening was spent.

WEDDINGS.

The marriage of Miss Ethel C. Reed and Otto E. Prael took place Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. George V. Reed...

The marriage of Miss Eva Sandy to W. Verne Struble took place on Wednesday evening at the residence of the bride's parents...

A pretty home wedding took place Sunday afternoon at the bride's home near Corvallis, when Miss Rose Hull was united in marriage to Ivan Hawley...

Wednesday night Dr. Clarence True Wilson, pastor of the Methodist church at Gordon and Mrs. Mildred A. Drake, both of Portland...

Miss Lucia Anglin Gilman, who has been so much entertained the past few weeks, was married Wednesday evening with a pretty wedding at St. David's Episcopal church...

Other weddings celebrated by Dr. House were Mrs. Clarence Fargo Brock of Los Angeles and J. W. Dickson of Chicago...

At 371 College street, Thursday afternoon, Everett D. Adamson and Miss Edna O. Kyler of Portland were married by Rev. Henry A. Barden...

COMING EVENTS.

The first monthly tea of the season at the Patton Home will be held next Tuesday. The following excellent program will be arranged by Mrs. F. M. Branch...

Corinthian chapter No. 24, O. E. S. is planning to give a "dormitory" or masquerade social Wednesday evening. The members and their friends are requested as far as possible to wear a domino of some color...

Invitations are out for the marriage of Miss Esther Robinson and Albert Salk next Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock at the bride's home...

Montrose M. Ringer and Miss Dookanmyer have sent out invitations for their opening party Tuesday at Ringer's hall, 309 Alder street.

ENGAGEMENTS.

Mrs. E. R. McLeod has sent out invitations for the marriage of her daughter, Alberta Jeanne to Dr. Oral S. Fowler...

Mr. and Mrs. William West announce the engagement of their daughter, Dorothy Lee to W. A. Martin of Portland. The wedding will take place Thursday, October 18.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. Frank M. Cohn and her daughter Miss Wilma F. Cohn have returned from a short visit to Forest Grove, where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Williams.

Mrs. Alice C. Walker is visiting in Portland, on her way to California. Mr. and Mrs. Sam B. Stoy and children left last Monday for Alameda, California, where they will remain through the winter.

Mrs. Sherman Brown started east Thursday to join Mr. Brown in New York. She may decide to remain there for the winter to pursue her violin studies.

Harold V. Milligan spent the week at Newport, and will return Tuesday. Miss Alda Broughton will substitute for him as organist of Calvary Presbyterian church.

Talking of Concrete. In case steps of increasing use of concrete for building purposes are made, the Portland, in June, about 2,000 feet is covered by a dome over 142 feet in diameter, which is cast in concrete in one solid piece.

Other weddings celebrated by Dr. House were Mrs. Clarence Fargo Brock of Los Angeles and J. W. Dickson of Chicago...

At 371 College street, Thursday afternoon, Everett D. Adamson and Miss Edna O. Kyler of Portland were married by Rev. Henry A. Barden...

COMING EVENTS.

The first monthly tea of the season at the Patton Home will be held next Tuesday. The following excellent program will be arranged by Mrs. F. M. Branch...

Corinthian chapter No. 24, O. E. S. is planning to give a "dormitory" or masquerade social Wednesday evening. The members and their friends are requested as far as possible to wear a domino of some color...

Invitations are out for the marriage of Miss Esther Robinson and Albert Salk next Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock at the bride's home...

Montrose M. Ringer and Miss Dookanmyer have sent out invitations for their opening party Tuesday at Ringer's hall, 309 Alder street.

ENGAGEMENTS.

Mrs. E. R. McLeod has sent out invitations for the marriage of her daughter, Alberta Jeanne to Dr. Oral S. Fowler...

Mr. and Mrs. William West announce the engagement of their daughter, Dorothy Lee to W. A. Martin of Portland. The wedding will take place Thursday, October 18.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. Frank M. Cohn and her daughter Miss Wilma F. Cohn have returned from a short visit to Forest Grove, where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Williams.

Mrs. Alice C. Walker is visiting in Portland, on her way to California. Mr. and Mrs. Sam B. Stoy and children left last Monday for Alameda, California, where they will remain through the winter.

Mrs. Sherman Brown started east Thursday to join Mr. Brown in New York. She may decide to remain there for the winter to pursue her violin studies.

Harold V. Milligan spent the week at Newport, and will return Tuesday. Miss Alda Broughton will substitute for him as organist of Calvary Presbyterian church.

Talking of Concrete. In case steps of increasing use of concrete for building purposes are made, the Portland, in June, about 2,000 feet is covered by a dome over 142 feet in diameter, which is cast in concrete in one solid piece.

ARE YOU LIGHT-WISE? A store or place of business which is not lighted by Electricity has "let down the bars" to the inroads of its competitors. No matter how complete and fine your stock is, the improper lighting and worse ventilation of your store will turn away many probable purchasers...

PORTLAND GENERAL ELECTRIC COMPANY FIRST AND ALDER STREETS

LONG LEGAL BATTLE BEFORE "PARSIFAL" WAS PRODUCED. Frau Wagner and Conried Went to Law, but the New York Manager Won. Apropos of the forthcoming presentation in this city of Wagner's celebrated opera "Parsifal"...

There's grave danger from the plague of Coughs and Colds that are so prevalent, you take Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. Mrs. Geo. Walls of Forest City, Me., writes: "It's a Godsend to people living in climates where coughs and colds prevail. I had it quickly and it prevents pneumonia, cures a cold, and saves my throat."