CATHOLICS PREPARE TO DEDICATE CHURCH

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Salem, Oct. 15.—Roman Catholics here are making preparations for the dedication of St. Joseph's church, of which Rev. A. Moore is rector. The grand dedicatory services will be held October 28, and Archbishop Christie, the brilliant orator and prelate, will deliver the sermon. Rectors from the neighboring churches of the diocese will join the local church in the services.

The event will be one of much local interest, as St. Joseph's is one of the most popular churches of the Capital City.

Extensive repairs have been going on in the interior of the church. The walls and ceilings have been frescoed anew and something like $2,400 has been spent in the improvements of the edifice.

LAW STUDENT STARTS 'VARSITY CAMPUS FUND

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Salem, Oct. 15.—Harry Spaulding of Sunnyside, Washington, a student in the law department of the university, has made a gift to the Willamette university of $100 worth of shrubbery and flowers for the beautifying of the college campus. The gift is made in such a way that $25 worth of shrubbery will be given annually for four years. The gift is the first one made by a member of the student body for the improvement of the campus, and it is expected that other students will donate labor and that the improvements on the campus will be very noticeable.
