OFFICING OF FOOTBALL SHABOR.

The spening of the football season is the great event in amatoor eportdens. This year is will be ergocially interest-ing as the revised rules, a dis-tinoi departure from those of the old game, will be put in practice. The first game will be between the Multhomah Gi-ints and the Albany Titans in the Multhomah field today, and as usual when any big event takes place. The Journal will have the best account of it. The game will be reported and liustrated by experts for the Sunday Journal, and the game made the new rules will be con-trasted with the old plays by man who know how. Everybody, interested in football should read he report of the Albany-Mult-
