KEES SAYS GOVERNOR IS JELLY FISH

Deposed Warden is Severe in Arraignment of Mead and Crocker.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal) Tacoma, Wash., Oct. 23.—The dismissal of Warden Kees of the state penitentiary and the elevation of M. F. Klinead, chairman of the board of control to his position, with the appointment of Matthew Fies, a traveling salesman of Seattle, who is a brother of Senator Fies, as chairman of the board, is producing a political cyclone such as has not disrupted the Republican party in Washington in many years.

"Deep Creek" Jones, the Democratic member of the board of control, who is in Tacoma, declares there was no politics in the dismissal of Kees. "Kees refused to resign when asked to do so, and says that he will demand an investigation of his conduct. He attributes his dismissal to B. D. Crocker, and bitterly assails both him and Governor Mead, and threatens Mead with a political Waterloo when the proper time comes." "I do not know which I hate and despise the most, Crocker or Mead," said he in an interview. "One for his infamous domineering of every man who attempts to thwart his plans, or the other for his total lack of political sense or regard for his pledges. I shall most likely retire from active participation in politics, but I shall not cease to pay off with compound interest the obligations I feel are now due to the jelly fish who is temporarily holding down the governor's chair, and the political Mephisto, who is directing the politics of the state."

NO MURPHY DEAL, SAYS HEARST

Candidate Denies Making Compact With Boss of Tammany Hall—Attacks Trusts.

OPPOSITION EDITORS ALL CALLED LIARS

Says Publishers Are Spotted From Head to Foot With the Mire in Which They Have Been Wallowing—Great Crowd Cheers Speech.

(Journal Special Service.) New York, Oct. 23.—W. R. Hearst addressed an immense and enthusiastic meeting under the auspices of the Independence league at Madison Square Garden last night. Hearst attacked corporations and trusts, berated his opponent Hughes and predicted his own election by a majority of 150,000.

Hearst told how he has fought the trusts in the interests of the people, how he had killed the gas and fuel trust, the ice trust and made war upon the beef trust and rebating system.

Denies Corrupt Deals. "You have been told," said Hearst, "that I have made corrupt political deals, and I have made no deals at all. I have made no more deals with Murphy than I have with McCarran."

"If the lying newspaper proprietors and editors of this town were all put on oath before the grand jury there is hardly a political statement they have made during the campaign that they would not be compelled to retract and admit false in every particular."

"There has never been a more disgraceful spectacle in American journalism than this long line of anxious editors viciously howling their lies to heaven like dogs baying at the moon."

Belittles New York Editors. "There has never been a more pitiful sight than the crowd of New York newspaper proprietors, magazine editors and journalists, who are spotted from head to foot with the mire in which they have been wallowing, and who frantically follow Hearst's advice. 'Throw mud, throw mud; some of it may stick—and most of it has stuck to the throwers.'"

"They have told you that my newspapers were a trust, as if the people of New York were ignorant children and did not know what a trust was. A trust is a combination formed to raise the price of a product or limit the output. When I came to this city, I did not increase the price of newspapers, but I reduced it, and I not only cut the price, but doubled the output."

Declares His Sincerity.

"These frenzied papers and my political opponents tell you an insincere insincerity is to say something you do not mean, to profess something you are not willing to perform. How can my opponent honestly question my sincerity, when he himself only works for hire and serves either the corporations or the state, according to which engages him first or pays him best?"

"If any one of you, or all of you, should think that your welfare or the general welfare is best promoted by retaining the Republican party in power, I shall not complain, as long as, when you cast your vote, you at least say Hearst is a sincere man, and whether elected or not he will continue to do his best to serve the interests of his fellow-citizens."

WELCOMES GROTON BUGS

Hughes Glad to Get the Support of Democratic Grotonites.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal) Kingston, N. Y., Oct. 23.—Beginning his third and last campaign tour of the state, Charles E. Hughes came into Ulster county today and made two speeches here last night. He made a special plea for the Democratic vote, saying in this connection:

"The political cockroaches and croton bugs of the Democratic party are not those with whom the Republicans are ashamed to associate in this campaign. Continuing, he said:

"I want to see Albany clean and corrupt lobbying done away with. I want it so nothing can be accomplished except on a fair presentation of the case on its merits, and that no one is powerful enough or rich enough to get anything at Albany that is not given to all the people."

DEMOCRATIC QUARTERS SEIZED

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 23.—Democratic headquarters have been seized by dissatisfied Democrats opposed to Hearst's election who will wage an active anti-Hearst campaign throughout the state.

OPPOSE ENGLISH KHAKI FOR PHILIPPINE TROOPS

(Journal Special Service.)

Washington, Oct. 23.—The quartermaster's department of the army is disposed to take issue with Major-General Leonard Wood, commanding the Philippine division, as to the expediency of using English khaki, made up in the Philippines for soldiers' uniforms, instead of the regular army clothing manufactured in this country of American khaki. The officers of that department insist that American khaki is superior to the English article. These officers also say that to insure a regular supply of uniforms it would be necessary to establish a clothing factory in Manila, which would involve a large expenditure of money. They do not believe there would be a saving in cost if the uniforms were made in the Philippines.

The Reed-French Company Are Unloading Today Two More Cars of Their Famous $190.00 Pianos. (October 23.) A little more than two months ago we shipped to our Portland warehouses two cars of our famous little Pianos. We expected at the time that they would last through the October business, but they met with instantaneous success. No sooner had one Piano gone into a home than a neighbor would see it, and this would lead to another sale, and so it went—a little over two weeks the entire shipment was gone. We wired for two more cars and they are being unloaded today, and notwithstanding the goodness of the Piano, we are going to make the terms the same as before—$190.00. We do this because we feel it is good business. There is no advertising investment we can make which brings us such CERTAIN results as to put an instrument in a home at less than its actual worth. While the last $190.00 is the price—$5 per month. Referring to the same Piano, a lady customer recently said: "I can't imagine how such a GOOD tone can come from so LITTLE a Piano." A well-known music teacher of this city voluntarily said: "I have frequently been in the store during the sale, but I have never seen anything that could touch your piano at the price. If you cannot get in during the day phone us (Main 1828) and we will meet you in the evening." Reed-French Piano Mfg. Co. SIXTH AND BURNSIDE STREETS Our Phonograph parlors are open.
