

NORTHWESTERN IS COMING

Railroad Men Declare That Within Sixteen Months It Will Be Constructing Line Into Portland From Wyoming

That the Chicago & Northwestern Railroad company will be constructing a line into Oregon within the next 18 months is the opinion of a railroad man who is in a position to know. There is no other possible reason for the action of the stockholders at the annual meeting just held, in voting an increase of $10,000,000 in the capital stock.

All other extensions now planned by the company would not cost to exceed $10,000,000. This sum would be a bagatelle in comparison to the resources of the company. Its annual earnings are so large that after charging off 5 per cent dividends on the preferred and 7 per cent on the common stock last year it had $6,000,000 surplus left to put into new construction and betterments. In the face of these conditions its stockholders have just voted to stock the liability of money enough to build, if needed, 3,000 miles of railroad at $30,000 per mile, and have enough money left to equip the line. In railroad circles it is conceded that the Northwestern will shortly announce construction of its main line from Lander, Wyoming, through Boise and central Oregon to Portland. Many believe it will also seek an ocean outlet at Coos Bay.

The Northwestern was the pioneer framer line of the middle west, the first railroad in Chicago. Its progress has been steady, and this year had its directors so chosen, it could have paid 10 per cent dividends on its preferred stock and 14 per cent on the common. But Marvin Huggitt foresees the time, it is said, when any east and west line from Chicago to the Rocky mountains, must no longer depend upon a community interest with Harriman or Hill. To be certain of a fair degree of prosperity it must have a Pacific coast outlet, for here will be the ensuing 20 years originate the vast bulk

The young men expect to close their work about December 1, and will combine their efforts with those of the young women of the parish, who will give a bazaar during the latter part of November for the purpose.

PALMER COMPANY TO BUILD TIMBER SPUR

County court has awarded the contract for the construction of a new bridge over the Grand Ronde river, near the Palmer Lumber company of Nebraska, the contract price being $1,500. The bridge is to be of steel of 100-foot span. There will also be a railroad bridge over the river at this point.

INDICTMENTS FILED WITH ALBANY COURT

Elmer Wagstaff on Trial for Alleged Attempt to Poison His Wife.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Albany, Or., Oct. 23.—Circuit court department No. 1 convened in session in Albany yesterday morning, with Hon. George H. Burnett presiding. True information was filed against the defendant, Elmer Wagstaff, for assault with intent to kill on Chauncey Williams; Charles Kroehel of this city will have to answer for the selling of liquor to J. C. Munster and Johnson, in violation of the local option liquor law, and Edward Ferdue of Mill City for stealing cattle.

Youth is full of lofty ambitions and purposes, but there is a gradual narrowing down from year to year; new and untried opportunities for, and numerous unimportant trifles fill our lives and absorb our time until we lose sight of single aims and become thoughtless and indifferent to former high purposes; we are ruled by the minor happenings of the day and have not the strength to look beyond—unable to distinguish between the things of a day and those of all time.

Does the woman who spends her time embroidering unnatural looking roses on cushion tops think that she is spending her time worthily—the roses besides being unnatural looking, and therefore ugly, also fall in usefulness, as the embroidery makes them very uncomfortable as cushions—what can be the object in rendering valuable times to render a useful article useless?

I have seen pieces of embroidery that were works of art; that served their purpose by being beautiful—but they were not cushions and therefore were not useful.

Like Maggie Tulliver, I have always been opposed to cutting cloth into tiny bits in order to sew it together again.

Every wife must choose between being first a housekeeper and then a wife and mother, or first a wife and mother and then a housekeeper. It is impossible to fill all three positions equally well.

We are constantly making these decisions, but we make them unconsciously so that we do not realize having done so.

WORK IS RUSHED ON NEW MACHINE SHOPS

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) La Grande, Or., Oct. 23.—Work on the new big machine shops now being constructed at this place by the O. R. & N. is being rushed with all possible speed. The working force has been increased to nearly 100 men. The concrete foundation for the machine shops is done and the piers for the main building, 60x100 feet, will be finished this week.

Altogether there will be 11 big buildings in the mill yards, including the double-band sawmill, shops, dryhouse, planing mill, box factory, sash and door factory, etc. In getting this big enterprise under way the expenditures will be approximately $200,000.

ARRESTED FOR RUIN OF DOUBLE EAGLES

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Pendleton, Or., Oct. 23.—John Wildert, a former resident of this county and later poundmaster at Walla Walla, is under arrest at Everett, Washington, charged with assisting in the circulating and defacing of 150 gold pieces.

Wildert at one time owned several hundred acres of land in the Vanacote country, near here, and is estimated to be worth nearly $100,000.

For the School Girl.

Small little frocks are made of black and white broken checks trimmed in bands of black velvet or black silk and piping of bright red taffeta. Enough of the red is used to add a childish gaiety to the black and white.

Braids are even more popular than ever as trimming for the child's frock, and both soutache and flat braids are much used, though ordinarily these are applied in simple lines rather than in the complicated designs like for older folk.

Bands of velvet and silk are sometimes braided with an intricate design in soutache and applied to a plain tone wool stuff, but more often the soutache is applied in straight lines upon the material itself or upon contrasting cloth, silk or velvet.

THE SIMPLE LIFE FOR WOMEN.

"To be tender, to be kind, to be able to bear our trials bravely, to decide without prejudice, and to rise above suspicion; to look for the beautiful and good in the precious common things about us; to let the songs of inward trust and peace rise to our lips and permeate our lives—this is the simple life."

HUSBAND COMPLAINS WIFE TORE HIS SHIRT

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Eugene, Or., Oct. 23.—L. A. Ward of this city has instituted suit in the circuit court for divorce against his wife, Eva B. Ward, on the ground of cruel and inhuman treatment. Among various acts of cruelty alleged on the part of his wife, Ward says that during a fit of rage she tore his shirt off his back. He says she also refused to cook for him and his hired men and cursed and abused him. They were married in Portland in 1883.

SAVED HIS LIFE.

J. W. Davenport, Wingo, Ky., writes June 14, 1902: "I want to tell you my life. I was under the treatment of two doctors, and they told me one of my lungs was entirely gone, and the other badly affected. I also had a lump on my side. I don't think that I could have lived over two months longer. I was induced by a friend to try Ballard's Snow Liniment. The first application gave me great relief; the fifty-cent bottles cured me sound and well. It is a wonderful medicine and I recommend it to suffering humanity. Sold by Woodard, Clarke & Co."
