SEVERAL STATES HAVE MADE BID FOR EVENT

Champion Jeffries Maintains That Nothing Will Ever Tempt Him to Emigrate From His Farm Field to Engage in Pisticuffs Again.

By Manhattan, (Special Dispatch.)

New York, Oct. 22.—Along about November 1 we shall probably know whether or not we are to have any more auto races for the Vanderbilt cup in this country.

Last Races of the Year Will Be Run Off at Aqueduct—Then for the South.

(Journal Special Service.)

New York, N. Y., Oct. 22.—In less than a month from today, or to be exact, on the eve of November 15, the curtain will fall on the final day of 1934 racing for New York.

SPORTING COSSIP

After seven years of the fighting game, during which time he took part in more than 100 battles, "Kid" Good-man of Boston is to retire from the ring.

After viewing the Nelson-Gans fight pictures, New York and Boston ring followers are strongly divided.

Joe Thomas, the California water-wrestler, and Dick Fitzpatrick of Chicago are down for a 20-round bout before the Colma, California, Athletic club tonight.

The Chelsea Athletic club has arranged a promising card for its boxing night at the Chelsea Athletic club.

Since seeing the Swathmore game "Hurry Up" Post of Michigan thinks his side will beat Pennsylvania when they meet next month.

Minnesota's big football game this fall will be against Chicago and Carls.

Yale is to take up soccer football in the near future, but will not attempt to play any big games this fall.

And now they're trotting out Corbett and McGovern. Bring on Sullivan and Mitchell.

A Minneapolis writer calls Jim Jeffries a big bluff. But then, Jeffries is in Los Angeles and the writer is in Minneapolis.

Bill O'Loughlin, the simple who lives in Rochester, was mentioned as a candidate for senator, but as he did so in the Chicago post office, the Deal Club holds a fair chance to let him off and live down the embarrassing suggestion.

That a determined effort is being made to drive Danny Maher, the great American jockey, from the English turf is certain. That it will be unsuccessful seems to be equally certain.

A Minneapolis writer calls Jim Jeffries a big bluff. But then, Jeffries is in Los Angeles and the writer is in Minneapolis.

The makeup of the "Big Five" at present and as they will probably line up for their championship game, is as follows:

Yale—Overall, left end; Forbes, left tackle; Hockenberger, left guard; Giles, center; Ewin, right guard; Bigelow, right tackle; Stone, right halfback; quarterback; Knok, left halfback; Morse, right halfback; Roomba, fullback.

OREGON'S VARSITY WILL TRAVEL TOMORROW

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

United States of Oregon, Oct. 22.—Wednesday morning the Portland local the Oregon football team leaves for Idaho to engage in the contest between the two practices.

The game, it is thought here, will decide the championship of the north-west, as nearly every other team is out of the running on paper.
