SHARP ADVANCE IN WIRE SALS

STORM CAUSES MANILA ROPE TO MOVE UPWARD

Prices Go a Half Cent Higher on All Grades—Chicken Demand is Better—Hops Are Quiet on Account of Car Shortage.

Principal market features today: Manila rope is higher. Wire sals show sharp rise. Chicken market is improved. Hops are quiet on account of car shortage.

Manila Storm Causes Advance

An advance of 1/2 cent is quoted today in Manila rope. This action is directly due to the recent storm in the islands. Reports say that a very large damage was done to the rope industry by the attitude of shippers.

Chicken Market is Improved

While no price changes are at present shown in the chicken market the tone is considerably improved over what it was a week ago. Receipts are not so heavy and demand is growing.

Manila Storm Causes Advance

A very light trade continues in the hop market with the shortage in cars the principal thing against buying. Dealers say they have a few orders from the east, but the possibility of securing cars causes them to go slow in their purchases.

Jack Rabbit Season Opens

The season on jack rabbits opened today when Page & Son reported the first arrivals from the east. The first of the season. The rabbits were in good condition and were priced around $3 a dozen.

Grain Market is Quiet

Small houses now arriving and are quoted at $1.85 to $1.90 a box. Potatoes are holding steady, but dealers are afraid to try on account of the shortage.
