FEMININE JEALOUSY HELPED HARRIMAN WIN FIGHT ON FISH

Social Aspirations of Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish Causes Downfall of Husband.

AMBITIOUS TO SUCCEED MRS. ASTOR AS LEADER

Trouble Began With Prince Henry's Visit When Mrs. Vanderbilt Out-Generalled Her Rival—Millionaires Obey Their Wives in Voting.

(Hearst News Service.)

New York, Nov. 17.—Back of the ousting of Stuyvesant Fish as president of the Illinois Central last week by the forces back of E. H. Harriman lies a story of feminine ambition and jealousy in which woman's desire for social leadership and battle for social supremacy accomplished what millionaire captains of industry could not bring about by force of money or intrigue, and wrested the control of one of the most important railroad systems in the country from safe and honest management to place in the hands of a Wall street speculating clique.

Mr. Vanderbilt and Mr. Astor, partisans of their wives, and bringing their social strifes into the world of high finance, voted against the reelection of Mr. Fish at the lively meeting of the board of directors, and these two votes accomplished his defeat.

Punished for Wife.

Mr. Fish was placed in the position of being punished for his wife's attempt to gain some high social distinction.

Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish.

Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt.

Mrs. John Jacob Astor.

Prince Henry abroad and had entertained him at dinner on her husband's yacht, at which the kaiser himself was a guest of the Vanderbilts. It was but natural she should desire to entertain him again and she discounted and utterly spoiled Mrs. Fish's plans by forwarding an invitation to Prince Henry, and receiving an acceptance before Mrs. Fish had a chance to use the diplomatic measures necessary to obtain the royal visitor as a guest.

Mrs. Fish's Resentment.

Mrs. Fish deeply resented Mrs. Vanderbilt's actions and triumphs, and a coldness sprang up between the two women which has existed ever since.

In a tactful manner Mr. Harriman inspired the suggestion to Mrs. Astor and Mrs. Vanderbilt that the opportunity was present in the election of a president of the Illinois Central railroad, to strike a stunning blow at Mrs. Fish through her husband and pay off social scores.

It was then easy for the two wives to influence the action of their husbands, and make matters of finance subservient to those of a social nature.

Harriman Gets Even.

Harriman had a score of another kind to pay, and at the same time an opportunity to realize his ambition to gain control of the Illinois Central, which, with his other holdings would give him control of 23,000 miles of railway track, capitalized at more than $1,700,000,000.

Fish, as a director and member of the investigating committee of the Mutual Life Insurance company, had refused to obey Harriman's order to apply a coat of whitewash to the directorate of the company. He was forced off the committee, and since then Harriman's attitude toward him has been of the "not yet" nature.

Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt had met with Mr. Vanderbilt and Colonel Astor, representing as it were, their wives, younger and aspiring, helping to administer the punishment and incidentally giving Harriman a rich prize.

Mrs. Fish, next to Mrs. Astor, is the recognized leader of society. Mrs. John Jacob Astor wishes to succeed her aged mother-in-law as supreme head of society. Mrs. Fish looks to that position for herself. Therefore Mrs. Fish has done everything possible to block the promotion of the young Mrs. Astor, and the latter has let no opportunity pass to return the compliment.

Royalty Involved.

During the visit of Prince Henry to this country it was the ambition of Mrs. Fish to entertain him at Newport. She was anxious for the triumph to advertise the stability of her position as a leader of society, and she told her closest friends of her plan to entertain the brother of the emperor of Germany.

Do it Now! Don't Wait Until It's Too Late!

KEEP your body clean!

Most people are very neat and clean in their outward appearance, but how about the inside?

Are you clean inside?

And if not, how can you face the world with clean thoughts, clear intelligence, a fair, just, bright mind and get your full share of capacity for work and enjoyment?

* * *

Neglect of exercise, rich over-feeding and carelessness about stools, often leave the delicate internal mechanism in a nasty mess.

The small intestine is compelled to absorb the poison of decaying matter instead of wholesome nourishment.

The liver gets inactive; the bile doesn't "work off"; the eyes get yellow; the skin gets dead like putty and pale like dough, disfigured with boils, pimples, blackheads and liver-spots.

* * *

There's only one solution to the problem: Keep clean inside all the time. That's the answer.

If you can not diet, or keep your mechanism going by proper exercise, take Cascarets, the sweet, fragrant, harmless little vegetable tablets, that "act like exercise" on your bowels.

A Cascaret every night before going to bed will "work while you sleep" and make you "feel fine in the morning."

Take a Cascaret night and morning and break up the "constipated habit" without acquiring a "cathartic habit."

* * *

Cascarets are sold by all druggists, 10c, 25c and 50c. The 10c size trial box is a neat fit for the vest pocket or lady's purse.

Be sure to get the genuine with the "long-tailed C" on the box and the letters "CCC" on each tablet. They are never sold in bulk. n7td

Last Time Tonight.

Tonight is the last chance to see the Baker stock company in "Lost—Twenty-four Hours," that roaring farce that has been causing storms of laughter during the week. It's one of the best things the Bakerites have done. William Dills and Donald Bowles deliver pure, unadulterated fun for almost three hours, at the rate of a laugh every 10 seconds. Lillian Lawrence is seen as a beautiful but naughty adventuress. Last time tonight.

Last Time Tonight.

"As Told in the Hills" will be given at the Empire for the last time tonight. This thrilling and picturesque drama of the hills and plains has attracted large audiences all week. It is full of startling surprises and deals with the old emigrant trains, their wonderful adventures with the Indians and exciting escapes.

"The Middleman."

Beginning tomorrow matinee and continuing all week the Baker stock company will present "The Middleman," the great Henry Arthur Jones play which became famous in a few weeks at the time of the first production. John Sainpolis will play the old potter and Lillian Lawrence will be seen as the potter's daughter. The others of the company are well cast. Real blast furnaces and kilns will be seen on the stage. "A Man of Mystery," a thrilling drama with a detective for the hero, is the attraction at the Star. The Allen company will present it tonight, tomorrow afternoon and night for the last times. It is one of the most exciting detective plays ever written and shows the difference between the real detective and the detective of fiction. Next week the company will present the comedy-drama, "Polly and I," starting Monday night.

At the Grand.

Superior vaudeville is what the Grand aims to give its patrons and the current program is replete with first-class entertainers. The present bill will hold the boards until tomorrow night. The feature act is "Dollars and Cents," a musical comedy in one act with Mayme Taylor, Dorothy Daley and Harry Richards in the cast. These and others are on the program and the entertainment is cheerful in all respects. The headliner for next week will be Mr. and Mrs. Truesdail in "Aunt Louisa's Advice."

Pantages.

The hit of the show at this theatre is the exhibition of clever marksmanship of the Randalls; the Dancing Denoys trio have an act which is a distinct vaudeville hit; Fealey brothers have a clever acrobatic turn; Musical De Fay, an entertaining act, and George Sherwood, a singing act; Leo White sings "Is There Any Room in Heaven For a Little Girl Like Me?" and moving pictures conclude the performance.

MY FEE ONLY $10 For a Complete Cure Of Any Uncomplicated Case.

Men Only

DR. TAYLOR, The Leading Specialist.

A PHYSICIAN IS not entitled to his fee in advance. We are the only specialists in the West who conduct business on these principles.

Not a Dollar Asked for Until a Cure is Effected

This is not limited in time or conditional in character.

Varicocele

Varicocele interferes with local circulation and the "process of waste and repair throughout the organs involved. When neglected it brings total or partial loss of power and may even result in a wasting away of the organs themselves. I cure varicocele in one week. My method is absolutely painless, no surgical operation is involved, and there need be no detention from business. The lost tone and elasticity is restored, the weakened and dilated veins vanish and normal circulation and health are again established.

THERE IS A POPULar impression that specialists' fees are exorbitant. If such be true, we wish to state that it is not applicable to us. On the contrary, our very large practice and unusual facilities for treating men enable us to offer the very best treatment inexpensively.

Contracted Disorders

Every case of contracted disease I treat is thoroughly cured; my patients have no relapses. When I pronounce a case cured there is not a particle of infection or inflammation remaining and there is not the slightest danger that the disease will return in its original form or work its way into the general system. No contracted disorder is so trivial as to warrant uncertain methods of treatment and I especially solicit those cases that other doctors have been unable to cure.

So-Called Weakness

Perhaps the most prevalent of all ailments peculiar to men yields readily to the mild methods of treatment I employ.

"Weakness" is merely a symptom of local disorder, usually an inflamed condition of the prostate gland. This I overcome by a thoroughly scientific system of local treatment and the full and normal degree of strength and vigor is permanently restored.

Stricture

My treatment for stricture is entirely independent of surgery. A complete cure is accomplished without cutting or dilating. All growths and obstructions in the urinary passages are dissolved, the membranes cleansed and all irritation or congestion removed throughout the organs involved.

Specific Blood Poison

Until the perfection of my system of treatment, specific blood poison (commonly known as syphilis) was regarded as incurable, and the limit of medical aid was to keep the disease dormant by the use of strong mineral drugs. I positively drive the last taint of poison from the system. My cures are absolute. Every symptom vanishes to appear no more. I use harmless blood-cleansing remedies only, such as were never before used in the treatment of this disease.
