

Whistler, in whom it is quite marked. The foremost Japanese artist, Hishida, with whom Mr. Crane worked in New York, came in for a good share of attention and compliment.

THE week has been devoted largely to charity. Several interesting entertainments have been given and the younger set has had most of its attention taken up with preparations for the vaudeville entertainment for charity at the court house Friday.

The wedding at the First Congregational church Friday night of Miss Grace Britts and Harry S. McCracken was a simple and very pretty affair.

The monthly Patton Home tea to be given next Tuesday afternoon promises to be of special interest. Mrs. Charles W. King will be the hostess and assisting her in receiving will be Mrs. W. P. Olds, Mrs. Frank Young, Mrs. Richard Martin, Jr., and Mrs. S. W. King.

The art museum has entertained more visitors the past week to see the Douglas Crane portrait exhibit than the week previous. Much favorable comment has been made on his work and the lecture which he gave on "Modern Art" was especially enjoyed.

Paris at Home. We can sell you a winter hat that it would take an expert to tell from an imported article—a hat that represents faithfully the very latest Paris fashions.

What if it is made right here at home? You get just as much style, just the same colors and materials, and, if anything, better workmanship and more serviceability.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren E. Thomas and Mrs. and Mrs. Cecil E. Bauer. There was some vocal solo by Mrs. Rose, (J. Malcolm), "Where the Heart Is" (Oley Sparks); Miss Mona Lawler sang affectionately "Charity" (S. Glover), and "My Heart is Singing" (G. Sans Souci).

Miss Marian Dean of Boston, who was Miss Alice Benson's guest for a fortnight, left last Sunday to spend a week at Stanford and Berkeley.

The receiving day for the guests at the Hobart-Curtis has been changed to Monday afternoon, when they will be at home to their friends.

Mrs. William Henry Nunn entertained last Wednesday the Neighborhood Bridge club, in which she has several times substituted.

Mrs. Charles E. Runyon will entertain the Eight-Ten-Thirty club tomorrow evening.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

Notable among the week's entertainments was the five hundred party given by Mrs. W. C. McBride at her home on Multnomah street, Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. West, Miss Daisy Dear, Miss E. Scott, Mrs. McBride will be home to her friends the first and third Mondays of each month.

Mr. and Mrs. William Harschou of 297 Bellwood street entertained the Camella social club in a delightful manner last Wednesday evening.

Despite the inclement weather a large throng filled St. Lawrence hall on Wednesday evening last, the occasion being the third card social by the St. Lawrence Social club.

The Portia club was charmingly entertained Tuesday, November 13, at the home of Mrs. Ogilby Young, 551 Salmon street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Wood entertained at cards last Monday evening in honor of their fourth wedding anniversary.

The Sunflower club gave a surprise party for one of its members, Mrs. Montag, Wednesday afternoon.

Guiding Star council, Order of Pendo, gave a successful social whist party at its hall, Alisky building, on Wednesday evening.

A new club has been formed by one of the Sunday school classes of St. David's Episcopal church.

The Naughty Six club gave a pleasant dance last night at the Woodcraft hall on Tenth and Taylor streets.

Although the weather was very disagreeable a goodly number of the members of Lincoln-Gardner Woman's Relief Corps meeting club went to the home of Mrs. Lucinda Foster on Bladensburg street.

WEDDINGS.

Never did the auditorium of the Sunnyside Congregational church look more beautiful than it did last Wednesday evening for the marriage of Willard F. Tobey and Mrs. Lydia A. Staub.

The bride wore a dress of white silk crepe de chine and carried an arm bouquet of white carnations.

A goodly number of the Y. P. S. C. E. of the Sunnyside Congregational church of which Mr. and Mrs. Tobey are prominent members, stormed the home of the bride on the evening before the wedding and surprised her with a pillow shower.

The marriage of Miss Theresa Catherine Howard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Howard, to Guy Dupuy took place at the bride's home, 699 Alameda street, Wednesday evening.

The rooms were decorated with an abundance of Oregon grape, roses and carnations.

Miss Sarah M. Davis and Julius L. Sharon were married on Wednesday, at high noon, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Davis, at 1111 First street, Washington.

A quiet wedding was solemnized on Wednesday evening, when Miss Jennie Clark, only daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Clark and the late John Clark, became the wife of Dr. Clayton Seaman.

Elmer Howard and Miss Anna Wilson were married November 13 at 201 Eleventh street by Dr. J. Whitcomb Brougher, pastor of the White Temple.

Fashion Has Approved Our Display of Furs. Our display of fashionable furs embraces the newest and most approved styles. Fur Coats, Scarfs and Muffs for women and children.

We invite your attention to our display of antique and hammered brasses, in a variety of useful and ornamental articles, including Vases, Fern Dishes, Tobacco Boxes, Ash Trays, Candlesticks, etc.

German Novelty Clocks—the regular $1.25 kind—on sale tomorrow only at .55c

Eastern Outfitting Co. Washington and Tenth

THE STORE WHERE YOUR CREDIT IS GOOD

lavender silk and carried large white chrysanthemums. George Dubach was best man.

After a three weeks' trip to British Columbia, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Borden will be at home to their friends after December 25 at 810 East Tenth street.

A very pretty wedding took place Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. F. Davis, in Oswego, when their granddaughter, Francis Nida, became the bride of Lionel F. Goin of Hammond, Oregon.

The ladies of Grace Methodist church are to give a great bazaar in the church parlors on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings.

Invitations are out for the Oranco club's Thanksgiving party, which will take place Monday, November 26, at the new Woodman hall, East Sixth and Alder streets.

Mrs. F. W. Barry has just returned from an extended visit to her daughters in Costa Rica, Central America.

Mrs. J. P. Wager has returned from Cosmopolis, Washington, where she has been for several months.

Mrs. JOHN ROUNSEFELL

Mrs. Stephens and Her Guest. of Los Angeles, who is visiting her. A few friends came in for an autumn chafing dish supper.

The monthly Patton Home tea to be given next Tuesday afternoon promises to be of special interest.

The concert given by Josef Meredith Rosenkrantz, violinist, at the Helbig, December 10, promises to be a social event of some importance.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Higgins entertained the Wednesday Evening Five Hundred club at their home, 240 Fourth street, November 7.

Mrs. A. C. Pantan gave a pretty good and white luncheon of 46 covers Thursday afternoon, followed by an afternoon of bridge.

Mrs. JOHN RITTENHOUSE STEPHENS.

Mrs. C. H. Lewis entertained at luncheon Tuesday in honor of Mrs. Souding and her guests were all of the older

The informal dance at the Irvington club Friday evening was a pleasant event of the week.

The Young People's Bridge club met Monday afternoon with Miss Margaret Catlin and the prize was won by Miss Stott.

Mrs. Charles F. Adams left Thursday evening for San Francisco to visit her father. She was accompanied by Mrs. Charles Wesley Reed, who is returning home after a week's visit with Mrs. Adams.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Higgins entertained the Wednesday Evening Five Hundred club at their home, 240 Fourth street, November 7.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Goss returned Tuesday after an absence of five weeks on their wedding trip east.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Whyte Evans entertained at dinner recently Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Hoge, Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Rocky, and shows skillful work. The amusements will be interesting to young and old.

WEDDING AND VISITING CARDS. W. G. SMITH & Co. Washington Building

The young people of St. David's Episcopal church have begun rehearsals for the three-act comedy, "The Elopement of Ellen," which will be given at Burkhard hall, Wednesday, November 21.

Invitations are out for the Oranco club's Thanksgiving party, which will take place Monday, November 26, at the new Woodman hall, East Sixth and Alder streets.

Mrs. J. P. Wager has returned from Cosmopolis, Washington, where she has been for several months.

Mrs. F. W. Barry has just returned from an extended visit to her daughters in Costa Rica, Central America.

Mrs. J. P. Wager has returned from Cosmopolis, Washington, where she has been for several months.

Professor Eaton Dancing School. Class for ladies and gents Monday and Thursday evening at Arion hall, Phone East 1504.

COMING EVENTS.

One of the important social happenings of the coming week will be inaugurated at St. Lawrence hall, Third street, when the St. Lawrence bazaar will be opened.

Professor Eaton Dancing School. Class for ladies and gents Monday and Thursday evening at Arion hall, Phone East 1504.