NOW FOR A STARTLING SALE OF SHOES FROM THE MILLER STOCK OF CLEVELAND, OHIO

Mr. Lowit outdid himself on this mammoth shoe purchase, for of all the great bargains he secured on this buying trip this was the best of them all. Took a surplus of several thousand pairs of high-grade shoes at a price that was so low we can sell to other merchants and let them make a GOOD profit. But we won't do that. Golden Eagle snaps are for their CUSTOMERS, the people that are giving us their patronage and making possible the wonderful progress we are making. These shoes were sold in Chicago, by the Samuel Gans Co., who buy stocks all over the world and send them to their Chicago house to be sold at auction. The shoes sold to the Golden Eagle had never been shipped from Chicago; had never been unpacked from the cartons or shipping cases. NOT A PAIR OF ANYTHING BUT THIS SEASON'S GOODS IN THE ENTIRE LOT. They are goods that were on the road to Cleveland when the news of the impending failure of the Miller store caused their being held for later developments.
