TOWN'S AMUSEMENTS.

Hellig—The Sign of the Cross. The Sign of the Cross. The Sign of the Cross. The Sign of the Cross.

The Emporium, Albina's big new department store, has leased the balance of the block in which it is located, beginning with Saturday will have a frontage of 150 feet. The grocery department will have the north 50 feet, now being fitted up for that purpose, and stoves and light hardware will occupy the present grocery department. A large sign over the new acquisition reads: "Watch the Emporium grow," and if it continues in the future as it has expanded in the past, the watcher will be busy if he keeps up with the procession. It is a wonderfully active concern. Be sure to read its ad in tomorrow's Journal.

A jury was drawn in Judge Fraser's department of the circuit court this morning to hear the suit of the O. R. & N. Co. against W. R. Reed, to condemn a right of way between Troutdale and Bonseville along the Columbia river where the railroad company desires to straighten its line. It is contended by the O. R. & N. Co. that the property in controversy is worth only $1,000. Reed asks $5,512 for it. After the jury was sworn it was taken to view the premises. No testimony will be taken until after their return.

The New York State society will celebrate Evacuation day on Monday evening, November 26, at Ringier hall, Alder and Sixth streets. An interesting and pleasant program has been arranged by the executive committee. Judge M. C. George will deliver an address, and several musical numbers will be given. All New Yorkers, whether members of the society or not, are cordially invited to be present.

Postmaster Minto has received word that Station E, 326 Flanders street, will be established December 1. The furniture for this office is on its way from Indianapolis, Indiana. Whether it will reach Portland in time for the official opening of the station is uncertain. At the same time the furniture for Station E was shipped, the fittings for Station B, 232 and 234 Russell street, were started for Portland.

William Cline and G. P. Dougherty, en route to the Walla Walla penitentiary from Montevideo, in custody of Deputy Sheriff George Charlat, were locked up in the city prison last night until the departure of the train this morning. Cline is under sentence of four years for burglary and Dougherty is to serve five years for assault and robbery.

An address on missionary work will be given this afternoon by Miss Talthe Myers of Los Angeles at a special meeting of the Women's Foreign Missionary society of the Sunnyside Methodist Episcopal church. The meeting will be held at the residence of Mrs. Lizzie Oliver, 315 East Thirty-fourth street. Miss Myers will sail from Seattle for Chi Kung Shan, China, November 28.

Because the car containing its scenery was flood-bound in the sound country, the company which was to have presented "The Sign of the Cross" at the Hellig theatre last night was compelled to remain idle. The scenery and baggage arrived during the night, however, and it is announced that there will be a performance this evening.

The Alhambra club will give their second party of the season tomorrow evening at the Auditorium hall, on Third, between Taylor and Salmon streets. The patronesses are Mrs. William Flanagan, Mrs. W. N. Robinson, Mrs. William Brandes, Mrs. George Covach, Mrs. W. Kerrigan and Mrs. William Bowman.

It was exceedingly fortunate for G. W. Palmer, aged 69 years, that Patrolman Humphreys found him last night at Second and Burnside streets. Palmer was saturated with kerosene, and "nectar" and unable to navigate. When he was searched at the city prison $22.15 was found in an inside pocket of his coat.

Grace Sharatt has begun suit in the state circuit court for a divorce from D. M. Sharatt, charging desertion at Bimbe, Arizona, in February, 1906. They were married at Cleburne, Texas, in December, 1901, and have two children, aged 4 and 2 years, respectively, whose custody the mother asks.

Edward Dreger, aged 15 years, died at 8:30 o'clock last night at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Dreger, 566 Vancouver avenue, from diphtheria, after an illness of only two days. Dr. Wheeler, city health officer, who was notified, used antitoxin and quarantined the residence.

Articles of incorporation of the Home Security & Investment company were filed in the office of the county clerk this morning by J. A. Sloan, E. D. Ellis and E. Williams. They will deal in real estate, stocks, bonds and notes. Capital stock $5,000.

The Juvenile Improvement association will hold an adjourned meeting in Judge Fraser's court room from 8 to 10 o'clock. The annual election of officers will be one of the principal pieces of business transacted.

The annual meeting of the city board of charities will be held next Monday evening. Judge Webster's proposed bill for compulsory support will come up for approval.

Be sure to read the advertisement of the Emporium, Albina's big new department store, in tomorrow's Journal. It will interest you, no matter where you live.

Dr. Norris R. Cox delivered a lecture on Herculol, which was illustrated by stereopticon views made by the speaker during his visit to the islands. The lecture was given under the auspices of the Unitarian Women's Alliance. The subjects of the views were plantation scenes, buildings of Honolulu and private grounds of many of the rich planters.

One who visits the Sargent (formerly the Brown) hotel, at Grand and Hawthorne avenues these days is immediately impressed with the earnestness of the new proprietor, Nicholas F. Sargent, in his declaration that this shall be one of the best hotels in the city. Workmen are making important changes in all directions—tearing old things out and making other things new—and when the work is completed the Sargent will afford all that is comfortable, all that is pleasant, all that is convenient, all that is desirable in the life of the man or woman who covets that which is homelike and splendid in a human habitation. The Sargent will have one of the finest dining-rooms in the city, will be heated by steam throughout, possess fine baths, have hot and cold water in every room and private telephone in each apartment. No heart will crave anything that the Sargent will not supply.

CORNER SOLD AT FIFTH AND BURNSIDE

Other Real Estate Deals of Importance Announced Today.

Brooks & Kierman, with the assistance of I. G. Davidson, sold yesterday the southeast corner of Fifth and Burnside for $70,000. The lot fronts 88 feet on Fifth street and 100 feet on Burnside. The name of the purchaser is withheld for the present. The property is covered with old two-story frame buildings, which bring in very little revenue. T. Scott Brooks was the owner of the property.

The northeast corner of Sixteenth and Johnson streets was sold by J. D. Hennessy to Peter Taylor, for a consideration of $21,000. The property is now occupied by four modern two-story residences, that are paying a reasonable return on the purchase price. J. H. Fairbrook made the sale for Mr. Hennessy.

Block 18 in Highland was sold yesterday by I. G. Davidson to an out-of-town purchaser for $5,550. The block was the property of Marion Smith.

Hartman & Thompson, promoters of the Rose City Park addition, report that they are daily receiving dozens of applications for lots in their new addition. The property has not yet been platted and probably will not be for some time. Messrs. Hartman & Thompson are placing these applications for lots on file and will give the applicants the benefit of making choice selections.
