At a meeting of Albina camp No. 161, Woodmen of the World, in Hill's hall, Williams avenue and Russell street last night the following officers were elected for the ensuing term: W. W. McIntosh, consul commander; G. W. Peterson, adviser; lieutenant, John Van Zante, banker; F. C. Drews, clerk; J. Stevens, secretary; W. R. Thidman, assistant; H. Maasman, secretary; J. C. Jameson, manager, and J. P. Menefee, musician. The camp was recently incorporated and has purchased a lot on Russell street near Union street, which will be used for a hall. Construction work has already commenced, and four-fifths of the stock for the new building has been subscribed.

The Olive Branch Gospel mission, Mr. and Mrs. A. Wells, superintendents, 259 First street, conducts a mission home at 413 Hawthorn avenue, near Grand avenue. The mission is in touch with many poor and worthy families which it desires to remember on Thanksgiving and would be pleased to receive contributions from the generous-hearted for that purpose. The mission home is open at all times, and donations may be sent there, or they will be called for if word be sent where they may be found. The Gospel mission is open every evening.

Change of Route, Mount Tabor, Sunnyside and Morrison Street Cars.—Commencing November 25, 1906, the Mount Tabor and Morrison street lines will be operated in connection with each other. Cars will run from Mount Tabor direct to Twenty-seventh and Upstair streets (fair grounds) and return. On the same date the Sunnyside cars will run from Sunnyside to Twenty-fourth and Gilean streets (St. Vincent's hospital) and return. The Sunnyside evening trippers will run to Third and Yamhill, around the loop, as usual.

The suit of George W. Hazen to recover $3,385 from the United Railways company is being heard by Judge Fraser in the circuit court this afternoon. Hazen alleges that he was retained by the company as an attorney at law and real estate broker, and that the sum sued for is due him for services rendered. The company denies the liability. C. M. Idelman appears as attorney for Hazen. The United Railways company is represented by Attorney A. C. Emmons.

Charging desertion beginning in September, 1901, Genevieve Harris has begun suit in the state circuit court for a divorce from Leonard O. Harris. The litigants were married at Astoria, Oregon, in November, 1897, and have one child, Clifford, aged 8 years. Mrs. Harris states that her son is with his grandmother, Mrs. L. M. Gray. She asks to be given a divorce and the custody of the child.

Fifty pairs of European skylarks, imported to be turned loose in the vicinity of Portland by the Song Bird society, reached the city yesterday and today were given their freedom by C. E. Pringer, secretary of the society. The birds are noted as songsters and are famous in Europe for their habit of singing on the wing. They start their song as they rise, and sing until the song is lost in the distance.

How about that Thanksgiving suit? Did you notice that we were making to order suits of a very fine black unfinished worsted of a fine blue serge (regular $40 values) for only $30? Better take a look at the cloth, none better in the city; fit absolutely guaranteed or no sale. Armstrong, the Tailor, Raleigh Bldg., Sixth and Washington streets, upstairs.

RANCH WILL BE DIVIDED INTO BUILDING LOTS. Forty-Eight Acres Near Fairview to Be Placed on the Market Soon. The Anna B. Moller ranch of 48 acres, near Fairview, has been sold through the agency of C. C. Vaughn to Maria D. Curtis for $3,000. The tract will be sub-divided and put on the market. The Fairview extension of the O. W. P. line passes through the tract. Mr. Vaughn and associates are building a two-story brick, 190x100, at Fairview. The ground floor is to be divided into stores, except the corner room, in which will be located the Fairview bank. The second story is to be used as a hotel. R. M. Wilbur has sold to Medrick Liberty and Carl Jensen a lot 50x100 on the south side of Thurman, between Twenty-second and Twenty-third streets, price $2,000. The purchasers will immediately erect two residences on the property. The long-drawn-out controversy over the selection of the architect of the proposed Board of Trade building has been settled by the selection of Architect David C. Lewis. At a meeting of the Board of Trade Building association, held Tuesday evening, Mr. Lewis was given the commission. He has completed two plans, each providing for a structure to cost about $300,000. One of the plans is for a reinforced concrete and the other for a steel and stone structure. It is understood that the building committee of the board of trade is rather favorable to the reinforced concrete style of structure, and it is thought probable that that material will be used in its construction. The real estate transfers filed for record yesterday amounted to $28,494, the smallest total of any day for several months past. Seaside Sunday Excursions. The A. & C. R. R. will run an excursion to Seaside and return every Sunday at the round-trip rate of $1.50. Take advantage of the low rate and see the ocean. Tickets for sale during the week at 248 Alder street and at the union depot, Sunday morning.

SPECIAL GOES TO KELLY BUTTE

General Superintendent Cameron and Party Take Trip Over the Scenic Line.

NEW LUBRICATOR IS DECLARED A SUCCESS

No Accident Occurs to Mar Trip, Which Is Declared by Everyone to Be Screaming Success—Scenes at the Butte.

Running on right-of-way orders from General Traffic Manager Grimsamer, the first special over the Kelly Butte Railway & Navigation company's recently completed line to the Kelly Butte Open-Air Sanatorium, left the Oak street union depot at 2:30 p. m. yesterday amid much enthusiasm. The train consisted of a composite observation and buffet car and engine No. 1046 made by the Winton Motor works. General Superintendent Cameron, District Freight and Passenger Agent F. D. Hennessy, Corporation Counsel J. J. Fitzgerald and representatives of the press were guests of honor on the special. No accident occurred to mar the trip and the round trip was made in the fast time of two hours, considering the condition of the roadbed. All traffic was suspended over the road during the flight of the special, and although there was no open demonstration, it was plainly evident the crews of trains competing to take the sidings were much chagrined. A special feature of the trip of much interest to railroad men was the first trial on the coast of "Cream of Kentucky" boiler compound. Edward J. Harkins pronounced the mixture to be the best internal lubricant that has ever come to his notice.

"Hotel" Is Visited. Upon arrival at the terminus of the line, Station Agent Briggs and his assistants were in waiting to escort the dignitaries through the "sanatorium." A visit was paid to the "hotel," an imposing structure of reinforced concrete, constructed on lines of great beauty and simplicity. An inspection of the sleeping apartments followed and the "suites de luxe" called forth encomiums of praise from the visiting officials. The interior decoration of the building consisted principally of steel bars ingeniously interwoven into fantastic designs that give a highly pleasing effect.

Upon the advice of the "physicians" in charge of the resort the architect avoided large windows, as a soft, subdued light is regarded as most beneficial to the "patients." The culinary department is a model of beauty and the menu following for the evening repeat showed great cleverness on the part of the chef: Soup—Consomme de Farkino. Hors d'Oeuvre—Spiced Pork. Entree—Saute Potatoes. Roast—Salt Pork au Jus. Salad—Pig at Mayonnaise. Dessert—Schweissen Himm. Mango—Cafe Nere.

On the Avenue. The guests of honor were then escorted up the esplanade where the sojourners are wont to take their early morning and evening strolls. This avenue is of great beauty, being flanked on either side by majestic pine boards of over 15 feet in height and covered overhead by many-colored streamers of barbed wire.

At the end of the walk is located the Coliseum of Physical Culture. In this inclosure a modern revival of the Roman games is held daily. Hammering, throwing and rock breaking, however, are the principal pastimes indulged in by those under "treatment." The "exercises" are at all times under the direction of two overseers, who occupy specially constructed "offices" located on the parapet. After paying a visit to the rock crusher and gas plant, Superintendent Cameron and party boarded the special for the return trip. The run to Portland was made in quick time. Superintendent Cameron was so impressed by his visit that he has announced his intention of prevailing upon all those who intend to visit the "sanatorium" to lengthen their vacations to not less than 30 days.

DECISION WILL BE MADE TONIGHT

Fate of Building Trades Council Will Be Decided at Meeting.

The Federated Trades council will decide tonight whether or not to go ahead with the reorganization of the Building Trades council. Answers from the various unions directly affected will be received. If these answers are favorable the Federated Trades council will probably put a paid organizer in the field at once and endeavor to build up a building trades organization that will be stronger than any Portland has had in the past.

After tonight the Federated Trades council will not meet again for two weeks. A week from tonight is the date set for the labor political convention at
