

THE busy season is truly at hand and the busier society is kept with charity affairs the more energy it seems to have for its own amusement.

songs easily won favor. Melvin Dodson in several humorous impersonations, Robert McCracken and Miss Frances Towles in "A Bughouse, in one act," Louis Bruce in an exaggerated illustration of some number of tragic portents, all won their laughs.

been discontinued for the present that the sum of the expenses may be devoted toward the same end. It is said that when they are resumed again they will be open to members only, but this plan is not yet decided.

The usual interest is manifested in the Thanksgiving football game between Multnomah club and the University of Oregon. On that day Multnomah field is a more brilliant scene of color than on any other day of the year.

The Eight-Ten-Thirty club was entertained Monday evening by Mrs. Charles E. Runyon. Mrs. W. C. Francis and Dr. C. B. Brown were the prizes at five hundred and Mrs. C. H. Brown received the consolation prize.

Miss Grace Elliott is spending a fortnight in Oakland as the guest of Miss Grace Burrill. The two girls spent many delightful months on the continent together.

Mrs. George C. Flanders entertained at dinner Wednesday evening in honor of Bishop and Mrs. W. King. Her other guests were: Dr. and Mrs. A. A. Morrison, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart B. Lathrop, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Lang, Mr. and Mrs. J. Couch Flanders and W. D. Wheelwright.

One of the largest and most delightful affairs of last week was the large bridge party given by Miss Martha Hoyt Thursday afternoon. There were 17 tables of bridge and the prizes were won by Miss Louise Flanders and Mrs. Morton Insley.

The Los Angeles papers speak of Miss Nina Jones, who is entertaining her cousin, Chester Murphy, of this city, as the popular and charming daughter of Mr. Louis M. Potter.

The reception given Monday evening at the Young Women's Christian association rooms in honor of Mrs. W. J. Honeyman, the retiring president, was largely attended by those who have been the motor cars of the association.

On Wednesday evening the Present Day club held its first semi-annual report of the club year. It was a unique affair from start to finish. The scene of the festive occasion was the basement of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. A. Laine's attractive home on East Ash street.

Twenty-five women enjoyed a unique afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. W. S. Pratt in Corvallis Wednesday. The idea was to introduce all the comical papers of the auxiliary for conversation.

Mrs. W. H. Churchill entertained the Ladies Auxiliary to the N. A. L. C. at her home on Corbett street Wednesday evening. A short program was given after which a dainty supper was served.

The girls of the younger set lent their aid as ushers and easily distinguishable by their French maid attire. They were Miss Marion Jackson, Miss Margaret Morrison, Miss Josephine Smith, Miss Helen MacQueen, Miss Margaret Montgomery, Miss Leslie Knapp, Miss Genevieve Thompson, Miss Carolyn Burns, Miss May Montgomery, Miss Liza Wood and Miss Rhoda Felling.

There is much interest on both sides of the river in the card tournament planned for next Tuesday evening at the Irvington club. Tables will be arranged for bridge and five hundred and there are a number of parties being formed for tables as is the custom in these tournaments.

Mrs. J. B. Montgomery entertained at dinner Thursday for Bishop and Mrs. Scadding. American Beauty roses were used in decoration. Covers were laid for Mrs. Montgomery, Bishop and Mrs. Scadding, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Burrell, Mr. and Mrs. James Laidlaw, Mrs. J. B. Montgomery, Mrs. W. J. Montgomery, General John Vancou, Mrs. Greenley and Harry Montgomery.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Fielescher and their daughter, Miss Flora, left Tuesday for New York to be gone for an indefinite period. Miss Fielescher will continue her voice studies throughout her stay, with her instructor, Mrs. Imogen Harding Brodie, who is studying for four months in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Fielescher and their daughter, Miss Flora, left Tuesday for New York to be gone for an indefinite period. Miss Fielescher will continue her voice studies throughout her stay, with her instructor, Mrs. Imogen Harding Brodie, who is studying for four months in New York.

Fortland lodge, No. 109, Fraternal Brotherhood, gave a successful dance Wednesday evening, November 14, in its new quarters in the Knights of Pythias hall, on Tenth and Alder streets.

Mrs. J. William Netherton gave a very enjoyable afternoon on Friday at her home, 566 East Flanders street. Covers were laid for 14 guests. Those present were: Mrs. I. J. Reader, Mrs. S. J. Burns, Mrs. D. C. Shearer, Mrs. O. J. Gould, Mrs. W. L. Gardner, Mrs. E. R. Almy, Mrs. D. G. McLennon, Mrs. T. Ellis, Mrs. M. Fannon, Mrs. L. J. Hicks, Mrs. George W. Joseph and Mrs. A. B. Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Emery Haney.