DOUGLASS' WISDOM

Concludes After Fifty Years of Flattery He Had Two Years of Cussing Coming, Anyhow—Drops Into Politics.

(Washington Bureau of The Journal.) Washington, Dec. 1.—Senator Depew, the only man who has been completely restored to health, sat in his library in dinner dress this evening sipping his after-dinner coffee and discussed his waning popularity.

"For 50 years that was on the stump in politics, beginning with the campaign of 1856, I had nothing but praise and flattery from the press. For the last two years I have had nothing but unlimited abuse. I am curious to know how long it will take for the abuse to reduce the gratification and swelling of the head induced by 50 years of praise. I am conscious of much reduction already, considering that the forces are operating in the ratio of 50 to 2."

Roosevelt in 1906. Depew discussed political questions. He said the feeling of unrest was growing. Hughes was the only man who could have beaten Hearst. Roosevelt is the only man the Republicans can certainly elect in 1908. The people trust him to carry out reforms and the conservative element is not likely to be elected on a radical platform.

Depew said Roosevelt was honest in his declaration not to run in 1908, but there would be conditions under which he could not refuse.

Depew favored an inheritance tax. "People want it," said he. "When Sir William Harcourt put through the inheritance tax in Great Britain he was criticized for taking from the portion of widows and orphans. Harcourt replied there were lots of people willing to take the inheritance tax." An income tax, however, Depew said, was different. The supreme court had declared it unconstitutional and congress would be slow to pass such a law in the face of the court's decision.

Depew said he favored a Philippine tariff.

SECRETARY TAFT TO VISIT PHILIPPINES SOON

(Special Dispatch by Leased Wire to The Journal.) Washington, Dec. 1.—It is the intention of Secretary Taft as soon as the approaching short session of congress shall have been concluded, to again visit the Philippine islands. Of all the great work Secretary Taft has had to do since he became secretary of war that relating to the Philippines is nearest to his heart. He believes thoroughly in the islands, in the people and in the future. His idea is that in a comparatively few years they will be a source of great pride to the people of the United States. He has been the cause which has caused him to put aside the opportunity to don the silk and ermine of a justice of the supreme court of the United States, thus sacrificing, for the time at least, the ambition of his life.

His trip to the Philippines next spring will be made to enable him to be present at the opening of the Philippine executive assembly.

Charcoal Kills Bad Breath.

Disagreeable Odor Arising From Indigestion or From Any Habit of Indulgence, Can Be Instantly Stopped.

Sample Package Mailed Free. Other people notice your bad breath where you would not notice it at all. It is nauseating to other people to stand before them and while you are talking, give them a whiff or two of your bad breath.

Sometimes you have it in the morning, that awful sour, bilious, bad breath. You can stop it at once by swallowing one or two Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges, the most powerful gas and odor absorbers ever prepared.

Sometimes your meals will reveal themselves in your breath, when you talk with you. "You've had onions," or "You've been eating cabbage," and all of a sudden you belch in the face of your friend. Charcoal is a wonderful absorber of odors, as every one knows. That is why Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges are so quick to stop all gases and odors of odorous foods, or gas from indigestion.

Don't use breath perfumes. They never conceal the odor, and never absorb the gas that causes the odor. Besides, the very fact of using them reveals the reason for their use. Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges in the first place stop for good all sour breath and belching of gas, and make your breath pure, fresh and sweet, just after you've eaten. They do not turn your face away from you when you breathe or talk; your breath will be pure and fresh, and besides your food will taste so much better to you at your next meal. Just try it.

Charcoal does other wonderful things, too. It carries away from your stomach and intestines, all the impurities there dissolved together, and which caused the bad breath. Charcoal is a purifier as well as an absorber. Charcoal is now by far, the best most easy and mild laxative known. A whole boxful will do no harm; in fact, the more you take the better. Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges are made of pure willow charcoal and mixed with just a faint flavor of honey to make them palatable for you, but not too sweet. You just chew them like candy. They are absolutely harmless.

Get a new, pure, sweet breath, freshen your stomach for your next meal, and keep the intestinal in good working order. These two things are the secret of good health and long life. You can get all the charcoal necessary to do these wonderful, but simple things by getting Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges. We want you to test these little wonder workers yourself before you buy them. So send us your full name and address for a free sample of Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges. Then after you have tried the sample, and been convinced, go to your druggist and get a 25c box of them. You'll feel better all over, more comfortable, and "cleaner" inside.

Send us your name and address today and we will at once send you by mail a sample package, free. Address: A. Stuart, Co., 60 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

ONLY FOURTEEN YEARS OF AGE, BUT A TRAMP

Police Take Into Custody Youth Who Tells Very Pathetic Story.

Charles Saunders, only 14, but a wanderer for the past five years, was taken into custody last night by patrolmen Roberts at the east side depot. The boy had just reached Portland after walking from Hillsboro. His begrimed, muddy appearance and the straw hamper he carried over his shoulder attracted the attention of the patrolmen. After being taken to headquarters, Captain Slover ordered the youth taken to the detention home until the juvenile court took some action in the case.

Saunders tells a pathetic story. His father was burned to death when the boy was still a child in arms, and shortly after his mother suffered a stroke of paralysis. He was raised in Woodburn, Oregon, and when his mother died, five years ago, he was compelled to make his own way in the world. Since that time he has worked with various families throughout Oregon and Washington for his board and small wages.

"I intended to go to eastern Oregon," said the lad, "to work on a sheep ranch so I could make enough money to get an education."

His desire for an education will be gratified, as it is expected some arrangement will be made whereby he can attend the public schools.

UNIFORM BOOKKEEPING FOR RAILROAD SYSTEMS

(Special Dispatch by Leased Wire to The Journal.) Washington, Dec. 1.—Officials in the accounting departments of the railroads, with representatives of the State Railway Commissioners' association, will be in Washington most of next week in conference with the chief statisticians of the commission. The purpose of the commission will be to arrive, if possible, at an agreement as to the method of attaining uniformity in the bookkeeping and accounting methods of the railroads and publicity of records. The commission could hardly have larger powers than the law gives it. To enforce these provisions Henry C. Adams, of the University of Michigan, was engaged as chief statistician and has since been formulating plans for co-operation with the railroads in agreeing on accounting systems.

MARRIED TO PROMOTE AMBITIOUS CAREER

(Special Dispatch by Leased Wire to The Journal.) New York, Dec. 1.—Mrs. George L. Hunter, who sued for divorce last spring because her husband, a well-known New York literary man, married her to form a "partnership of ambition," is finally from her platonic alliance. Justice Giegerich in the supreme court has signed a permanent decree in her favor, and now the woman who for five years was a wife in name only can marry for love if she chooses.

The testimony was the most remarkable ever heard in the supreme court. After five years of married life Mrs. Hunter does not know what reciprocated love is, for her husband always sneered at the world, and referred to the love state as worldly and gross. He said he married her only because he wanted to mount the ladder of fame with her, to be a great man himself, and to see her a great musician and artist.

EPISCOPAL CATHEDRAL TO COST TWO MILLIONS

(Special Dispatch by Leased Wire to The Journal.) Washington, Dec. 1.—Henry Vaughan, of Boston, and G. F. Bodley, of the Royal Academy, England, architects, who have been chosen by the diocese of Washington to make plans for the great national Episcopal cathedral, are in Washington in conference with Bishop Satterlee and the authorities of the Episcopal church. The architect visited today with Bishop Satterlee the cathedral ground, as they wished to get in touch with the surrounding and the local color before making suggestions as to the building. Even if the plans should be started at once, they will not be completed before six months at least and the work will be begun as soon thereafter as sufficient funds are obtained. No limit has been set as to cost, but it is expected the amount will exceed $2,000,000.

ELLERS' PIANO IS PUBLIC'S GAIN

PRESENT SACRIFICIAL SALE MEANS BIG SAVING TO PIANO BUYERS—LASTS ONLY TILL NEW SALESROOMS ARE COMPLETED—RAPID HEADWAY BEING MADE WITH IMPROVEMENTS.

Hundreds of Piano Seekers Secure Remarkable Bargains—Magnificent Instruments of Many Leading Makers Direct From the Factories Being Sacrificed at Wholesale Cost Because of Delay in Securing New Premises—Eilers Piano House Has No Place to Put Them—Entire $140,000 Stock to Select From, Giving Range of Choice Which Will Meet Desires of Every Prospective Purchaser—Cut of $100, $150, Yes, and in Some Instances as Much as $200 on Some of the Fine Instruments—Chickering, Webers, Kimballs and Other Equally Well-Known Lines Included—Tremendous Business Will Be Done in Next Few Days.

A glance at the new quarters of Eilers Piano House, at Park and Washington streets, as one passes the large new plate-glass windows, shows that the work of remodeling is being accomplished with the greatest haste. A few days ago the carpenters had full sway, but these have practically completed their most important work and have given way to the plasterers, electricians, painters and decorators.

A better idea is now gained of the extensiveness and completeness of the improvements as the work progresses. The elevator shaft has reached a point in its construction where some conception is had of the size of the possible elevator which is to be installed, which will take the patrons of the store to the commodious second floor. This car will be as large as an ordinary room, of the latest and safest type, and up to the minute with every improvement in that line.

On all three floors—basement, first and second—the mechanics are now fast bringing order out of chaos, and it will not be long before the firm will at last have its new quarters ready for entire occupancy, after months and months of delay and setbacks.

But the sale of pianos at factory cost will be continued only while this chaotic condition exists. There is not yet enough available space to house the new instruments arriving almost every day in cartoned lots from Eastern makers. These new pianos were contracted for months ago, and there was of course nothing else to do but accept them and dispose of them at the best possible advantage. But one object has been aimed at, in this sale, and that is to keep the pianos moving. Realizing that such a condition is not desirable for the past couple of weeks in particular, without unusual inducements, and appreciating that the arriving pianos from the east are accumulating in large numbers, it was decided to get out all profits and sell at absolute cost until present adverse conditions were overcome.

Such bargains as are offered now come but very few times in a lifetime. Now and then, here and there, pianos of somewhat uncertain reputation are sold at apparently ridiculous prices, but it is not often that one can visit the leading piano house in the city and select from an entire stock, selecting either down town or at the wholesale warehouse any one of a number of standard makes and buy the instrument at just what it cost at the factory—plus the bare addition of freight—and further than that, buy it on practically any terms they wish to make.

Eilers Piano House, during this Emergency Sale will grant almost anything in the shape of terms—a few dollars down and a few dollars a month—as low as 45 or 50 on some instruments, and as low as $10, $12, or $15 on some of the high grade most desirable lines, and when it is remembered that these terms prevail on prices which represent absolute factory cost, it can readily be seen that the opportunity is a most extraordinary one.

Hundreds of pianos have been sold during the past week—many of them for Christmas presents—many to those who had not thought of purchasing for a year or more, but who could not resist the temptation to take advantage of these most remarkable inducements. And it is safe to predict that the next few days will witness even more sensational selling, for those who have already bought are telling their friends. But this is exactly what Eilers Piano House desires, for there is not room to house another instrument as the situation stands, and the constantly arriving shipments must be taken care of as they come along.

So every prospective piano buyer should make it a point to drop in and see what a favorable chance this really is to secure a fine piano for little money. But do not delay. The sale will end the very day that the improvements are completed, and that day is fast drawing near. So by all means be prompt. 333 Washington street is the new number of the coming bigger, better and busier Eilers Piano House.

SPORT CARD

rious parts of the union will take place upon the athletic grounds of the Jamestown exposition, forming the greatest aggregation of such events ever held before in one place. Every conceivable form of athletic sports will be embraced in the schedule of the exposition, an effort will be made to have the annual game of football between Annapolis and West Point played on the exposition grounds next year, and with the hope of accomplishing this project the athletic field has been so laid off that it will make an admirable checkerboard.

The fact that the national committee of athletic games is composed of men drawn from every great college and university in this country, including Annapolis and West Point played on the exposition grounds, has already assured the participation in the athletic contests by all of these great institutions, with a strong probability that the army and navy football teams will consent to have the annual struggle on the exposition grounds.

CURIOUS WINGS DAILY CLIPPED

Mismatched Couples Implore the Courts to Grant Them Legal Separation.

ALL SORTS OF CHARGES MADE IN COMPLAINTS

Desertion, Infidelity, Cruelty, Personal Indignities and Numerous Other Grounds Mentioned in New Suits Filed—One Decree Granted.

Bowman W. Dennis was granted a divorce from Vesta C. Dennis yesterday afternoon by Judge Sears because of desertion, beginning in March, 1904. The couple were married at Laingsburg, Michigan, in October, 1881. Dennis testified that he and his wife never lived peacefully, but kept their home for 23 years on account of their daughter. When the daughter was grown the wife sought relief in desertion from the bonds that had galled her for so long. Attorney W. A. Cleland appeared for Dennis.

Viola J. Brown filed suit for a divorce from T. E. Brown, alleging infidelity, in a complaint filed yesterday by Mrs. Brown as co-respondent. The plaintiffs were married at Eagle Creek, Oregon, in December, 1902. The desertion is alleged to have occurred in November, 1905. Mrs. Brown asks that she be allowed to resume her maiden name, Viola J. Arledge. E. S. J. McAllister and Robert Upton appear as her attorneys.

Mary J. Riley in a complaint for divorce charges William J. Riley with cruelty. She states that he cursed and abused her and neglected to provide for her. She charges that in July, when she was seriously ill, her husband left her alone without care for four days. She states that her husband has property in this city valued at $18,000, and asks $5,000 permanent alimony. The plaintiffs were married in this city in March, 1903. W. Y. Masters appears as attorney for Mrs. Riley.

Cruelty and personal indignities are the grounds for the divorce in the case of Wallace E. Lacy and Mrs. E. L. Lacy. Lacy is preparing for their annual memorial service, to be held at the Elks' temple. The unveiling of the memorial tablet to the late Sol Tichner, who during his life was one of the most active and enthusiastic members of the lodge, will be the most impressive feature.

BAKER CITY ELKS TO HONOR SOL TICHNER

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Baker City, Or., Dec. 1.—Members of Baker lodge No. 534, B. P. O. E. are preparing for their annual memorial service, to be held at the Elks' temple. The unveiling of the memorial tablet to the late Sol Tichner, who during his life was one of the most active and enthusiastic members of the lodge, will be the most impressive feature.

Judge William Smith of the circuit court will make the address at the unveiling of the tablet. The memorial address will be delivered by Hon. J. C. McCue of Astoria, one of the most brilliant speakers in Oregon Elksdom. Judge W. S. Levens, exalted ruler of the local lodge, will preside.

MONEY IN PHEASANTS.

Thousands of the Beautiful Birds Are Now Imported Yearly.

"One proof of the fact that there is no country under the sun with as many people of wealth as ours," said the same fancier, "is found in the large number of English pheasants imported to this country. The number was 150,000, and these were all for table use. Last year an increase of about 10 per cent in this number was reported. The pheasant is a table delicacy in England, France, Germany and Belgium they are reared by the thousands.

"In America breeding is but in its infancy. In 10 years, however, we may be producing enough to supply the local market. The pheasant will be cheaper than now. The cheapest one can be purchased now is about $2, and from that figure up to $10 or $15 is demanded.

"The English and the Mongolian pheasants are game birds, and an increasing demand for them for preserves of clubs and wealthy owners of country seats is noted. We have one bird in the state, the quail, which comes from a few seasons ago, and has to import many in order to fill all his orders.

"The pheasant is a beautiful bird and by no means difficult to rear or breed. Their plumage is in good demand for millinery purposes. Taxidermists pay as high as $8 and $10 for the skins of the best marked birds.

"There are varieties of pheasants that are purely ornamental. They appear neither to the cook nor to the hunter. "Pheasants cost most in the winter months. About September 1 the breeders add 10 per cent to his price. This holds good until April, when they quit laying. The pheasant is as hardy and as easily reared as the turkey, but they are not domesticated birds. With the pheasant one is dealing with a bird that is still subject to the laws of the jungle and exhibits many of the instincts of the wild life from which they are really but a few generations removed. They are but cousins to the domestic fowl and in habits are more like the wild grouse and quail. The longer the breed has been in captivity the more docile and the better layers they are.

Not "22." From the Ladies' Home Journal. They took him to the sanatorium moaning feebly: "Thirty-nine, thirty-nine." "What does he mean by that?" the attendant inquired. "It's the number of buttons on the back of his wife's new frock," the family doctor explained.
