CLEVER ATHLETES SPORTING GOSSII ON THE COAST

Fashion About the Speedy Men of Pacific.

SPRINTING RECORD IS GRADUALLY LOWERING

mprovement of Dan Kelly Since the Pacific Coast League Magnates Will Lewis and Clark Fair Has Been Marked-Bert Kerrigan Is Easily the Best High Jumper on Slope.

The recent action of the Amateur Athletic union in accepting the record of 9 3-5 seconds for the 100-yard dash by Dan J. Kelly, the Oregon sprinter, has caused considerable comment in the athletic world, particularly in the east, where there seems to be a disposition to discredit such a performance and to deprive the west of the glory that follows the attainment of a world's record, says J. R. Hickey in the San Francisco Chronicle. Admitting that the conditions under which Kelly ran his 100 yards were not the most desirable, it must be granted that the result is the culmination in recent years of a gradual development of sprinters on this coast, and the announcement of such fast time is not surprising, although the ability of the sprinter might have been questioned.

Some 25 years ago a great deal of interest arose out of the running of Bob Haley, a member of the Olympic club, who was the first amateur on this coast to cover the 199 yards in less than 19 seconds. A few years later Victor Schifferstein took a foremost position among the local sprinters, and while at St. Louis, under the colors of the Olympic club, he was credited with 9 4-5 for the 199.
