

The One Medicine Old People Need

MR. JOSIAH ZEITLIN.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

Is an absolutely pure, gentle and invigorating stimulant and tonic, builds up the nerve tissues, tones up the heart, gives power to the brain, strength and elasticity to the muscles and richness to the blood. It brings into play all the vital forces, it makes digestion perfect and enables you to get from the food you eat the nourishment it contains. It is invaluable for overworked men, delicate women and sickly children, as it is a food already digested. It strengthens the system, is a promoter of good health and longevity, makes the old young and keeps the young strong. Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey contains no fuel oil and is the only whiskey that is recognized as a medicine. This is a guarantee. Sold by all druggists and grocers, or direct, in sealed bottles only; never in bulk. Price $1. Insist on the genuine and see that the "Old Chemist" trade-mark is on the label. Beware of red-labeled bottles and spurious malt whiskey substitutes offered for sale by unreliable dealers. They are positively harmful and will not cure. Medical booklet and doctor's advice free. Duffy Malt Whiskey Co., Rochester, N. Y.

Mr. Josiah Zeitlin, 101 years old July, 1906, lives with his daughter, Mrs. Isaac Krinsky, Brooklyn.

Mr. Zeitlin was a prominent business man in his native land, Poland, many years. In 1882 he retired and came to this country.

He says that Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey has prolonged his life, and is the medicine to restore health and vigor in old people.

He writes: "Although I was 101 years old on July 2d last, I still feel that I am good for several years. I was born at Loda, in Poland, and after a lengthy business life in the old land came to this country in 1882 to reside with my daughter. I have used Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey for many years and find it very beneficial. It invigorates and gives me strength. I feel that it has helped me to live 101 years. It seems to be the very medicine old people need to restore their failing health and strength." —Josiah Zeitlin, 134 Lexington Avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y.—August 19, 1906. Mr. Zeitlin is one of the many thousands of men and women throughout the United States who owe their vigor, strength and long life to the great Tonic Stimulant and Renewer of Youth, Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, and join in extolling its merits.

NO NEW JAP TREATY

President Announces That No New Agreement Is Contemplated—Perkins Insists That It Is, However.

(Journal Special Service.) Washington, Dec. 7.—Assistant Secretary of State Bacon, while in the house this morning after a conference with the president, announced that no new treaty or modification of the treaty with Japan was contemplated. He said that the president wished the announcement made as strong as possible. He said that the president also wished to state that the visits of Ambassador Aoki were not for the discussion of possible changes of the present treaty.

Senator Cullom, senate chairman of the foreign affairs committee, says that a new treaty with Japan is not contemplated. Although official denials continue to be made of the report that preliminary steps have been taken looking to a new treaty between Japan and the United States covering the immigration question and disposing of the San Francisco school question, Senator Perkins comes forward with an admission of the truth of a story which is the sensation of the day and is the subject of universal comment.

Perkins was seen by a correspondent after he had called to pay his respects to the president. He said:

Roosevelt's Intentions. "The object of President Roosevelt is to get the Japanese government to agree to the restriction of coolie labor immigration. He wants to take the sting out of the imaginary grievances under which Japan is smarting and soothe the sensitive orientals preparatory to making overtures for a new international agreement which should give us the advantage we particularly desire in the way of restricted immigration. I am satisfied that such negotiations are being conducted, and I trust they will result to the advantage of both countries. I do not see how Japan can object to the exclusion of coolies, for she says they are needed in Manchuria, and we do not want and will not have them here at all.

"Regarding the message, its author being the chief executive, I have to speak from the national standpoint. He means to do right and I feel assured that the trouble will be adjusted satisfactorily."

President Conservative. The senator remarked that the president, who had a confidential talk with him, was much more conservative in his utterances than at their last previous meeting. "He desires to dignify labor and does not favor cheap labor, whether coolie or other," said Senator Perkins.

A senator from a mountain state talked with frankness today regarding the contentions at San Francisco on the Japanese question. He would not permit his name to be used, "because careful statesmen just now do not want to pose as alarmists," he said. But he made it plain that the people in his state do not regard the question as merely a local incident in California.

BIG BUILDING WILL BE BUILT

Eight-Story Structure to Be Erected on Sixth Between Washington and Stark.

The syndicate of Seattle capitalists, headed by R. M. Kinnear, who recently purchased the 50-foot lot just north of the Oregon Trust & Savings bank on Sixth street, are preparing to erect an eight-story steel frame business block on the site. The lot was sold to the Seattle purchasers by Grindstaff & Schalk for $100,000. It is now covered by frame buildings. It is announced that a firm of Seattle architects is preparing the plans for the new building and that work will begin on it about April 1. Color is lent to the report that the structure will go up from the fact that the owners have refused to consider any proposition to lease the present buildings for a period of longer than three months. It is further said that the work of tearing out the old frame houses will begin about March 1.

ATHENA GETTING RID OF DEBTS RAPIDLY

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Athens, Ga., Dec. 7.—Athens has levied a 3-mill tax for the ensuing year. The tax the past year was 6 mills. It is hoped this will greatly decrease the present bonded indebtedness of the city, which is now $24,000. A meeting will be held Saturday for the purpose of levying a school tax. It is being urged that a 10-mill tax be levied. With a 15-mill school tax during the past few years the district has reduced its bonded indebtedness from $7,000 to $200, and its floating indebtedness from $4,000 to $2,000.

TESTIMONY GIVEN IS DAMAGING

Convict Jess Hall Gives Evidence Against Chick Houghton in Larceny Case.

DECLARES HE SAW HOUGHTON STEAL PANTS

Detective Hellyer Testifies That Man Accused Admitted the Theft When Arrested—Houghton Denies Having Committed Crime.

Damaging testimony against "Chick" Houghton, ex-convict, was given at his trial before Judge Francis in state circuit court this morning on the charge of the larceny of a pair of trousers from a store at 47 North Third street. Jess Hall testified that he had seen Houghton take the trousers. He said: "Houghton and I went to the store to buy a revolver for the purpose of holding up people on the streets. The owner of the store was busy, and while I waited for him, Houghton went to the back part of the store, took a pair of pants from the counter, rolled them up and put them under his coat. I saw him do it."

"Then he came up to where I was. The owner of the store had finished talking to the other men, and we bought a revolver. I paid for it and we went away. After we left the store, Houghton told me he had stolen a pair of pants, but that they were small. He took them to the Cafe Royal and gave them to the bartender. I gave him the revolver I bought and have never seen it since."

Hall Serving Sentence. Hall is serving a sentence of 20 years in the penitentiary for holding up automobiles on the Linnton road in September. His arrest was brought about by information given the police by Houghton. Hall denied that he was giving false testimony through enmity to Houghton for informing on him.

"I have no hard feelings against him now," said Hall. "I had at first, but I believe now that he did right in telling the police to arrest me."

Detective C. R. Hellyer testified that Houghton had admitted to him that he took the pants. Hellyer said that Houghton took him to the store where the pants had been stolen. David Stein, proprietor of the store where the pants were stolen, identified the goods, and stated that Hall and Houghton had come to his store and purchased a revolver. He did not know anything had been stolen until the trousers were returned to him by the police.

Houghton denies having stolen the trousers, and states that they were given to him by a friend. Attorneys H. C. King and M. MacMahon are defending Houghton. Deputy District Attorney H. B. Adams is conducting the prosecution. The jurors who were accepted to hear the evidence are E. W. Hatch, B. F. Kyle, George Clark, S. C. Jones, George Zimmerman, J. Sharp, Robert Hays, M. McFar, Ernest E. Kroner, C. Shepherd, J. N. Farres and E. S. Ward. The trial is being continued this afternoon.

LA GRANDE SUGAR FACTORY TO RUN ON

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) La Grande, Or., Dec. 7.—The managers of the La Grande sugar factory yesterday announced to the farmers that beets will be in demand next year and that beetgrowers should plan for as great acreages next year as this. This announcement puts to rest rumors that the factory will be idle next year.

SHIP SUBSIDY BILL KILLED

Grab Scheme With All Its Ramifications of Donations Beaten to Standstill in the House and Abandoned

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Washington, Dec. 7.—The ship subsidy scheme, as passed by the senate, with all its ramifications of indefinite donations, has been beaten to a standstill in the house and abandoned by its friends. Instead there will be adopted a compromise which will enable the government to pay subsidies to specific lines between the states and Central and South America.

The sentiment against the general subsidy bill in the house, especially among western members, has been persistent. Speaker Cannon has not relaxed his opposition to the measure, and in view of this fact and the noncommittal indorsement by the president in his message, the ship subsidy people finally admitted defeat and have practically declined to abandon all the general provisions of the bill, including the scheme for a naval reserve and all general subventions.

The present plan contemplates one line from New York to Rio de Janeiro, and another from New York, Boston or Norfolk to Buenos Ayres, a third and fourth from New Orleans to Central America and the north coast of South America. A final line would be from San Francisco to Panama. There are one or two tentative propositions in line, that for a fast line from Charleston to Havana, and another from San Francisco to Honolulu.

In the compromise amendments, the subsidy to the Jim Hill line from Puget sound to the orient and the line from the Atlantic coast to South America and from the states on the coast of the Gulf of Mexico to the republic of Mexico are all cut out.

OLD STYLE OF SPELLING FAVORED BY CONGRESS

Washington, D. C., Dec. 7.—The legislative, judicial and executive appropriation bill, when reported to the house today contained the positive requirements that the old style of spelling be used in all printing authorized by congress.
