Mrs. Leslie Carter-Payne Lists Every Trinket Against Miss Munro.

FURNISHED MONEY THAT BOUGHT LOTS OF THINGS

Long Inventory of Articles to Which Charge of Conversion Attaches—Nice Things Norma Alleged to Have Bought With Carter Money.

(Special Dispatch by Leased Wire to The Journal) New York, Dec. 8.—Papers are being prepared by Andrew R. McLaren, lawyer for Mrs. Leslie Carter-Payne, for a second suit that the noted actress will bring against her one-time bosom friend, Miss Norma Munro. According to the attorney, the second action for the conversion of property will cover all the alleged indebtedness of Miss Munro to Mrs. Carter-Payne—$67,999.

Attorneys for Mrs. Robert Osborne announce that they will advertise a sheriff's sale of all the real estate of Miss Norma that they can find, to settle a judgment entered against her in the supreme court on April 24.

Mrs. Payne's attorney, speaking of the second suit and the trouble between Miss Munro and her two former friends, said: "The discrepancy between the total of Mrs. Payne's claims against Norma Munro and the amount named in the suit begun on Thursday can be explained in this way: The suit already filed covers only such items as may be covered in a suit on contract. We will shortly commence a second action for conversion of property which will cover all the remainder of Miss Munro's indebtedness to Mrs. Payne, totalling in all about $57,999."

"Miss Munro wanted to give Mrs. Payne a little present, so she bought this dog from a man in Washington. She sent the owner of the dog a check, but shortly the bank returned the check with 'no good' written across its face. Mrs. Payne learned that Miss Munro's check had not been honored, so she gave her friend $300 to place to her credit in the bank upon which the check was drawn."

Mr. McLaren then explained that the items cited in the schedule as dog collar pearls, three little rings, pearl bracelet, flower bills and coat of automobile represented purchases that Miss Munro had made with Mrs. Payne's money while the two were companions.

WARSHIPS NAMED AFTER FAMOUS AUTHORS

France Honors Great Writers in Her New Iron-clads.

(Special Dispatch by Leased Wire to The Journal) Paris, Dec. 8.—In naming her new warships, France has honored literature and her ironclads will bear the names of great French writers. France is now building the battleships Danton, Mirabeau, Voltaire, Diderot, Condorcet and Vergil, and the cruiser Victor Hugo, Jules Nichelet, Edgar Quinet, Ernest Renan and Waldeck-Rousseau—all named after writers, philosophers and statesmen.

Great enthusiasm has been shown by French society this year over the chrysanthemums. The rage for things Japanese has swept the city recently and the reason of the chrysanthemum shows success is because the flower is Japanese.

The first prize winner is the "Sado Yacco," named after the Japanese actress who charmed the Parisians during the exhibition. It is a snow white on the outer rim of petals and the heart is a deep cream. The blossoms measure more than a metre, or about a yard and 10 inches in circumference.

GIGANTIC POWER COMPANY BONDED

(Special Dispatch by Leased Wire to The Journal) New York, Dec. 8.—The Great Western Power company of California has filed a mortgage to the Central Trust company of New York as trustee to secure an issue of $25,000,000 five per cent gold bonds dated July 1, 1906, and due July 1, 1946, but subject to redemption after five years at 104 and interest. Of the issue, $3,000,000 is outstanding. This company was recently incorporated under the laws of California with an authorized capital of $25,000,000 as the operating company for the Western Power company of New Jersey. The latter is a holding company with $18,000,000 authorized capital stock. It is said that all the stock will be issued soon. Edwin Hawley is president of the company. The Great Western Power company expects to furnish power, light and heat to all the towns in northern and central California.

terday afternoon for the Thompson murder trial. It may require several more days to secure a jury and night sessions will be held next week until it is secured. Nevertheless, orders have been issued for all the state's witnesses to be present Monday.

It leaked out today that both the prosecution and the defense are employing detectives for some cryptic purposes. Questions put to the veniremen gave the first intimation of this. It is said these detectives have approached veniremen and attempted to draw them into conversation regarding the trial. The motive of the attorneys in employing these detectives is not known.

Attorney Vance's Motives. An affidavit made by Thomas M. Vance, special prosecutor in the case, that he is a volunteer attorney and is to receive nothing for his services, has caused much comment. Many have conjectured motives and expressed doubts, and altogether he has not escaped criticism. To intimate friends Vance gives as his reason personal friendship for Mrs. Emory, widow of the murdered man. As a boy Vance knew Mrs. Emory, then as a child, and those who admire him believe it is solely the spirit of chivalry that impels his act.

For the first time today Chester Thompson, the prisoner, for an instant awoke to his surroundings. When the mallet of Bailiff Ebert fell at the opening of the morning session Thompson, who had been sitting in his usual listless manner, suddenly brightened and rose with the others.

ROCKS AT THE DALLES RAIN FROM A BLAST

(Special Dispatch by Leased Wire to The Journal) The Dalles, Or., Dec. 8.—Rocks from a blast in the Court street cut at 7 o'clock this morning were blown several hundred feet distant. One weighing several hundred pounds went through the porch of the Houghton residence, over 100 feet away, and another went through the roof, lodging in a joist of the ceiling. The house was damaged by the amount of about $500. A rock went through Smith's roof and lodged in the ceiling. Three chickens were killed 200 yards away. The side of H. S. Wilson's house was struck and slightly damaged over 300 feet away. Citizens in the vicinity are greatly alarmed and blasting may be discontinued.

SURPLUS RESERVE FALL TO VERY LOW LEVEL

Statement of Associated Banks Shows They Are Almost Wiped Out.

(Special Dispatch by Leased Wire to The Journal) New York, Dec. 8.—The surplus reserves of the associated banks were shown by today's statement to have been very seriously depleted. Last Saturday the legal surplus stood at $1,447,155. Today it fell below the line to the extent of $6,702,175, a larger deficit by more than $100,000 than was shown on September 2. The loss in cash was greater than the estimates, reaching the great total of $12,265,000, while loans were down only $3,882,500.

The action of the stock market showed that the financial community was not disturbed by the exhibit. For a moment prices wavered, but they soon stiffened again, reaching in some cases the high point of the day after the statement appeared. It was confidently believed that Secretary Shaw would accept the showing as proof of the need of relief from the treasury. The deficit reported today is the largest since August 26, 1903, when the reserve was impaired to the amount of $4,737,000. Two weeks prior to that date, however, August 12, 1893, occurred the greatest deficit in the history of the associated banks, amounting to $18,500,000.

ALL PARIS RAVING OF JAPANESE ACTRESS

Paris, Dec. 8.—A young Japanese actress, Hanako, who is performing in a little theatre at the end of a narrow passage off the Boulevard, is the rage of Paris today. The room in which her performances are given holds a hundred persons at most, and every night and matinee it is packed with society persons in magnificent gowns, who flock thither to gratify their craving for morbid sensationalism.

Hanako presents a piece in which she impersonates a Mousme, who is loved by a warrior, who is killed by her brother. In despair, the Mousme commits suicide by performing heart-beat. She plunges a long dagger into her ab-
