RIGHT OF WAY DENIED RECLAMATION CANAL

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

Klamath Falls, Or., Dec. 10.—To the disappointment of the many who hope for the speedy completion of the irrigation project, the city council has refused to grant the reclamation service a franchise along High street for the west side, or Keno, canal, the property owners winning out in their contention that if this were granted their only recourses for protecting their rights would be the courts.

The chamber of commerce has some matters pertaining to the irrigation project to thresh out, and it is hoped they may be settled without delay and increased cost of the entire project.
