

JUROR APPLAUDS

scandal seekers. During all the forenoon session they had crowded the courtroom and so raucous were they for the story of a young girl's fall...

Women were largely in the predominance. Old women and young women who are prominent in many circles, were drawn in crowds to hear the trial of the case...

The forenoon session was opened by placing of Dr. O. S. Murray, father of the accused young man, upon the witness stand. He told of Lincoln Whitney's visits to his home...

Then he told how the knowledge of his daughter's shame had come to him; how he took her with him to Whitney's home and in the name of manhood and honesty demanded that the young man marry her...

It was during her testimony that attorneys for the defense made their first effort to show that the tragedy was enacted while young Murray was in a state of emotional insanity...

Of Nervous Temperament. He was always of a nervous temperament, his mother said, and the fact of his sister's condition was kept from him as long as possible...

Mrs. M. D. Williams, sister of Dr. Murray, told of having three brothers, two of whom had been committed to the insane asylum. One had died at Salem, she said, while the other had been dismissed as not dangerous...

Miss Hattie Payne of Montavilla testified as to the general reputation of the defendant. She had known him for years, she said, and he bore an excellent reputation...

Dr. W. H. Skene, who with other physicians examined Mary Murray yesterday afternoon, testified as to her condition, that the poor woman is now in a delicate condition. His testimony was that of a specialist.

Attorney Applauded. It was during Miss Payne's testimony that the crowd applauded the attorney for the defense and one of the jurors clapped his hands vigorously. He immediately explained his action to the court...

The outburst of applause came as a result of a clash of repartee between Attorney Logan, for the defense, and Attorney Vaughn, for the prosecution. They were wrangling as to the difference in meaning between the words character and reputation.

"You may have a good character, but it will be long after you are dead that people will say good things about you," said Logan. The crowd applauded and the juror joined, clapping his hands violently.

"I want to explain to the court," he said, "that I did that simply because I couldn't help laughing when I think about what is said about certain people on their tombstones."

The state, which is represented by Deputy District Attorney B. E. Haney, completely its case yesterday afternoon.

MRS. HARTJE WINS (Continued from Page One.) Public indignation was aroused against Hartje, and Mr. Scott's father vowed to spend his last cent in clearing the good name of his daughter and exposing the conspiracy.

PARRISH DIVORCE CASE SUBMITTED TO COURT (Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Albany, Or., Dec. 12.—Judge William Galloway yesterday held an adjourned term of court to hear the final arguments of the attorneys in the divorce case of Edward Parrish vs. Luella Parrish.

BILYEU APPOINTED ALBANY CITY ATTORNEY (Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Albany, Or., Dec. 12.—Last evening at a session of the city council City Attorney C. E. Sox resigned his position and asked that a successor be named. The retiring incumbent assigned as a reason for retiring that he was interested in the new organization that has taken over the franchise of the Albany street railway and considered that it was not the proper thing for a city attorney to be connected with an organization seeking or holding a franchise from the city.

SEARCHING FOR NECKLACE STOLEN FROM EMPRESS

Franz Joseph Sends Emissary to Recover Pearls Left in Sea by Late Consort.

(Journal Special Service.) Paris, Dec. 12.—According to a story published here, the Emperor Francis Joseph has sent a trusted emissary to Corfu with instructions to ascertain the whereabouts of a magnificent necklace, once the property of his murdered consort, the Empress Elizabeth.

There is a romantic story attached to this necklace. During the last few years of her life the empress lost all interest in her beautiful jewels, except in a splendid pearl necklace to which she had given the name of "the tears of the Madonna."

For Pianoless Music Lovers

PICK OUT YOUR PIANO, BUT PLEASE BE QUICK IF YOU'LL STORE ONE FOR US AND PAY US CARTAGE YOU MAY USE IT FREE!

We Must Make Room for Several More Carloads Right Away Store Open Evenings to Accommodate All.

This is certainly a most unusual offer, but we mean just what we say. New instruments are crowding us for space, which, on account of delayed building operations, we haven't got to give them. The railroad companies insist on our unloading cars without any more delay. Until our quarters reach a little more advanced state of completion, we cannot accommodate another new piano. So our fix is your gain. We sent out a big lot of them yesterday, but there are plenty more here to choose from. Just pick out any instrument you like, agree to take good care of it, pay us the mere cost of drayage, and enjoy it to your heart's content, free, over the holidays, and until we're in better shape. If you should conclude that you would like to purchase, we will give you credit for the drayage, and sell you at wholesale cost.

A Bona Fide Offer Look At the Makes

You are not restricted to a few cheap, undesirable pianos, but can choose from the finest line in America—the glorious Chickering, wonderful-toned Webers, elegant Kimballs, Hobart M. Cables, and many other of our matchless makes; Pianola Pianos only being excepted. Sale prices range on this offer, should you wish to buy, at special wholesale cost, $177, $218, $265 and upward, and you can pay $6, $8 or $10, or more, a month, or any other way, as suits you best. Really, you never heard of such a piano-getting opportunity as this before in all your life—we're sure of it. Don't miss it. Remember, there is absolutely no obligation to buy, unless you wish to. Just store the piano for us temporarily—buy only if you actually want to.

Several carloads of these pianos—old established makes—$177, or $198 for the fanolite styles. Small dealers sell these for $300 and $325. Eilers Piano House NEW NUMBER, 353 WASHINGTON, CORNER PARK.
