

FAITHFUL PASTOR M'CLAIN CHANGES FIELD OF LABOR

Rev. A. M. McClain and Mrs. McClain. (Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Theological seminary, New York, in 1887, coming directly from the seminary to take up home mission work in Idaho. For a number of years he was superintendent of the Nez Perce Indian mission work.

AND STILL THE SANTA CLAUS LETTERS COME TO THE JOURNAL

The shrewd puzzle editor, who called himself the puzzled editor, is becoming jealous. He is afraid that Santa Claus is going to get as much mail as he did for a month. And Santa's letters are really more affectionate than those sent after several hours and days spent in doing arithmetic.

JANUARY JURORS HAVE BEEN DRAWN

Eighty Taxpayers Selected to Do Service in State Circuit Court.

Eighty names have been drawn from the list of taxpayers of the county of men who are to serve as jurors at the January term of the state circuit court. The names were drawn by County Clerk Fields before Presiding Judge Sears.

SAVE GIRLS BY EDUCATION

It is Ignorance That Causes the Feet of the Young to Stray Prisonward.

HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES RARELY GET TO JAIL

An Industrial Home for the Protection of the Youthful Ward Is an Immediate Imperative Necessity in This City.

By A. Isabel Simmons, Police Matron. Education is the discipline of the intellect, the establishment of principles. What chance, then, has a girl taken from school at the age of 12 and put to work in a factory? Education is my panacea for the social evil.

What does a girl know who leaves school at the fifth or sixth grade? Many of them never get that far. Can one be in error in thinking that education would be the saving of many?

Practically all the girls between the ages of 16 and 23 who are brought here are frequenters of the public dance halls. That in the beginning of the downfall of many. Often a girl started on Saturday night for a dance, later is taken from a rooming-house and spends the rest of the night in jail.

Industrial Home Needed. An industrial home would save many girls if they were found in time. Some eastern cities have such homes and the girls are taught suitable trades.

Why Take Business Home?

Are Your Nerves Constantly Strained With Groundless Worries?

The cause of this tense condition is in your stomach. Your food does not digest properly. Nine tenths of all dyspepsia and indigestion is of the nervous type and the only certain cure is to fight the cause. Tonics, brain foods, bitters, etc., are mere temporary stimulants. Your stomach and small intestine have become deranged by improper selection of food, imperfect mastication and irregularity both as to time and amount of eating.

CAN'T THROW OFF HIS CARES

The mucous coating of the stomach and intestines has lost its power of secreting the gastric juice (an important factor in digestion) the muscles of the middle coating are correspondingly lifeless in grinding up the food, and as a result, the food lies in your stomach fermenting, poisoning the blood, irritating the nerves and breaking down the system.

Something must be done to arouse the digestive organs to action. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets alone have been found capable of digesting the food for the unhealthy stomach. They contain diastase, pepsin and other digestive agents which the stomach does not possess when in health. These agents digest the food for the stomach and give the stomach a chance to rest and regain its normal powers.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are not a patent medicine, the formula for their preparation having been made public and known to 40,000 physicians in the United States and Great Britain. By government tests, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets have been shown not only to contain no harmful ingredients, but to possess digestives of higher purity than found in any other preparation.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are recommended by physicians everywhere and can be bought of any druggist or direct from the manufacturers at 50 cents per box.

Old-Timers Scarce Now. Some of the women who are brought in for intoxication have been coming for years. The old-timers do not get excited now. Several who are almost dead there do not average three visits a year.

I have found many excellent musicians among the women, notwithstanding their lack of common school education. Mrs. A. — who died a few years ago, used to sing in concert with Patti. She verified her story with dates and names, so I know she was not romancing.

The young woman of 23 had crossed the Atlantic six times and studied music in Germany and Denmark. She had fine manners and drink was her only fault. A couple of years ago a woman past middle age was serving a 10 days' sentence for intoxication. I sent her to the sitting-room one morning to do the dusting. While in the kitchen preparing luncheon I heard the strains of a dainty Paderewski minuet. Thinking my daughter's teacher had arrived unexpectedly, I opened the sitting-room door and, behold, my lady of the dust-cloth was at the piano. Softly closing the door I sat in the hall and listened for almost an hour. Not a hair of air was played, but Mendelssohn, Liszt and Chopin were the masters my lady took selections from.

I hope when the municipality gets enough of the wretched jail which is to build a new hall of justice and city prison that the architect will allow me a small voice in the arrangement of the women's quarters. For years there was just one large room for all women prisoners, and every woman brought in went there—white, black, Chinese and Indians, drunks, thieves and the demented, the old-timer of 60 and the girl of 16.

Bad and Good Mix. When the interior of the jail was remodeled a few years ago the women's quarters were enlarged and separate cells made, but the girl in for her first offense is no better protected now than she was before. True, she is in a separate room, but every foul word the drunkard utters is heard, for all the rooms open on one corridor.

I hope the new jail will have warm quarters for the sick, a padded cell for the demented and a place for the younger girls, where they will not be within hearing or seeing distance of their elders.

A witness-room away from the prisoners' quarters is also a necessity. When a woman has her husband arrested for beating her or for other reasons, and we are obliged to hold her as a witness, she must be put in with the others, for we have no separate place to put her. Last, but not least, I do hope when they build a new jail it won't be in the heart of Chinatown.

PRaises CONDUCT OF MUNICIPAL COURT

Frank D. Hennessy, clerk of the municipal court, discussing affairs in the department with which he is connected, found much satisfaction with the way matters were going. "Nearly $22,000 has been collected from fines, forfeitures and costs since Judge Cameron took charge July 1, 1906," he said. "A most conspicuous feature of the administration of affairs in the municipal court, it seems to me, is that of the large number of offenders who have appeared, and fought their cases, none complain of unfairness. Out of the hundreds from whom I have collected fines, I have not found one who has found fault with the amount assessed against him."

"I find that suspended sentences have a very good effect, and it is seldom indeed that a man or woman, having been given an opportunity to reform returns to court for punishment."

"In regard to Judge Cameron it is universally said that he has filled the position with credit to the city of Port-

COLORADO MIDLAND'S UNIQUE MENU TO FRIENDS

Portland friends have received from Colorado Midland traffic men copies of one of the most unique souvenirs ever issued by a railroad company. It is a carwheel menu and program, illustrated, for the Midland family's banquet given at the Denver Traffic Club. The extremely humorous illustrations are contributed by "Jimmy" Lynch of the Denver Post; W. Clyde Spencer, Denver Republican; Joe Carl, Denver Times; "Doc Bird" Finch, Rocky Mountain News. Some droll subjects were assigned as toasts, including "What Shall We Do With Our Surplus Freight Cars?" by H. C. Bush, and "The Polly of Newspaper Publicity," by C. H. Speers. Malone Joyce was called upon for a song, "Don't Tell Me When You Ship the Freight, I Love to Be Surprised." L. H. Harding spoke to the sentiment "Transportation issued to a resident of Utah should not read 'And Family.'"
