TIMBER.

TIMBER OWNERS.

It has become an established fact that our timber department always leads—others follow. The careful manner in which we have managed timber deals in the past is strong evidence that this year's business will be the heaviest ever experienced in the northwest. Our past year's record is certainly sufficient to convince timber owners that it will not pay to delay a day longer in placing their timber lands with us for sale. Call or write our offices; give full accurate description of timber and lowest net cash price. NORTHWESTERN GUARANTEE & TRUST COMPANY,
Lumber Exchange Bldg.,
Southeast Corner Second and Stark Sts.

WANTED—TIMBER LANDS.

To the owners of timber lands—We represent very heavy buyers in the following counties: Crook, Klamath and Lake, particularly townships 11 to 18 south, ranges 10 and 11, and 15 to 20 east, and owing to the fact that our buyers have the estimates on the greater portion of the timber in the above counties it enables us to make prices sales, therefore send us your full description and the estimate; also your lowest net cash price, and we can do business with you on short time; no padding prices goes with us. We always have buyers for well-located single claims.

AT THE THEATRES

Seat Sale Tomorrow for "Sulu."

Tomorrow (Tuesday) morning at 10 o'clock the advance seat sale will open for George Ade's musical-comedy success, "The Sultan of Sulu," which will be the attraction at the above theatre for three nights, beginning next Thursday, January 10, with a special price matinee Saturday.

When Mr. Ade first introduced the character of the Sultan, the audiences laughed at it and regarded it as merely an amusing imagination of the author. But that his majesty is very much in evidence and has a delightful sense of humor was proven recently when the president's daughter visited the Island of Sulu and was waited upon by the potentate with an offer of marriage.

Baker Scores Another Hit.

The Baker Stock company won fresh laurels for itself yesterday afternoon and evening when it brought out the sweet German romance, "Old Heidelberg," for the entertainment of the people of Portland. All the world loves a lover, but when one is a king and the other a lover, but when one is a king and the supreme. Pretty scenes and pretty situations and beautiful costumes true to detail will please the people all this week.

"Little Minister" at Star.

"The Little Minister" is the attraction at the Star this week, and it is being produced in an elaborate manner by the Allen stock company. There is a special scenic production, and the play will be given with all the attention to details which made "The Little Minister" one of the greatest plays in the high-priced theatres. This is the most expensive bill ever given to Portland at Star prices, but notwithstanding the additional expense there will be no increase in prices. Miss Vera Felton will be seen as Lady Babbie, the role in which Maude Adams became famous.

Vaudeville at Grand.

All-star vaudeville can be found this week on the program at the Grand. The big act is that of the Leffel Three, acrobats who introduce the bounding net in a manner to make the specialty one of the most comical gymnastic stunts in the business. Another act which will attract attention will be "Out of Sight." This is a smiling playlet in which Robert Rogers and Louise Mackintosh appear. Charles McDonald is a monologist who is widely known as the Irish Beau Brummel, because of his neat wardrobe. Originality in song and dance acts is seldom met, but Carrolton and Hodges have an act on this order which bristles with new ideas. Jules Harron, the German comedian, the illustrated song and the moving pictures complete the program.

Father Montgomery Better.
