Jeffries Repudiated the Contract Made by Delaney to Have Him Meet Bill Squires of Australia—Gossip of the Fistic World.

By W. W. Naughton. (Special Special Service.) San Francisco, Jan. 7.—The pugilistic matchmakers of the Nevada gold camps do not object to giving big purses, but they evidently don't care to have it known when the gate receipts fall short of the amount paid the fighters.

The arena is built to stay, however, and Mike Riley and his associates are bidding for new attractions as though they had a dozen Tonopah Extensions at their back.

Perhaps it is all for the best. Wise heads who have never set eyes upon Squires and who have no means of establishing his rating as a ringman have boldly asserted that he wouldn't make a decent mouthful for Jeffries if the Al-falfa baron were hungry, and maybe they are right.

Gans and Herman. An incident of the Gans-Herman fight suggests that champions would make very unreliable ringside correspondents.

After the contest Herman said he made a fatal mistake when he did not hold Gans down to the weight conditions that prevailed in the Gans-Nelson match at Goldfield.

At this writing it doesn't look quite so rosy for a St. Patrick's day contest between Gans and Jimmy Britt.

For a serious-faced fellow, Adam Ryan of Chicago is quite original in his doings and sayings. There is no doubt that the punch on Ryan inflicted that punch on Referee Gleason in the eighth round of the contest with Lew Powell in a spirit of retaliation.
