

$500,000 COST OF SEAT IN SENATE

Guggenheim of the Smelter Trust Brazenly Admits Buying and Paying for Votes.

RESOLUTION TO PROBE CORRUPTION SQUELCHED

States That There is Nothing Wrong About Helping Elect Legislators—Is for Roosevelt but Would Not Vote to Curb Railroads.

(General Special Service.) Denver, Colo., Jan. 12.—The alleged purchase of a seat in the United States senate by Simon Guggenheim, magnate of the smelter trust, has set all Colorado to talking and bids fair to accomplish the ruin of the republican machine which has squelched the proposed legislative investigation. Senator Crowley, Democrat, introduced the resolution calling for an inquiry into the charges, but the motion was voted down by a strict party vote. Meanwhile the charges of bribery and the brazen admission of it by Guggenheim himself, have caused a tremendous sensation.

Admits the Purchase. Guggenheim frankly admits he has bought a United States senatorship from Colorado and paid for it in advance in a remarkable interview printed in Ridgeway's Magazine. Frederick Lawrence was the interviewer. He says: "Simon Guggenheim, the smelter, wishing to become Simon Guggenheim, the senator, resorted to smelting methods. He threw into the political furnace enough golden ore to smelt out the votes he needed. "The political furnace consumed approximately $500,000. Guggenheim elected 84 members of the Colorado legislature pledged to vote for him for United States senator.

Buy Fifty-Four Votes. "The seventy expressed opinion of men who make politics a trade in Colorado is that now Mr. Guggenheim is to be smelted—in other words, having bought and paid for his 54 votes, he must buy and pay for them a second time, failing which they will not be cast for him. "Mr. Guggenheim admitted to me during the course of the conversation I had with him that he had bought and paid for his votes, and added that he expected them to be delivered without being called upon to make further payment. "He went further and said he knew they would be delivered. Mr. Guggenheim made this assertion without blushing. He did not seem to realize that morally, if not legally, it is bribery to buy votes for a United States senatorship in advance. Hard as I labored with the young man to make him see the error of his ways, he remained of the same opinion to the end. "Nothing Wrong to It. "We discussed the purchase of his seat and he talked about it as coolly as though we were talking about a simple transaction in business. "It is stated, Mr. Guggenheim, I said, 'that, in plain language, you have bought your election, that you have paid into the campaign fund to elect members of the legislature the amount of their expenses. Does it not seem to you wrong to use money with the understanding that in consideration of it you are to receive the vote of the man in whose interest it is spent?' "There is nothing wrong about it," replied Mr. Guggenheim. "It is merely conducting political campaigns as they are conducted these days. The money I have contributed has helped to elect these men, and naturally they feel under obligation to vote for me. It is done all over the United States today. I do not consider that it is wrong, and neither do I think that it can in any sense be called bribery." "Is with the Railroads. "In order to test Mr. Guggenheim on his statement that he will not represent trusts, but will favor measures beneficial to the country, I asked him if he approved President Roosevelt's course. Quickly he answered that he did. Then I asked this question: "Would you have voted for President Roosevelt's rate bill if you had been a senator last year?" "Right here," Guggenheim, friend of the people, disappeared, and Simon, the smelter trust head, showed himself in his true colors as a trust man—no more, no less. He did not answer the question. He would not answer it. None but a trust man could have failed to answer that question one way or the other, and Mr. Guggenheim's failure to do so is a positive indication that he will not support President Roosevelt's fight against trusts when he takes his purchased seat.

LOVE FOR WOMAN CAUSE OF RAUCOUS AMADORS' RECALL

Mrs. Bertha K. Gresham.

(Journal Special Service.) New York, Jan. 12.—Dr. Raoul Amador, consul general in New York for the republic and youngest son of Dr. Manuel Amador, president of that country, resigned his post and returned home in secret. Dr. Amador's resignation came fast upon the heels of the publication of his fervid love letters to Mrs. Bertha K. Gresham, the beautiful widow of Lieutenant Gresham, U. S. N. Those letters revealed many diplomatic secrets and exposed the influence of William Nelson Cromwell, the New York lawyer, in the consular office. According to a reliable source of information, the appearance in Panama of the published account of Dr. Amador's disastrous love affair caused a cabinet commotion and it is said the matter was immediately put before President Amador, who called his son to explain and return to the post. Weeks of Dr. Amador's stay in New York revealed his estrangement from his wife and his love for Mrs. Gresham. The remarkable story was brought to light by the arrest of the consul general on the complaint of Mrs. Gresham, who said last night: "Dr. Amador's fatal mistake was his attack upon me with his riding whip. His father, the president, must have seen that such a diplomatic representative was impossible."

AIMED AT OVERTHROW OF MANCHU DYNASTY

Revolution in Central Yangtze Provinces Growing in Strength. (Journal Special Service.) Tokio, Jan. 12.—It is believed here that the Chinese authorities are minimizing the gravity of the revolutionary movement in the central Yangtze provinces. Reliable advices received at Tokio throw doubt upon their ability to cope with the situation. Twenty thousand regulars that were sent to the scene of the trouble have thus far only compelled the insurgents to remove their headquarters from Kiangsi and Hunan provinces. The rebels are still active. English authorities who are acquainted with the situation are skeptical as to whether the uprising can be suppressed. It is said that all available regulars have been dispatched to the front. Placards posted throughout the disturbed provinces show the movement is aimed at the overthrow of the Manchu dynasty.

M'CORMICK'S SYMPATHY FOR RUSSIA HIS UNDOING

Real Cause of Ambassador's Recall is His Unfriendliness for Japs. (Journal Special Service.) Washington, D. C., Jan. 12.—Robert McCormick, ambassador at Paris, who will leave the diplomatic service and return home in two months, will do so because his conduct at St. Petersburg during the Russian-Japanese war met with the disapproval of the president to Count Gortalski was approved by her parents. This match had nothing to do with the retirement of Ambassador McCormick. While stationed at St. Petersburg, Ambassador McCormick espoused the cause of Russia in the war with Japan. During the hostilities he was granted leave of absence and returned to the United States. Upon landing at New York he found the sympathy of the country was with Japan. This displeased the ambassador and in an interview he repudiated the American people, who he declared, were ungrateful. This interview was disapproved by President Roosevelt.

GLEE CLUB FORMED BY GRANTS PASS MUSICIANS

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Grants Pass, Or., Jan. 12.—An organization composed of the best male singers and musicians and known as the Grants Pass Glee club, has been organized here. The club will hold regular meetings in a hall fitted for the purpose, and will give public entertainments once or twice each season. Aside from cultivating musical talent, the club is organized for social purposes. The officers elected for the year are: President, H. L. Andrews; vice-president, H. L. Gilkey; secretary, O. A. Thomas; assistant secretary, Albert Cox; treasurer, Jack Taylor; director, H. C. Kinney; assistant director, T. E. Cramer; accompanist, E. S. Van Dyke.

TEHAUNTEPEC ROAD TO OPEN NEXT WEEK

(Journal Special Service.) City of Mexico, Jan. 12.—This was the date fixed for the inauguration of the new Tehauantepec National railway, but official announcement is made that the opening of the road will be deferred until the arrival of the first of the American-Hawaiian steamers from Honolulu. This is expected a week or ten days hence. The steamer will discharge its cargo at Salina Cruz, the Pacific coast terminal of the road. Both Salina Cruz and Coahuaco, the Atlantic coast terminal, have been declared free ports of entry.

GOOD FARM SALE ON ROGUE RIVER

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Grants Pass, Or., Jan. 12.—The John Hanson farm, one of the finest in southern Oregon, has been purchased by John Hanson by T. B. Cornell and Dr. W. H. Flanagan of this city for $25,000 cash. The farm is on Rogue river a few miles below Grants Pass. It is planted in hops, apple trees and alfalfa. The new owners will improve and develop the place. The present acreage of apples will be more than doubled.

CHILD DIES OF BURNS AND FATHER IS MAIMED

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Salem, Or., Jan. 12.—Marie Mack, a 3-year-old girl, was burned to death Wednesday while playing around a blazing stump in a field which was being cleared by her father at West Stayton, three miles west of Marion. Her clothing was ignited and the child was so severely burned that death came after she had suffered several hours of fearful agony. Her father, John Mack, in his efforts to save his child had his hands badly burned and will be maimed for life.

STREAMS OF STATE MEASURED

New Work, but of Greatest Importance, Now Fairly Organized.

VOLUNTEERS SEND IN READINGS OF GAUGES

Equipment of Stations and System of Computations Whereby Stream Flow Is Determined—Locations of Stations Thus Far Established.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Salem, Or., Jan. 12.—The state of Oregon has realized the importance of hydrographic work," says Ivan E. Oakes, state hydrographer, "and in 1905, upon the creating of the office of state engineer, made an appropriation of $2,500 annually for hydrographic surveys and $5,000 annually for topographic surveys, covering the government appropriation of an equal amount for similar purposes to be expended within the state.

The result of this work will be published in detail in the forthcoming biennial report of the state engineer's office. Not till 1905 was work of this nature attempted in western Oregon. The appropriation made by the state has been entirely expended by the state engineer in this district.

List of Stations. River gauging stations have been established and maintained at the following points: north fork of the Santiam at Mehama; south fork of Santiam at Waterloo; Willamette river at Albany; Luckiamute at Silver; coast fork of the Willamette at Goshen; Rogue river at Gold Bay; north fork of Umpqua at Oak Creek; middle fork of Willamette at Jasper; McKenzie at Hendricks' Ferry; Clackamas at Bartin; Molalla at Dickey prairie; Hood River at Williams City; Siletz river at Siletz; coast fork of Umpqua at Brockway; south fork of Tamhill at Sheridan; Deschutes at Moody's Bridge; Tumalo river at Bend. These are stations at intervals by Mr. Oakes and measurements taken by means of a current meter.

Station Equipment. These stations are equipped with a gauge rod, either vertical or inclined, which is graduated to feet and tenths and determines the time of his next visit, which depends on the stage of the river. The measurements are made by taking soundings of the depth of the water from a bridge or a movable car suspended from a cable, and from these soundings the area of cross sections of the stream in square feet is determined. The velocity of the water in feet per second is found by taking the mean of a large number of readings with a current meter. The area of cross sections of the stream in square feet times the mean velocity in feet per second will give the discharge in cubic feet per second. With numerous measurements at different gauge heights, the discharge is prepared in the office from which the discharge of the river each day can be reliably estimated—from the gauge heights reported by the status observer.

NEWS FORECAST OF COMING WEEK

Buoy Time in Congress in Prospect—Special Interests Strive for Favors.

NATIONAL MEETING OF BOARDS OF TRADE

Spokane Case to Be Considered by Interstate Commerce Committee—Eclipse of the Sun Monday but Not Visible Here.

(Journal Special Service.) Washington, D. C., Jan. 12.—The coming week in congress is likely to be full of incident, and, indeed, the same will probably hold true as regards the remainder of the present session. All indications point to a great deal of friction. As soon as the great supply bills of the nation are out of the way there will be taken up one or more of the important measures whose passages will be contested at every step. Organized labor is prepared to resume the fight of last session. Great financial interests concerned in the anti-immigration bills, the ship subsidy bill and the Philippines tariff bill are ready to look out for their welfare, while Pacific coast interests are prepared to fight at every turn any attempt to modify the Chinese exclusion act. At the New Willard hotel next Monday there will assemble representatives of commercial organizations throughout the country gathered to "consider and devise measures for the enlargement of our foreign trade and to promote the demand abroad for the product of our farms, workshops and mines." The conference will be followed Tuesday by the annual meeting of the National Board of Trade. Both gatherings are held at the present time with a view to influencing congress to take action at the present session in regard to some of the important measures in which the merchants and manufacturers are especially interested.

Spokane Railroad Meets

The Interstate Commerce Commission will sit at Spokane early in the week to hear the first case which has come up under the amended long and short section of the interstate commerce law. An eclipse of the sun will take place Monday, but will not be visible in America. Several scientific expeditions have been sent to points in Asiatic Russia to take observations. The eighteenth annual convention of the United Mine Workers of America will be held in Indianapolis, opening Tuesday. The wage scale does not come into effect until the convention will occupy itself with routine business. The convention of the Southern Cotton association will attract hundreds of delegates to Birmingham, Alabama, during the week. Stuart's Inaugural. Edwin S. Stuart will be inaugurated as governor of Pennsylvania Tuesday, and Malcolm R. Patterson will assume the office of chief executive in Tennessee.

Nothing Too Good For the American People

There is NOTHING TOO GOOD for the American people—that's why we started to make Cascarets Candy Cathartic. The first box made its appearance in 1896, and the enthusiastic endorsement of the people has been bestowed upon Cascarets ever since. The sale today is at the rate of OVER A MILLION BOXES A MONTH, proving that the American people recognize, that what is BEST FOR THEM is none too good.

Why this enormous patronage?

The answer is simple: Cascarets are pure, clean, sweet, mild, fragrant, harmless but effective little tablets for the treatment and cure of Constipation and all Bowel Troubles. They are put up in neat little enamel boxes, easy to buy, easy to carry (in vest-pocket or purse), easy to take and easy of action, always reliable, always the same, they "work while you sleep" and wake you up feeling fine in the morning.

They not only regulate the movement and stimulate the muscular walls of the bowels, but they keep the ENTIRE CANAL CLEAN and antiseptic, forcing out and destroying all disease germs that breed in the accumulated filth unless promptly and regularly discharged. Therefore, they are a great preventive of disease, and may be taken continuously as a precautionary measure.

The new Pure Drugs Act, adopted by Congress on June 30, 1906, and in effect January 1, 1907, is a GOOD LAW and means better and PURER drugs for the American People. We endorse it and will live up to its SPIRIT and LETTER—an easy task, as we have always been actuated by the same principles and no changes are required in our formula or packaging.

GOOD MINE SALES IN MARSHALL LAKE REGION

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Grangeville, Idaho, Jan. 12.—The first mining sale of the new year occurred here when a Los Angeles mining company purchased a three fourths interest in the Kimberly and Jewell groups of claims in the Marshall lake district from G. J. Wright, D. L. Roy and Andrew Easton for $15,000. The company also bought a claim in the same vicinity from George Connor for $1,500. Early next spring the company will install a power plant at a convenient site on Bear creek and operate the stamp mills by electricity. The acquisition of new capital in developing the central Idaho mines is welcomed by mining men in this city.

Lincoln County's Assessment.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Salem, Or., Jan. 12.—The summary of the assessment of Lincoln county filed with the secretary of state shows a value of property amounting to $1,141,322.50. The value last year was $923,454. The assessment includes three dogs valued at $100.

We endorse it and will live up to its SPIRIT and LETTER—an easy task, as we have always been actuated by the same principles and no changes are required in our formula or packaging.

We adopted OUR OWN PURE DRUG LAW in 1895 when the first box of Cascarets came on the market and have lived and worked and produced under it ever since. To-day, after a record of nearly 100,000,000 boxes sold, Cascarets STAND the greater in PURITY, QUALITY and MEDICINAL MERIT than any other preparation for Bowel trouble in all the world.

This should be a great argument for any one, to try Cascarets AT ONCE, and be healthier and happier for it. Some people have CHRONIC CONSTIPATION with all the horrors derived from it; others have HABITUAL CONSTIPATION from carelessness and neglect, but nearly EVERYBODY has OCCASIONAL CONSTIPATION, which, if not promptly taken care of is liable to result in its degeneration into the worse forms and cause great suffering and perhaps death. Cascarets, if taken patiently and regularly, will remedy all of these awful troubles, but if taken promptly at the very first sign of an irregularity of the Bowels, will act as the FINEST PREVENTIVE ever discovered, and will keep all the machinery running in good order.

We advise you to get a little 10c box of Cascarets TO-DAY and carry it in your purse or vest pocket. Take one when you feel anything unusual about your bowels. Your own druggist will sell you the little box, under GUARANTY of satisfaction or money refunded. All druggists, 10c, 25c, 50c.
