

Grand Wind-up of Harowitz & Co. Salvage Sale

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY will witness the most furious selling of high grade merchandise that Portland has ever known

$3 & $4 Worth of Merchandise for $1.00

THIS IS A STUNNER and ought to create a furore—the like of which was never seen before. We are positively offering all kinds of winter good at $3.00 for $1.00 and many goods $4.00 for $1.00.

THE REASON WHY We can make such tremendous cuts is because we bought the splendid new stock of Harowitz & Co. at less than 20c on the $1.00, and for the reason that the Boston never carries one dollar's worth of merchandise over from season to season.

REOPEN CAMPAIGN IN FEBRUARY

Strong Efforts Will Be Made to Raise Balance for Y. M. C. A. Building.

A. Outing.

ONE MONTH FOR DOING ALL THE WORK

S. G. Reed Has Been Appointed Chairman of the Committee Which Will Have Charge of Soliciting Branch of the Campaign.

That the total fund of $350,000, necessary to erect a new building for the use of the members of the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. will inside a few weeks be in the possession of the committee to take charge of the soliciting work is the confident expression of those interested in raising the balance of money required. Out of the total sum needed, $250,000 has been provided, leaving the amount of $100,000 to be raised. Officials of the two associations believe that this amount will be on hand by March 2.

Arrangements were partially completed at the meeting of committees held last night, and final plans will be perfected at the meeting which is to be held at the Y. M. C. A. building next Wednesday evening.

Campaign Begins February 1.

So far the plan is to centralise the work of raising funds in the hands of a citizens' committee, consisting of 100 members, which will promote the campaign through the churches, business houses and residents of the city.

The campaign will be given its initial move Sunday, February 3, when a general field day will be announced from the pulpits of the various churches. Solicitation will begin the day following and will continue until March 2, when it is fully expected that the entire sum will be in hand.

Members of the citizens' committee will establish their headquarters at the Y. M. C. A. building and will hold daily meetings there. Luncheon will be served at 12:15 each day when the work covered during the preceding 24 hours will be discussed and plans laid for further details.

S. G. Reed has been appointed chairman of the soliciting committee and its 100 members will work directly under his supervision. Mrs. A. E. Rockey is vice-chairman. When the work starts 10 days hence it is expected to carry it on rapidly and make the greatest possible headway during the shortest possible space of time.

Members and officials of both associations are enthusiastic over the prospects of securing the funds for the new building. The meeting last night was a hopeful one. Others besides the officers present were: Mr. and Mrs. James P. Felling, the latter representing the Y. W. C. A.; Mrs. W. J. Hoveyman, Dr. S. A. Brown, Fletcher Lynn, A. M. Smith, E. C. Bronaugh, S. P. Lockwood, W. J. Clemens, A. F. Fiegel, Robert Livingstone, J. F. Carroll and E. M. MacNaughton.

ACCUSED OF FORGING PAPER AT THE DALLES

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

The Dalles, Or., Jan. 24.—Constable Harper has brought from Portland, Arthur Schirer, who is wanted here on a charge of forgery. Some weeks ago, it is alleged, he forged three checks on business men here and left the city. Officers thought they had located him at Echo, but he was one of the parties arrested in a raid at Portland last week.

LABORITES PLANE PLANKS

Municipal Ownership of Utilities One of Principal Aims of Party.

EXTEND EXCLUSION TO THE JAPANESE

Woman Suffrage Is Another Thing Desired by Members of New Party, Which Also Wants State Control of Telegraphs and Telephones.

Members of the Union Labor party, an outgrowth of the Oregon Labor party, which figured in the last campaign, adopted their platform at the meeting held at 125 1/2 Fifth street last night and made arrangements for further work in the interests of the party.

At present there are identified with the Labor party 20 of the Portland unions, which include about 75 per cent of the total membership of all the unions in the city. It is believed that all the unions will in a short time affiliate with the party, which advocates and declares for many changes in existing laws. The first plank in the platform demands municipal ownership of public utilities, which in their nature are monopolistic.

The party, however, does not advocate a sudden change in conditions, but believes in the acquisition of these utilities in a conservative way that is safe and sure. Particular attention is called to the street railways' poor service and disregard for the rights and privileges of the traveling public. Special taxes on railroads and street railways are called for, the money to put in bonds of the company with a view of the city finally acquiring them.

The platform opposes the repeal of or tampering with the Chinese exclusion act and advocates the extension of the law to the Japanese. Election of United States senators by direct vote is advocated and the party will withhold its support from legislative candidates who oppose this choice of the people in this respect.

Convicts kept free of competition with labor by working on the roads; eight hours for a day's work in state, county and city offices; the abolition of the sweatshop system; liability of employers for injury to body or loss of life, and free schools and textbooks, are among the planks of the platform.

The party demands the state control of all telegraph and telephone lines and the railroads; believes in the anti-pass law; demands the taxation of unimproved property at the same rate as adjoining improved property; enforcement of more rigid child-labor laws, and woman suffrage equal with man suffrage.

Aside from these more important planks, the party platform includes many others of lesser significance, most of which are either openly or indirectly advocated by other parties. The Labor party is arranging for a labor mass meeting soon, at which time the platform will be ratified and the interests of the party advanced.

ICE GORGE REMAINS FIRM AS EVER

People Still Crossing Columbia at The Dalles on Skates.

GOVERNMENT BARGE IN GRAVE DANGER

Likely to Be Crushed in Jam When Ice Begins to Move—Ice About Steamer Resolute Is Broken by Dynamite.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

The Dalles, Or., Jan. 24.—The ice gorge in the river opposite this city appears as firm as ever. Without a heavy chinook wind it will take several days before the river will be cleared of ice so as to admit the passage of boats. The river was crossed on the ice several times today, and it appears perfectly safe for men, horses or cattle.

The ice around the little boat Resolute was blown out with dynamite yesterday and she is now in clear water. A force of men are working today with block and tackle, attempting to haul the Lillian B. out of the ice onto the beach. These boats are employed as tenders for the camps on the north bank.

The government barge at Three Mile Rapids is in considerable danger from a gorge of ice that has formed at that point in the river. The boat is moved from her mooring now, and it is feared she may be crushed in the jam when the ice begins to move. Every precaution is being taken to protect the barge, but if she gets into the jam of the immense ice floes that surround her it will be almost impossible to prevent her being crushed to pieces.

MISSIONARY MEETING HELD AT M'MINNVILLE

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

M'Minville, Or., Jan. 24.—There has just closed at the First Baptist church here a missionary conference. The leaders were Rev. A. W. Fider of Oakland, California; Rev. C. A. Cook of Bloomfield, New Jersey; and Rev. John M. Dean of Seattle. Morning, afternoon and evening sessions were held. Visitors were present from some of the neighboring Baptist churches. The speakers at the afternoon and evening sessions were John M. Dean and Rev. C. C. Cook.
