

TROCK LAWYERS MAY BE BARRED

Representative Bayer of Multnomah Has Bill to Make Trouble for Them.

ATTORNEYS FORBIDDEN TO DRUM UP BUSINESS

By Violation of Act Offender Would Be Liable to Disbarment by Proceedings Carried on Through Supreme Court.

(By a Staff Correspondent.)
Salem, Feb. 6.—"Rhyzer" lawyers are hit amply by a bill introduced by Representative Bayer of Multnomah county. The bill provides that it shall be unlawful for any lawyer or firm of attorneys to send any representative or agent to any mill, factory, hotel, hospital or any place of business in order to solicit any person to bring an action for damages on account of personal injuries received through accident. Violation is to be counted ground for disbarment, the person aggrieved making procedure through the state supreme court.

WILL CHOP DOWN FRUIT TREES.

A Determined Effort to Be Made to Aid the State of San Jose Scale and Other Pests.

The supreme court decision that it was lawful for the inspector to chop down fruit trees affected with San Jose scale, accentuates the necessity of promptly spraying before the doom of your orchard has been sealed. If not carefully looked after this year the trees will be exterminated—cut down and burned. A determined effort is to be put forth to extirpate the offensive and destructive scale, and our lime and sulphur solution is now everywhere acknowledged the very best destroyer in an United States. It is quick and certain death to San Jose scale, oyster shell bark louse, leaf curl, peach moth or twig borer, peach midew, red spider, etc. Eleven gallons of water is added to each gallon of the solution, so that the cost is simply insignificant. Orchardists should not neglect their trees another day. Sold by J. J. Butler, the seedman, 188 Front street, between Taylor and Salmon.

RICH STRIKE

Manhattan Mining District

Many Rich Strikes Have Been Made of Late in This Locality

At a depth of 30 feet the Independence encountered ore that runs $2,500 to the ton. The Monday Extension has just struck out ore that runs $900. The Paymaster, Stray Dog and many others have done almost as well. All these properties are within a few feet of each other. The Pay Day, Alpine, Dead Pine Fraction, Crown Point and Three O'Clock, owned by

MANHATTAN CROWN POINT

Gold Mines Company, are located in the very heart of this marvellously rich district. This company has done sufficient work to prove that they have valuable property, actual mill tests being basis of this knowledge.

A RAILROAD

connecting Round Mountain, Manhattan, Tonopah and Goldfield with the N. C. at Austin, has been surveyed and arrangements are being made to construct a road from Austin to Manhattan. This road will be only a few hundred feet from Manhattan Crown Point property.

MILLING FACILITIES.

Adequate milling facilities are assured. The Tonopah Exploration Company is building a dam and has material in transit for pipe line to mill site, only a short distance from the Manhattan-Crown Point property. They have also practically closed contract for the building of a 150-ton mill and 250-ton miller.

SUBSCRIPTIONS.

The Manhattan Crown Point Gold Mines Company have opened subscription books. The stock is full paid and non-assessable, and affords an opportunity for profitable investment in a safe and unusually profitable enterprise. A small sum invested now will grow during the next few months.

ONLY 15 CENTS.

A small block of this stock will be sold at 15 cents a share for the purpose of quickly securing capital for furthering development work and placing property on paying basis. This stock will be dealt in on the Boston Curb, San Francisco and Portland Stock Exchanges, and we predict that it will not be obtainable for less than 50 cents per share at the expiration of 60 days from date. Now is the time to buy this stock. If you have $15 or more, we conscientiously and earnestly advise you to invest in this stock. We are financial agents for this company and have never offered an investment to our clients that we had more confidence in. We can't afford to offer anything that is not good. If you don't know who we are, we will gladly furnish you with names of bankers, business men and satisfied clients, who will tell you all about us.

STOCK OVERSUBSCRIBED.

No doubt there will be more stock subscribed than has been set aside to be sold at the present low price, hence if you desire any, we would advise you not to delay in sending your subscription. If it reaches us too late we will return your money. Those fortunate enough to get stock will make money very rapidly! Address all orders to retired Monday evening feeling as well as usual. He was a man of robust constitution and sickness had seldom visited him. One of the members of the family went to his room to call him Tuesday morning and found that he had passed away.

Mr. Bowles was born in Virginia, November 12, 1826. His parents moved to Ohio while he was still a boy and he continued to reside in that state until he moved to Oregon in 1882, settling at Oswego, where he owned considerable property. He was married in 1848 to Sarah McIntyre of Lawrence, Ohio. Seven children were born to the union, of whom six survive him. Funeral services will be conducted at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon in the I. O. O. F. hall at Oswego and will be in charge of lodge No. 23, of which Mr. Bowles was a member. Services will also be conducted at the grave by George Wright post, G. A. R. Interment will take place in the Oswego cemetery.

BRITAIN INSURES AGAINST EARTHQUAKE

Seismic Disturbances Cause Worry in England, and Insurance Companies Profit.

(Journal Special Service.)
London, Feb. 6.—Recent earthquakes and predictions of others have created a growing business among insuring agents of earthquake risks in Great Britain. Lloyd's started a special branch in this line of insurances and a good business is being done. A prominent commercial firm in Oxford has just obtained earthquake insurance for $1,250,000 at a rate of 18 cents on each $500. An estate in Wales has been similarly insured for $500,000 at 36 cents per $500. Holders of mortgages on properties are demanding that earthquake insurance be taken out.

NEW CARS WILL RELIEVE PRESSURE

Additional Rolling Stock for Portland Leaves St. Louis Early in April.

Thirty-five new cars for use on the street railway system of Portland will be shipped from the shops in St. Louis on the first of April. The cars will be placed in completion as soon as they arrive here, and will greatly relieve the present over-burdened service. Part of the new cars will be placed on the east side line, and the balance will be put in use on the west side branches.

At the present time the railway company is having difficulty in running the usual number of cars on the east side, owing to the lack of electric current. Ever since the wires and poles of the company were coated with ice and so much damage done linemen have been busy adjusting the badly disarranged system. Through the cutting and splicing of wires and feeders the current has been hampered and at times reduced to such a low ebb that the cars moved only at a snail's pace. Officials of the company state that normal conditions will rule again in a day or two.

BROKEN LEG, GRIP, AND BABY IN THE FAMILY

There have been some interesting events occurring at the home of A. Rosenstein, 425 Fifth street, recently. First of all, Mrs. Rosenstein was taken seriously ill of a gripple. Next, Bernie Rosenstein, aged 10 years, while riding his pony, struck one of his legs against the shaft of an express wagon and the limb was broken. Then Mr. Rosenstein was attacked by the prevalent gripple and was bedfast for a short time, and on Sunday Mrs. Rosenstein gave birth to a girl.

This was the turning point in the family afflictions, and today Mr. Rosenstein got down to the store, Bernie is feeling comfortable, and Mrs. Rosenstein and baby are doing well.

lation hose spanner, such as is used by members of the fire department to open hydrant gates and tighten hose connections, and an improvised "limmy" evidently made from a large telephone pole spike. These articles were secured by Patrolman Goitz, who was detailed by Patrolman Goitz, and turned over to the bureau of criminal investigation.

Case Not Followed.

Although nearly two months have elapsed, the detectives have not made a searching investigation, as was justified by the fact that the hose-spanner would strongly point to a member of the fire department as having been implicated in the attempted burglary. The fruit vendor who discovered the hosebreakers at work is unable to give any accurate description of the thieves, as upon discovery they immediately took to their heels. The hour of the crime was 5 a. m., and in the darkness he could not see the features of the men, but his statement to the effect that one was very tall and the other short is thought by the police to fit Turnbull and another fireman well known to the police.

The third and one of the most important discoveries made by the police has come to light as the result of the arrest of Nellie Ryan yesterday afternoon for the theft of a fur boa. The Ryan woman, who has been consorting with "Billy" Giles, driver of chemical No. 1, was taken into custody by the police after an investigation a charge of vagrancy was lodged against her. Information was furnished to the police that she had stolen a fur boa, but who the owner was or to whom the garment had been intrusted by the prisoner was not known.

Boa in Turnbull's Room.

Last night Detective Hellyer visited the home of Archie Turnbull, in the Burkhard building, and secured from him the fur in question. The disgraced captain stated that Nellie Ryan had given him the article, and that his wife had been wearing it ever since. This morning Hellyer ascertained that the boa had been stolen from Mrs. Levin, landlady of the New Rosemond hose, Third and Pine streets, on New Year's night.

Mrs. Levin stated that the Ryan woman and Giles were raising a disturbance in her place, and she ordered them to depart. Mrs. Levin then flew into a rage and attempted to assault the lodge-house keeper, at the same time declaring she would scratch out her eyes.

Subsequently Mrs. Levin missed the fur, but was at a loss to know who had taken it. Nellie Ryan, when questioned by the police, stated that she had found the article in her room, but Giles says it was lying just outside of the door to the apartment.

Women Fight in Engine-House.

It has been learned that the Ryan woman and a Mrs. Campbell became engaged in a fist fight in the quarters of chemical engine No. 1 over the fur, and

It is thought that Turnbull, to settle all argument, confiscated and presented it to his wife. A search is now being made for Mrs. Campbell.

Detective Hellyer is authority for the statement that it may develop that Nellie Ryan is in possession of a large quantity of silverware supposed to have been stolen at various fires to which Chemical No. 1 responded. A search is to be made of her room and the mystery surrounding the many thefts reported to the police as the aftermath of several north end blazes may be cleared up.

The case against the Ryan woman came up in the police court this morning and was continued until February 8. Mrs. Levin refuses to swear to a complaint charging the woman with larceny on the ground that she does not desire to be mixed up in the case.

Friend of Convict.

The merchant who furnishes the information that an ex-convict upon coming from Salem immediately hunted up Turnbull, states that last summer Andrew T. Geary, a burglar, who was sentenced to four years from Wasco county on November 20, 1902, came into the store.

"Geary, after discussing several matters," says the informant, "stated that he was going to see a friend of his who was in the fire department. I asked him who the man was and he said, 'Turnbull. You know Archie.'

"Knowing Geary's reputation for being one of the most dangerous criminals in the country, I was surprised that he should know Turnbull, with whom I have been acquainted for 30 years. I did not make any comment, but thought it very peculiar. Geary left the store and went down Oak street, so I suppose that he saw Turnbull. I have nothing
