mination. There have been a few college plays that have dealt with kindred subjects, but upon all of these as props has been built this, the grandest of them all. Seat sale opens next Wednesday.

Hoyt's Play at the Lyric.

"A Bunch of Keys." Hoyt's famous farce-connedy, is the bill this week at the Lyrfo thative. This famous bill, which has made bundreds of thousands of people langh, has been given a production by the Lyrie stock company that is superior to any other pro-duction of the play ever pressured in Fort-iad. There will be a special children's mat-imee Saturday. 40.50

Grand's Big Acts.

"The Last of the Troups" is the name of the headline set at the Grand this week. It is presented by Frank Combs and Muriel Stose and the comedy has been a pronounced suc-cess in the leading vanderlike theatres of the east. Dean Edsail and Arthur Forbes will ap-pear in Miss Edsail's one-art playlet. "The Two Edses." All Holt is a great mimic and whistlar.

At the Star.

"Lost in Siberia" will begin its week's en-regement at the Siar theatra this evening. The Alien stock company turns once more to meledrama and in "Lost in Siberia" it has a play which should be one of the theatrical surprises of the season. Attention has been directed to Russis during the past two years owing to the revolution, war and insurrection, and for this reason in particular "Lost in Siberia" is most timely. .0816 .0416 .1016 .1016

Welcome to "Human Hearts."

Greeted by hundreds of its warm friends." "Human Rearts." that wonderful tals of Hal Reid, has begun a week of undeubted trimph at the Empire. This story of the Arkansas hills, of love, adventure, injustice and retri-bution never loosens its hold on any one whose heart is capable of being touched. Mattnee Wedneedar.

"If I Were King" Again,

That the management of the Baker theatre-bund it necessary to repeat "if I Ware King" into week is a striking token of the appre-lation which the most discriminating theatre-poers in Portland hold this splendid play. Never before has the Baker company appeared to better advantage than in this great Sothern mecess. Mathew Saturday.
