

HUNTSMEN ENJOY FINE CHASE

Hunt Club Members Hold Exciting Chase Over an Excellent Course.

H. H. HERDMAN IS FIRST ON SPEEDY JOHN BOGGS

Large Field of Riders Turn Out and Enjoy a Closed Event in Celebration of Washington's Birthday—Run in Was One of the Principal Features of the Day.

The Portland Hunt club members celebrated Washington's birthday by riding through a closed paper chase in the afternoon.

The chase was won by H. H. Herdman on John Boggs, James Alexander was second, David Patallo on Bernate was third, and Miss Maud Hahn on Lulu L. was fourth.

The course was laid out by Miss Anne Sheggen and E. T. Chase and was one of the prettiest ever ridden over by the local riders. It was about six miles long through carefully selected country, contained numerous cleverly constructed blinds and at least 10 good jumps.

The start was made on the Boise Line road near the foot of Mount Tabor. The riders assembled at 2:15 and at 2:30 Acting Master of Hounds Ralph H. Jenkins sounded the festive horn and Mrs. F. G. Buffum on Toney led the field, setting a tricky pace.

Just as the riders got under way, a surprise appeared in the shape of a stiff jump with a yawning ditch ahead. There was some very clever jockeying and jumping done in the latter time than it takes to relate, but all got over safely and away went the entire field through hill and dale, over fences and through the beautiful woodland in that section of the country.

Mrs. Buffum proved an expert at passing up the blinds and, after being successful several times, a good sized bunch of the riders kept in close touch with her lead. Mrs. Buffum finally took a deceptive blind and the main trail was picked up by T. T. Strain. In a little while Mr. Strain went down one of the lanes that are so very misleading, and the lead reverted to Mrs. Buffum, who maintained it to the point where the "run in" paper started, not participating in the mad dash to the finish.

The "run in" was exciting to a degree. Mr. Herdman, Mr. Patallo, Mr. Alexander and several others coming on in rapid fashion. From that point to the tape there was a great display of speed and good horsemanship, and the riders finished in close order. Mr. Herdman, Mr. Alexander, Mr. Patallo and Miss Hahn.

Mr. Herdman rode a splendid race, considering the foxy tactics of John Boggs.

The day was a trifle dark for the chase, but what it could be classed as ideal. The rain of yesterday morning did not affect the footing of the horses, so the riders took more daring chances as a consequence.

Those who rode through were: Mrs. F. G. Buffum, Mrs. A. S. Norton, Mrs. Spencer, Mrs. Edmonds, Mrs. Blythe, Mrs. Cronin, Mrs. Clarence Nichols, C. H. Lindheiter, Miss Cumming, Miss Hahn, Miss Lawrence, J. W. Chapman, Harry Corbett, J. C. Muehe, James Nicol, Dr. Emmet Drake, T. T. Strain, James Alexander, R. V. Holder, R. E. Eldridge, W. Vollmann, Sam Kerr, Ambrose Cronin, E. H. Herdman, Dr. W. A. Burdick, Coughlan, L. L. Pagett, D. A. Patallo, Dr. Cumming and Frank Wilder.

JACK O'BRIEN IS FOULED BY ABDUL MALAGAN

(Journal Special Service.) Los Angeles, Feb. 23.—In a one-sided farce fight here last night Abdul Malagan fouled Jack O'Brien in the fifth round and all bets were declared off. O'Brien attempted to stop three men in six rounds each in the same evening and tackled the alleged son of Turkey first. The Turk failed to land a blow excepting the fouling one.

The crowd wanted their money back and also some more fighting. Jim Flynn and Jack Tremble then boxed four rounds, but the spectators left the building in an unhappy frame of mind.

Only a few of the companies increased their business over that of 1905. The following incomplete list appeared in the Chicago Insurance Field, January 19, 1907, and is certainly food for reflection:

The novelty is that a half-hour rest will be given at the half-way mark, new pins being put on when the men resume play; from one to three men—one more man has been allowed before—will be allowed to enter, and prizes will be paid at both the half-way and at the finish.

Mrs. Galland left here about 40 years ago. She married a Mr. Cohn in the west and later was divorced. She then married a Seattle man named Kline, from whom she inherited her large fortune. Her third marriage was to Gal-land.

Mrs. Galland leaves a brother here, Isaac Rosenberg, and nephews and nieces to the number of eight, the latter being the wife of the late Representative Joseph Rosenberg, of New York; and Lena Rosenberg, of Albany, Oregon; Samuel Rosenberg, Carrie Himmelhoch and Charles and Edward Rosenberg, of Seattle.

PULSE OF BUSINESS
BY A. SIMONS

The Meier & Frank store has been undergoing a sort of cyclonic tearing up, and shifting of department lately, that has landed the mail order department on the fourth floor, giving the old mail-order quarters entirely over to the general office. The art department has been moved to the fourth floor, the picture department to the third floor, the cloak department, which enlarged, occupies part of the fourth floor, as also do the blanket furniture and baby carriage departments. Excavating is going on under the Fifth street sidewalk to make extra room for storing basement goods, while the wholesale toy department has been entirely removed from the main store to the warehouse at Seventh and Taylor streets. Expansion is the cry along every line, and every possible means is being used to provide more space for handling the enormous stock of goods now on its way and to come later, from the east. The toy man is at present in Paris in the interests of the little mothers who are rather inconstant on the whole and demand brand new doll-babies every year.

WHY WOMEN OF VICTORIA WANT CHINESE LET IN

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Victoria, B. C., Feb. 23.—The women of Victoria are opening a strong campaign against the law which practically prohibits Chinese immigration by imposing a head tax of $500. They have undertaken to petition the authorities and petitions are being signed very readily by the women. They state that they care nothing for politics, but want help in their kitchens, Chinamen being the main resort for domestic servants. They are determined to press the petition to the limit and insist upon the lowering of the barriers and letting this class of domestic servants in.

AFFILIATED KNIGHTS OF PROGRESS IS NAME

Order Has a Ritual and Obligations Taken Include an Oath Never to Knowingly Do a Dishonest Act—Agree to Forfeit Jobs.

(Journal Special Service.) New York, Feb. 23.—A new secret society, the plans of which were prepared by Rainey de Saigeon, has been established here by the Young Men's Christian Association and chapters are being organized in Young Men's Christian Association branches throughout the country.

The obligations taken by neophytes include an oath never knowingly to do a dishonest act, members pledging themselves to leave their places of employment rather than violate this sworn promise. Saigeon, who died last Monday, was director of the Young Men's Christian Association employment bureau, and he arranged this secret order to better maintain the influence of the Young Men's Christian Association over those for whom the association found places of employment.

The names chosen for the order is the Affiliated Knights of Progress. A chapter has been organized in Brooklyn and initiations took place there last night. Steps for the spread of the order are to be held soon at Boston, Philadelphia and Cleveland.

The order has a ritual. The grand master at initiations wears a red robe and cap, the master of education wears a black student's robe and the master of commerce a robe adorned with flags.

It is not necessary to belong to the Young Men's Christian Association or any particular religious denomination to be eligible to membership.
