"We will have a pleasant surprise for our stockholders in an advertisement we intend to publish tomorrow in the Journal," says the management of the Butte Boys Consolidated Mining company.

To Washington more than to any other patriot of the United States is indebted for the services he rendered, both as a soldier and a statesman. This was the trend of the address which Rabbi Jonah B. Wise gave last night at Temple Beth Israel.

The monthly meeting of the Holiness association, which was to have been held Tuesday, the 18th, has been changed to Wednesday, February 27, at the United Evangelical church.

"Fun in Camp" was the subject of an illustrated lecture delivered at Grace Methodist church last night by Dr. E. L. House.

James D. Robb, a pioneer teacher of Oregon, was buried this afternoon at Riverside cemetery. He died Thursday at the Patton home, where he has spent the past four years suffering from paralysis.

Declares Pope and All Other Ecclesiastical Powers Should Abdicate and Let World Acknowledge Christ Alone as Its King.
"The Possibility of the Union of All Christians" was the theme of Rev. E. E. Darst's sermon last night in the First Christian church.

But we must use the same means. Paul, who, as a wise master-builder, founded more of the churches than any other man in apostolic times, says he did it by "knowing nothing among them except Christ the crucified."

Human creeds should give way to the great divine and all comprehensive creed—Christ. The personal acceptance of the Christ as it is in Jesus is greater than that of all creeds.

Settlement of the Hill-Harriman terminal fight in Seattle will probably be followed by some compromise of the terminal troubles of the two companies in Portland.

One of the prettiest dinners ever served in Portland was given last night at the Portland hotel by C. H. Howard, of St. Louis, to several of the Harriman officials, friends and their wives.
